

FINES AND SENTENCES IMPOSED IN COURT ON SEVERAL OFFENDERS

Wellsville Father and Son Get Long Terms in Prison—Local Liquor Cases Dis- posed Of.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—When court convened yesterday afternoon four of a special venire of jurors drawn Saturday night reported for duty as follows: M. F. Hendricks, Leontina; M. R. Little, Hanoverton; Henry Williamson, Rogers; Emanuel Lower, Columbiana. The following were excused: W. W. Burns, Salem; Charles Wernot, Hanoverton; W. C. Chamberlin, East Palestine; E. W. Michaels, Wellsville; E. W. Davis, Salem.

The court proceeded at once to dispose of the criminal business presented by the work of the recent grand jury.

Mrs. Thomas Davis, of East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to a habitual drunkard. The liquor was supplied to Albert Brown, through the agency of his 10-year-old son and was sold to the boy in compliance with a standing order from the father. There was no indictment for selling to a minor. The court imposed a fine of $15 and costs.

David Davis, Salem, who pleaded not guilty to having furnished to a habitual last week, changed his plea, admitting his guilt and was fined $20 and costs. In his statement to the court Prosecutor Brooks described Davis as a professional go-between.

SUPPLEMENTARY PETITION IS FILED

By Monroe Patterson Who Seeks to Enjoin C. A. Smith From Building a Railway.

C. A. Smith was notified this morning of the filing of a supplementary petition at Lisbon by Monroe Patterson, which the latter asks the court to consider before rendering a decision in the injunction case filed against Mr. Smith to prohibit him building his street railway line to the East End.

The first petition filed by Mr. Patterson was evidently thought by him not to be of sufficient strength to have effect on the court and another one was added. It states that if a line is allowed to be run up Kossuth street to Pennsylvania avenue his property and family will be in imminent danger at all times, and specifies several other reasons why an injunction should be issued. The action taken by Mr. Paterson does not seem to worry Mr. Smith. Having the sanction of council he is determined to build the road and will not change any of his plans.

Work on the road is being pushed with wonderful rapidity and a fine roadbed and track are being made. Until last evening 40 men were working on the road, but this morning an additional number of 10 men were started and by Saturday evening the 50 laborers will have the track laid for a distance of 1,500 feet, over a quarter of a mile. At noon today the work had reached a point on Pennsylvania avenue past the residence of M. E. Golding. The contractor has orders to continue with the work as fast as possible to get the line ready for operation.

BEN HUR MONEY WAS CARRIED OFF

EAST END BURGLAR ROBBED PORTER HERBERT.

Must Have Been Aware He Had $100
Lodge Money—Lodge Record
Also Taken.

The details of the burglary of an East End home, given exclusively in yesterday's News Review, prove that the crime was perpetrated by a most daring and nifty criminal. That he succeeded so well in his nefarious purpose and got away without leaving even the slightest clue is due to freedom from fear. The scene of the crime, the home of Porter Herbert, on Maple street, is an ideal place for such a deed, and the surroundings are such as to place all the houses of the neighborhood at the mercy of midnight prowlers. The street is unlighted and after nightfall practically deserted.

The money, amounting to about $100, taken from the Herbert home Sunday night, represented the collections Mr. Herbert had made as secretary of Pan-American club, Tribe of Ben Hur. Most of the money had been paid to him late Saturday afternoon and evening and he had no opportunity to place it in a bank.

The money was in bills and in the record book of the lodge. The intruder evidently gained an entrance to the house through one of the parlor windows, as it was found open the next morning. The lid of the box was forced open and the intruder, discovering the bills at different places in the book, carried it away with him. Several rooms down stairs were visited, but the family, all of whom sleep upstairs, heard nothing. Yesterday morning the front door was found open and it was evident that the burglar had made his exit through it.

Not the slightest clue has been found that will be of any use to the officers in establishing the identity or in apprehending the burglar. Evidently the perpetrator was not a novice and took particular care in covering up his tracks.

The loss of the book will be keenly felt by the lodge, as it contains valuable records from the time of its organization.

CONSTABLE BUSY WITH SUBPOENAS

A Large Number of East Liverpool
Lisbon.

Constable Powell was busy today serving subpoenas on witnesses to appear before the court at Lisbon during the next few days. There are a number of East Liverpool cases to come up and a large number of local people have been summoned to appear. Willis Davidson, city auditor, was summoned to appear for both the defense and the plaintiff in the case of Lucinda Martin against the city of East Liverpool. She has sued for $5,000 damages, alleging that the city owes her that amount as the result of changing the grade of Pleasant street during the year 1901. The case will be bitterly fought.

Another tax case has also been filed against M. E. Golding, of Pennsylvania avenue. County Treasurer Thompson having entered suit against him for $1240.97. A subpoena was served upon him this morning.

A number of subpoenas were also served on witnesses in the case of Arthur D. Hill against the Central Accident Insurance company. This case has been in the courts for some time and is being hard fought by both the plaintiff and defendants. Hill wants a certain amount which, he alleges, the company owes him on an accident policy.

About 20 witnesses left for Lisbon this morning to testify in cases of importance. Among the party were all of the policemen except Officers Dawson and McDevitt. They will testify on the cases against several saloonkeepers charged with selling to habitual drunkards and against Mike Cloran, charged with keeping open on Sunday.

ANDERSON NOW HEADS THE LIST

The News Review Contest Is Now
of the Very Liveliest
Character.

A GRAND HUSTLE IN ORDER

J. E. Anderson, who for a long time stood in third place among the candidates for News Review prizes, today supplants Thomas Neal, who has been in the leading position since the contest was inaugurated. The vote cast yesterday was a heavy one and it made a material change in the standing of those near the head of the list. It is not at all likely that Mr. Anderson will be able to maintain his leadership without a struggle, and the indications are that from this time on the campaign being waged by the vote-getters will be of the very liveliest character. Let no one forget that Series F coupons will not be good unless received at the News Review office today.

The following candidates have received 100 votes or more:

J. E. Anderson, Lincoln avenue...	27,914
Thomas Neal, Riverside Park...	27,103
Thomas Leonds, Fourth street...	26,321

AN UMBRELLA MENDER CUT HIS THROAT IN JAIL

Hanoverton, June 30.—(Special)—Robert Brice, aged 45, a Scotchman, well known in most of the towns of Columbiana county as an itinerant umbrella mender, was arrested here yesterday for drunkenness, and about 4:30 p. m. cut his throat with a razor in the town lockup. He died about an hour and a half later, despite the efforts of two physicians to save him. No trace of his relatives could be

CHILD'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Three Year Old Lad's Remains
the Water Five Days.

DROWNED LART THURSDAY

While at Play at Neville Island—The Remains Found This Morning at Wellsville—Father Identifies the Body.

After being in the Ohio river for five days the body of little Walter Vary Allen, aged 2 years and 9 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Allen, of Neville Island, near Pittsburg, was found at about 6 o'clock this morning near the Ohio shore at Wellsville by G. W. Willis and wife, who live on a shanty boat.

The body, swollen and distorted, was at once removed to the undertaking establishment of R. M. Haugh, where it was made as presentable as possible. Mayor Fox having heard of the child's drowning, immediately telephoned to Mr. Allen, giving him the description of the body. The father broke into tears and said that the child was undoubtedly his and that he would leave for Wellsville immediately to identify the little corpse and take it home for burial.

When caught by Mr. Willis, who threw a rope around the body and pulled it to shore, the child was dressed in soldier blue trousers with large white buttons on the inside at the waist band, black stockings, the legs of which are ribbed, a short undershirt and white striped percale waist. Enameled shoes of good make, slightly worn out at the toes, completed the costume. Two gold band rings were found, one on each hand. The child has blonde hair of unusual length, and from every appearance it was in life a very pretty boy. Every thing about the dress is of good material, and that it belongs to well-to-do parents is beyond question.

The boy was drowned on last Thursday evening. He left his home in company with a neighbor's child of about the same age, named Miller. A little later the Miller child returned home, but said nothing about his companion. Three quarters of an hour after his return the Miller boy began to cry. When questioned he said he and the Allen boy had been playing on the river bank and Allen had fallen into the water and did not come up again.

A search was started immediately. At the place pointed out by the child the water was about 15 feet deep. It was in what is usually still water between the island and the south shore, but the river was high and a current was running through. The work of dragging the river was commenced and was kept up for two days. Almost every foot of the river bottom between the island and the shore was dragged before the search was abandoned.

Camping Parties.

Quite a number of camping parties are making preparations for outings during the months of July and August. Each party has endeavored to select the most beautiful spot available for the pitching of the camp, and camping life will be enjoyed to its fullest extent. Among the parties already formed are the Junior boys of the Y. M. C. A., the Phoenix club and the Eagle association.

Petty-Farnsworth.

Miss Linnie Petty and John Farnsworth were married on Saturday evening by Squire McLane. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends in the private office of the squire. The bride and groom are held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. Following the ceremony a reception and wedding supper took place at the home of the bride.

FERNWOOD CAMP

Where Many Prominent Young Men Will Spend the Heated Term.

A number of East Liverpool's prominent residents have arranged to spend the next six weeks in camp at Fernwood, which is located on Beaver creek, a short distance from Grim's bridge. They held a meeting last evening and completed every detail for the outing. The camp is one of the most picturesque spots in this section of the country and the campers will no doubt have a great time. They will spend the time in fishing and other sports enjoyed by such people will be taken up.

Among the number that will be regular at the camp are: Joe Cartwright, Will Phillips, George Davidson, Robert T. Hall, Samuel Larkins, Robert Barker, T. B. Lawrence, Ed Davidson, W. K. Gaston, Harry Hall, W. H. Vordrey, John Brooks, Jack Harris, Thomas Anderson, George Anderson, E. M. Knowles and W. E. Wells. The first delegation will leave tomorrow.

LICENSE REVOKED BY THE BOARD

Gas Companies Must Not Tear Up
Streets Unless They Obey

NOTICE IS SERVED TODAY

As a result of action taken at the meeting of the public service board last evening, the following notice today was served on the gas companies operating in the city:

"Gentlemen—By reason of not having complied with the rules governing the opening of streets, the board of public safety has suspended your license, so far as relates to the opening of streets for gas connections, etc. The suspension will remain until you show evidence of familiarity with the rule regulating the opening of streets, and a disposition to comply therewith. Your attention is directed to a number of places on the streets that need repaving by reason of openings made by your company.

"Respectfully,
"BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE,
"J. W. GIPNER, Secretary."

"Clean and unbroken streets" has been adopted by the board of public service as a most significant motto and one that its members to a man intend to live up to. There has not been a meeting of the body since its organization that some good resolution has not been made concerning the maintenance of streets and alleys, and the session last evening was no exception to the preceding ones. The entire membership assembled on good time and the business was taken up and disposed of with dispatch.

Together with the board three officials of the city were present, City Auditor Davidson, Engineer Kelly and Supt. Morley, of the water works. Commissioner Dickey was in Pittsburg and Solicitor Davidson was unavoidably detained at Lisbon. The first question taken under consideration by the board was in reference to the numerous violations being committed annually by the holders of bonds who are failing to put a street in repair after tearing it up in the specified time, 24 hours.

Considerable attention was given the matter and every phase of it was well aired. It was discovered that the gas companies occupying the streets of the city are not living up to the law in any manner and that they have not even furnished a bond to do work in the streets. The bonds given by plumbers and the hardware concerns and a few others are for $1,000 and Mr. Smith thought it very considerate when he made a motion that the gas companies be required to furnish a like bond. The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

A morning publication, as usual, entered in its report of the bond question, designating the amount to be furnished by the gas companies as $5,000. Complaints having been registered about the condition of certain streets that have been torn up by different people during the past few days the clerk was notified to instruct the violators that their rights will be revoked immediately if they do not do as the board has directed them. The gas companies will also, as the result of a motion, be compelled to make the board a personal visit in the future and get its permission before they can tear up any streets.

MAYOR HAS DECIDED TO WORK PRISONERS ON THE CITY'S STREETS

Thinks Many of Those in Jail For Minor Offenses Can Be Made to Do Useful Labor.

Mayor Weaver made the announcement this morning that in the future when prisoners are destitute of money to pay their fines he will make provisions for them whereby they can work out on the streets the amount assessed. The edict will be received favorably by many, especially by those in charge of the streets, and if the chief executive is successful in carrying out the determination he will have accomplished something that his predecessors were never able to do.

There is seldom a day that a few extra men can not be utilized on the streets in some capacity. Street Commissioner Dickey can find work for a man almost any time and City Engineer Kelly and Sanitary Policeman Burgess have occasion to use a laborer nearly every day. Mr. Burgess receives numerous complaints that he could attend to with more satisfaction had he a man or two to accompany him with a pick and shovel. The mayor has given the question much consideration of late and for the relief of the city officials in charge of the thoroughfares he has concluded to enforce the new plan.

In some cases he does not expect it to work. There will be no ball and chain attachment to the prisoner. He will simply be placed at a job on his honor to remain and complete the work. While a number are likely to run away at the first opportunity, the mayor does not anticipate that all will do so. Honor is a man's highest possession, and as a rule he feels proud to be looked upon as one not devoid of it.

The mayor reached the decision after studying the case of "Zip" Farmer. The latter owes the city $10 and has no money. He was released last evening and the mayor thought how much better off the city would be were there a place provided for such characters to work. In "Zip" probably an exception would be found. If he were to be placed at work for 10 days he would remain on the job. He gained a reputation along that line while incarcerated in the Canton work house. The officials of that institution always placed confidence in him and they were never caused to regret it. They have sent him unattended time and again from the work house and he always returned on time.

There are others of the same type in the city and on them at least it is thought the plan will not be a failure.

GEN. JONES PLOWED FIRST FURROW

Grading Work Started On the Youngstown & Southern Railway This Morning.

Actual work was begun on the Youngstown & Southern Electric railroad this morning. It was commenced at Kyle Corners, 4 miles and a half south of Youngstown, 40 men and 20 teams being employed. The ploughing of the first furrow was done by General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhlman, J. R. Long and W. S. Anderson, the first two manipulating the plow and the latter couple driving the horses.

The reason for starting the work so far away from Youngstown is that the company has purchased a perfect roadbed extending from the city to Kyle Corners from another company and it will not be necessary to do more than repair it a little. Those employed on the construction will push the work and it is expected that the entire line will be built before the time specified in the franchises accepted by the company.

An official of the company in conversation with the News Review by long distance telephone this morning stated that work will be started on the East Liverpool end of the line just as soon as the engineers have finished some preliminaries. It is expected that they will be through in three weeks. They are in Lisbon today and will work towards this city.

Every contract for the construction of the entire road has been let to Patrick Joyce, John W. Fawcett and Veeder Heasley, Youngstown men. They will, however, sublet a portion of it.

Mr. Ruhlman said this morning that the company expected to celebrate the completion of the entire line by July 4, next year.

pany shall not penetrate any farther into the city with its line than the point where work started this morning until the remainder of the construction between Lisbon and Salem is completed. After that the company may complete its route through the business part of town, the route as decided upon being east on Washington street from Beaver to Jefferson, north on Jefferson to the Hostetter house on Walnut, west on Walnut to the Commercial house and thence down Beaver to Washington, the point where work commenced this morning.

The council also awarded the contract for the building of the new city hall. Charles H. Baker, of Lisbon, was the successful bidder, his bid being $9,134.85. There were three other bidders as follows: John A. Colburn, $9,404.45; P. M. Armstrong, $9,499; George Chamberlain, $9,612.45. Work is to be started by July 15 and completed by December 1.

Council granted the franchise as asked by the street car company but the ordinance provides that the com-

News and Notes About The Potteries

MINERVA NOTES.

James Marshall has accepted a position as batter-out for Ed Messer. Mr. Marshall was a ball player of some note in East Liverpool.

Samuel Lewis, of East Liverpool, is helping Mr. McDevitt, the warehouse boss, to get the place in shape.

The printing machine is in operation. They are decorating a fine line of dinner ware. This is the first decorating that has been done in this pottery.

Harry Henschman, of East Liverpool, visited here Wednesday. He is on his way to Carrollton, where he will be employed as one of the fittermen when that pottery starts.

CHANGE AT COLUMBUS.

George Hasbrook, of the Hasbrook-Barker company, of Columbus, O., has purchased the controlling interest of the Columbus Pottery company, of Columbus, O. The foundations are in the plant and this is all that has been done with it so far. It is the intention of the company, however, to start again with the construction and get the plant completed.

REBUILDING AT ROSEVILLE.

The J. W. McCoy Pottery company, of Roseville, O., which was burned out last month, is rebuilding the burned portion of its works and changing around, making the plant better than before. It is said that they will also erect one or even two additional kilns, which will increase the plant in capacity greatly.

TO START AUGUST 1.

The buildings of the works of the A. H. Meade Pottery company, of Auburn, Wash., have been completed and the kilns are now being erected. The company will start the installation of their machinery this week and expect to have their pottery in operation within the next 30 days at the farthest.

CAPACITY INCREASED.

A new kiln is being built at the works of the Progressive Pottery company, of Roseville, O. The company recently made several changes in the management and new people were taken into the company and they are now financially strong and the plant will be run to its fullest capacity.

POTTERY NOTES.

F. S. Lowry is adding one additional kiln to the capacity of his stoneware plant at Roseville, O. The new kiln takes the place of one torn down some time ago.

It is stated that the present capacity of the works of the Central New York Pottery company, of Chittenango, N. Y., will be greatly increased during the summer months. The company are successors to the Ashwood Pottery company.

The New England Pottery company, of East Boston, Mass., are modernizing their pottery in that city greatly. They will add one kiln to its present capacity and new machinery for the production of its goods on a more economical basis is now being installed.

OF A HIGH CLASS

Is the Vaudeville Show Given This Week at Rock Springs Park Theater.

High-class vaudeville is the order at Rock Springs theater this week, and the performers and their several entertaining acts more than fulfilled the expectations of the management of the house. The first night was characterized by hard work on the part of the artists, and expressions of approval and appreciation from the large audience.

The three Graces open the bill in a turn that is strictly original, and at once establishes the right or each to the credit of being players of unusual ability. The small boy is a winner, and his name will undoubtedly be found among the top noticers long before he discards knickerbockers.

Leslie & Cardy are a clever team and though their jokes are a trifle antiquated, the manner in which they have prepared their topical songs makes an excellent impression.

"The Chinese and the Maid" is an act made up by Seymore & Denmare, and though not entirely new to East Liverpool people, is one of the best vaudeville numbers ever seen in the city. The antics of the Chinese are funny and really meritorious, while the Dutch turn and wooden shoe dance by the lady made a tremendous hit. They received a cordial greeting from the audience, and a persistent encore when they finished.

Senator Frank Bell was the star. He works by himself, and has earned the enviable record of being the "man with the talk. His oratory is unequalled and his delivery perfect. The local citizens were greeted with applause in every instance, and the manner in which they

THE WEATHER.

Ohio—Generally fair Tuesday and Wednesday; light south winds. Western Pennsylvania—Fair Tuesday and Wednesday; variable winds. West Virginia—Fair; warmer in east portion; Wednesday, fair.

It is said that they will also erect one or even two additional kilns, which will increase the plant in capacity greatly.

The contortionists, Zeda and Dilla, have an act that cannot be topped. The team carries all its own scenery and light effects. The turn is original throughout and contains many wonderful features.

Alliance, June 20.—Monroe Holmes, of this city, aged 43, fell from a car on the Stark electric line near Maximo and sustained injuries which resulted in his death. He was unmarried.

Shut Down to Forestall Strike.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—The big smelter of the Amalgamated Copper company at Anaconda was shut down for an indefinite period, throwing 1,500 men idle. The company announced that the shut down is for the purpose of making repairs, but the men allege that it is done to forestall a probable strike for higher wages on July 1. The mines at Butte, from which the Anaconda smelter drew its ore supply, have also closed, affecting more than 2,000 other men.

Albatross Released from Quarantine.

Port Townsend, Wash., June 20.—The United States fish commission steamer Albatross, on which is a party of scientists headed by President David Starr Jordan, of Stanford university, and which returned from Fort Rupert, Alaska, on her way to the Arctic, owing to the discovery of a case of smallpox, was released from Diamond Point quarantine station and resumed her voyage north. The case has been diagnosed as mild varioloid.

The Deadly Toy Pistol.

Akron, O., June 20.—William Pifer and William Wilson Hazen, 10-year-old lads of this city, have died of lock jaw, victims of the toy pistol. Each was wounded about 10 days ago.

Ohio Mourns the Death of Three Favorite and Distinguished Sons Whose Funerals Take Place Today—Grief at the State House.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 20.—Secretary-Treasurer G. W. Savage, of the United Mine Workers of America, has returned from Columbiana county, where he settled a strike of the miners at Washingtonville which had been on two weeks, about 300 being out. The trouble was over a refusal of the operators to allow the men to haul powder to the mine from the co-operative store. After a number of spirited conferences the operators waived their objections and the strikers returned to work.

Mr. Savage tried to adjust a small strike at Ellettsville, but was unsuccessful. The Washingtonville and East Palestine coal field has been the scene of many strikes during the past few years, but in each case a satisfactory settlement was reached.

Ohio mourns the death of three favorite sons whose funerals take place today. They are Hon. Burgess L. McElroy, clerk of the house of representatives, of Mt. Vernon; Hon. Charles A. Goddard, member of the state board of public works, of Franklin Furnace, Scioto county, and Dr. A. B. Richardson, superintendent of the government hospital for the insane at Washington. All passed away at their homes. Mr. McElroy was possessed of a sunny nature and was beloved by all who knew him. An obstruction of the bowels caused his death. Bright's disease carried off Mr. Goddard. His death had been expected.

Dr. Richardson died suddenly. He was a native of Portsmouth, O., and had served as superintendent of the Massillon hospital and later filled a similar position at the Columbus hospital. His remains will leave Washington today for Columbus, where interment will be made.

The state officials met at the governor's office yesterday to take action on the death of Messrs. McElroy and Goddard. Governor Nash appointed committees to draft suitable resolutions on the death of each official, state Treasurer L. B. Cameron being made a member of the committee on the Goddard resolutions.

Groff Fasteners Found in Basement.

Milwaukee, June 20.—Evidence bearing upon the postal investigation has come to light in the Milwaukee post-office. Stored away in one corner of the basement is a big pile of Groff fasteners that were sent to Milwaukee for some unknown reason, and without requisition, about 14 years ago. The fasteners, of which there are two and one-quarter tons, will probably never be used unless shipped to Washington. None have been used here since the day they were received. The fasteners came during the early years of the late Postmaster George W. Porth's term of office. There are 1,500 sets and the contract price was $1.25 a set. There is also stored in the basement a lot of galvanized iron mail boxes made in Michigan. They were received about two years ago, without requisition.

Washington, June 20.—Postmaster General Payne was at the department but under the orders of his physician remained only a short time. Accompanied by Mrs. Payne he will leave here next Friday for the Catskills to be the guests of Roswell Miller, of New York, formerly president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Mr. Payne will remain over the fourth of July and expects to return to his desk early next week. He had no time to make public regarding the postal investigation. The inspectors are busy and the end is not in sight yet.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow said he could not approximate the date of the completion of the investigation. Mr. Bristow is going to Maine to spend part of his vacation fishing as soon as the investigation is over, but this may not be until late in the summer.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden has returned from Detroit. He was closeted with Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, with whom he discussed his recently published letter to the postmaster general calling for an investigation of the contract held by a manfolding company of Franklin, Pa.

Mr. Madden explained his letter to the officials. It is understood that he expressed regret at having acted hastily and repudiated any intention of reflecting on officials of the department in connection with published criticisms of the contract. Mr. Madden had nothing to say for publication.

Groff Fasteners Found in Basement.

Milwaukee, June 20.—Evidence bearing upon the postal investigation has come to light in the Milwaukee post-office. Stored away in one corner of the basement is a big pile of Groff fasteners that were sent to Milwaukee for some unknown reason, and without requisition, about 14 years ago. The fasteners, of which there are two and one-quarter tons, will probably never be used unless shipped to Washington. None have been used here since the day they were received. The fasteners came during the early years of the late Postmaster George W. Porth's term of office. There are 1,500 sets and the contract price was $1.25 a set. There is also stored in the basement a lot of galvanized iron mail boxes made in Michigan. They were received about two years ago, without requisition.

Uncle Remus's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—near me I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to me that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrup, dyspepsia medicines and pills, little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely do make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

LIFE PLANT

THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws.

Do you suffer with INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torrid liver make you feel miserable—out of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out?

LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.

Rev. J. H. Merchant, Pastor M. E. church at Freeport, O., writes under date July 10, 1900: I take pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Merchant desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a sure and certain remedy for Rheumatism.

The Fourth of July meeting of the Rhode Island branch of the Society of the Cincinnati, composed of the descendants of officers of the Revolutionary army, will consider, among other things, the report of a committee appointed two years ago, to find a suitable tune for the words of the national anthem, "America." As almost everybody knows, "America" is sung to the tune "God Save the King," which has been the English national air for almost 200 years. The Rhode Island patriotic society evidently believes America is big and old enough to produce a tune of her own and no longer use a borrowed one. But unless it can select from the 500 or more compositions at its disposal something that will catch the popular ear, its efforts will be wasted. A national anthem altogether new would be far more likely to spring into popular favor.

The toy pistol began its deadly work much earlier than usual this year, and several small boys in different parts of the country have fallen as its victims. The toy pistol is an instrument whose manufacture, sale and use should be sternly prohibited. The law is supposed to keep ordinary revolvers, guns and pistols out of the hands of children. What criminal folly then to place in a boy's hands a weapon which experience has proven to be quite as deadly as other firearms, simply because it is misnamed a toy! Parents might as well give their children real pistols to play with; then, if they shoot themselves, they will leave the world by a quicker and easier route than the lad seized with lockjaw can possibly find.

The suggestion is offered by a citizen that it would be well for some of the police officers to make their nightly rounds in plain clothing. By such a course he believes it would be much easier for them to track suspicious characters and to place their hands on those who attempt holdups and highway robbery. The suggestion is worthy of serious consideration by Chief Wyman and the board of public safety.

The board of public service has taken a sound position in assuming that the city streets belong to the city. It is an outrage not to be tolerated to allow any person or company to tear up the paving and replace it in a slipshod manner. The board has adopted an excellent rule and shows a disposition to enforce it to the letter.

Our cherry picking contemporary picks up a story in the News Review and because it had been "scooped," as happens every day, attempts to pick flaws in it. When its "correction," padded out to half a column, has been closely scrutinized, the reader will discover that the statements tally exactly with those printed in this paper.

It is to be hoped that after the public service board has given its attention to the weightier problems confronting it, it will find time to give the matter of dilapidated, dirt-covered and dangerous sidewalks consideration. Sidewalks answering any and all these descriptions can be found without any extended search.

HOW BEST TO REACH THOSE WHO PURCHASE

The Evening Newspaper is the Guide of the Shopper Everywhere.

To substantiate the contention that the daily newspaper is a more valuable and effective medium than the magazine, and that of daily newspapers the evening edition is the superior, these quotations from advertisers of experience and judgment are submitted:

"You ask me which I consider the more valuable as an advertising medium—the evening paper or the morning paper. I will say that a great deal depends on whether the advertiser is catering to the popular trade or what is generally designated as 'the classes.' If the advertiser's trade is with the wealthier class, then I should say that the morning paper is quite as good as the evening paper. On the other hand, if the advertiser desires to secure the trade of the laborer, the mechanic, the clerk, etc., who has hardly time to read even the most important news on his way to work in the morning, to say nothing of reading advertisements and who seldom finds time to do any more reading of that nature until he returns home in the evening—I should most emphatically declare the evening paper to be the better advertising medium."

"In the evening the mechanic or clerk has ample time, as a rule, to read his evening paper, and to discuss with his wife the interesting news, attractive offers, or advertisements he may find in its columns, and to come to a definite conclusion as to just where to buy. The experience of a great many years confirms this belief, and in our own business we are now confining ourselves to the use of the evening papers, with most gratifying results. I am prepared to make the unqualified statement that any business house doing business on a strictly cash basis, and catering to the popular trade, should confine its advertising to the evening papers, wherever it can do so."

"The busy housewife has no time to run over the advertisements in the morning paper. If she has, she cannot arrange her household in a moment so that she can go down town to take advantage of the bargains offered. When she reads of bargains in the evening paper, however, she makes preparations to start early next morning, and a large percentage of those early morning shoppers who struggle for the first places at the bargain counter are the readers of the evening paper, and not, as might be supposed, the readers of the morning paper."

"There is no doubt that the evening daily is the daily for the advertiser. It comes into the home after the merchant's work is done, and he can sit down and study it—and his competitor's ads—to his utmost satisfaction. The good wife has time to look over its columns, and the same order of things holds good in the home of the mechanic and laborer. The morning daily is laid to one side by the busy merchant, at his store, and the busier housewife at her home. The laborer or mechanic has no time to read it before he goes to work, and is not allowed to read during working hours. You can always depend upon it that the evening daily has the larger circulation for these very reasons, and is, therefore, the better medium."

A night session of court last evening received their sentences, the first named getting 5 years and the last named 10 years at hard labor in the penitentiary. Frank Easton, the father, stood trial on one charge, the more serious charge being ignored in both cases and was convicted, the jury returning a verdict of guilty after being out about 25 minutes. George Easton, an elder brother of the two girls, pleaded guilty to two indictments. Life imprisonment would have been the penalty had they been convicted of the other offense.

WELLSVILLE

A LONG PARADE

Wellsville Has a Fourth of July Program That Will Please And Delight.

At a largely attended meeting in the council chamber last night the finishing touches were put on the Fourth of July program.

There will be five bands and two drum corps in the street parade which Mayor Fogo states will be over one mile in length.

Three hundred red, white and blue suits have been loaned to that many boys, who will form a division of the parade themselves, J. H. Pease being the captain. The girls' division will be in floats and wagons and national airs will be rendered by them at stated intervals.

Several shots from a monster cannon will be fired from the river bank, commencing at daybreak and continuing until the parade starts.

The various committees have everything in good shape and the celebration will be the biggest event in the history of the old town.

MASKED MEN
STOPPED COOPER

An Exciting Experience on the Lisbon Road Near Wellsville.

Harry Cooper, superintendent of an extensive brick and tile works at Coleman, near Lisbon, had a hair-raising experience two miles from here on the Lisbon road Sunday night. He was driving alone in a buggy and when a particularly dark and lonesome spot was reached along the wooded road two men sprang from the shadows and approached the vehicle. They were masked, and peering closely into the face of Mr. Cooper remarked that he "was not the man" they were looking for.

Mr. Cooper was very thankful that he was not the man wanted and was glad to be permitted to proceed without further molestation.

GAS COMPANY CHARTER
WILL BE REVOKED

An Ordinance to Be Passed By Wellsville Council at a Meeting Tonight.

The city council will meet tonight to pass the ordinance, prepared by City Solicitor Charles Boyd, for the immediate revocation of the franchise of the Tri-State Gas company. The feeling is still bitter here and the measure will be passed without a dissenting voice.

The city bills for June and the salary list will be certified up to City Auditor McGregor in order that he make payment before the Fourth.

CARRIER RESIGNS

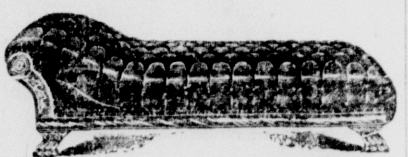

Edward Bunting Weary of Driving 27 Miles a Day on Rural Route.

Edward Bunting, carrier of free rural delivery route No. 1, and the only one from the Wellsville postoffice, has resigned and he is anxiously awaiting acceptance.

The route covered every day is about 27 miles, and Carrier Bunting finds the work a little too arduous for the compensation received. The roads are rough and hilly and the route to be traversed is entirely too lengthy. It is thought that the government will have difficulty in securing a successor.

to Mr. Bunting, and the chances are good for a discontinuance of the service.

Apropos of this it might be in place to state that Wellsville is anxiously awaiting the advent of free delivery. The receipts of the postoffice entitle the city to that service and an inspector is expected here this week to investigate and report on the matter.

Fighters Were Fined.

Mayor Fogo held a session of court last night and imposed heavy fines on Stephen Timmons and Clyde Cress for fighting at Third and Broadway Sunday afternoon. Ed Hainshaw and Charles Weaver fought Saturday night in the West End and they too were fined. Charles Rogar and Lee Ki drew a similar prize for the same of fence. Sam Brown parted with $5 for being drunk and $7 additional for fighting and resisting Chief Houser.

Is There an American Face?

The English face, the Jewish face, the Irish face, the Italian face, the Chinese face, the Japanese face, the French face, the Indian face, even the Negro face—all these have something about them which calls up a definite picture in one's mind. But the American face has no strong characteristic to differentiate it from other faces of superior races, remarks London Health. It is international, for here and there one may find the traces which suggest a relation to this, that or the other face. It may be a line or a ligament, breathed by an early English ancestry, or something suggestive of Teutonic origin, or a sharp suggestion of the Frenchman's face or the Irishman's or the Italian's or the Scotchman's. But when one must deal with the American abstractly one can scarcely call up the American face.

Uncle Sam, with his striped trousers, his sharply cut coat, his plug hat, his whiskers and his bland, good natured countenance, is a happy conception, yet he may never hope to portray the matchless and indescribable cosmopolitanism of the American face.

An insurance firm, was present and submitted a proposition to carry the insurance required to be taken out by the board at a very reasonable figure. He showed whereby the board would save money by accepting the proposition, and the members looked upon it with favor. They, however, decided to defer action until the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening. Two members of the board having business of importance to attend to, on next Friday evening.

Burford Bros. submitted a communication asking that some provision be made that will result in their being able to reach a certain piece of property owned by them in the West End. They stated that the West End pottery covers a part of the public street leading to it and from all sides they are barred from access to it by some interference on the part of people who, they allege, have no right to block the way.

The matter was referred to council, which body will be required to find why the public streets are occupied. Samuel and John Cartwright were present and asked that they be given some consideration in regard to the water service in the vicinity of their pottery. They stated that the insurance companies had threatened to raise the rates on them if they don't provide better facilities, and as they only have a four-inch pipe now they want at least a six-inch main. They agreed to furnish the money for laying it if the board will allow them to eliminate their water rent until the bill is paid. They want the new pipe to be laid from Market street to Jackson street on Second street. The request was referred to Supt. Morley.

SOUTH SIDE

CAME VERY NEAR
LOSING HIS LIFE

A HOOKSTOWN MAN BADLY HURT ON THE STREET.

Thrown From a Wagon to the Street Car Track and Picked Up Unconscious.

John Ben Swaney, who resides on a farm near Hookstown, was the victim of a peculiar accident last evening, and one that came near costing him his life. Swaney had been to East Liverpool, and after spending some time in Chester, started for his home about 4 o'clock.

The team driven by Swaney was a quiet one and not very fast. It was hitched to a road wagon of the ordinary make, and with what the local constabulary constituted a fairly good load. He went out Virginia avenue to Third street, and turning into that thoroughfare proceeded to Carolina. In making the turn into the latter street it was necessary to cross the double tracks of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway.

A large force of men are at work at that particular corner, making preparations to pave the street. The space on either side of the tracks had been excavated to the depth of at least a foot, and it is extremely difficult for the passage of vehicles. In some manner Swaney got the wagon mixed up in the tracks and a disastrous accident occurred. The front wheels of the vehicle in passing over the rails caught the rear end of the wagon to pitch sideways. The rapidity with which the wagon turned, caused Swaney to pitch forward, and he alighted on his head and shoulder far out over the second track. His head barely missed the steel rail, and he lay where he had fallen until assistance arrived.

A street car in charge of Motorman William Watson and Conductor Seth Ranch was approaching from the east and the men witnessed the accident. They stopped the car at the street corner, and lifting the apparently lifeless form of Swaney in their arms, placed it on the car and he was removed to the office of Dr. George E. Lewis. The latter gentleman was out, and Swaney, still unconscious, was taken to East Liverpool. A physician succeeded in reviving the injured man, and his wounds were dressed. His head was badly cut and bruised, and his shoulder sustained a bad sprain.

When his wounds had been sewed up and bandages adjusted on the injured arm and shoulder he was taken back to Chester where his team had been cared for by residents of the vicinity, and accompanied by Joseph Fleming he was taken to his home near Hookstown. The injuries sustained by Swaney made him deathly sick, and though no word could be obtained from him this morning, the physicians say he will be ill for several days, and

PRESBYTERIAN DAY

At Rock Springs Park and Fully 1,500 Visitors Attend the Picnic.

This is "Presbyterian day" at Rock Springs park, and there are in the neighborhood of 1,500 members of that denomination in attendance at the picnic being held there today. The excursion arrived from Wheeling early this morning, and the large crowd is enjoying the day in a most satisfactory manner.

The arrangements for the outing had been placed in the hands of an executive committee in which every church in the Wheeling district was represented, and the details were perfect. The churches were designated by different colored ribbons as follows: First church, blue; Second church, green; Third church, stars and stripes; Vance Memorial, red; Monmouth, red, white and blue; Elm Grove, yellow; Island Sunday school, pink; Park View, white; Beech Glen, purple.

Two baseball games were played during the day. The first game took place at 10:20 and was between the Sunday school of the Vance Memorial and the Third church. The game was won by the latter team by a score of 9 to 2. The second game started at 2 o'clock and the First church and the Second church Sunday school scholars took part.

Few of the picnickers visited East Liverpool during the day, and it could be seen that the crowds were being thoroughly entertained at the park. The excursion trains leave the Chester station at 6:35.

GREAT HOLES IN STREET

Which the Town Authorities Have at Last Barricaded to Make Safe.

The Chester authorities have taken the useless precaution to barricade the two great holes in the street at First street and Virginia avenue, and it is presumed they will be watched closely for a few days at least. The cavity into which Mrs. Amanda Hunter fell yesterday is a very dangerous spot, and should never have been left open as long as it was.

The wonder is that some serious accident had not happened long ago, for the holes were left without a particle of protection. Now that something has happened it very much resembles "locking the door after the horse has been stolen." Several months ago a horse fell into one of the cavities, and had a miraculous escape from death. It is probable Mrs. Hunter will ask damages and the best informed legal authorities agree that she can recover. Residents of the vicinity are at a loss to know why steps have not been taken to build the sewer and fix the streets so they will be passable.

Theatre Improvements.

The work of constructing the double doors at the entrance of the summer theatre was completed today, and the improvement will be a very great convenience to the ticket taker. The building is now nearly ready for the painters, and will be further beautified by painting in an artistic manner. Stage Manager Joe Bradley is completing the frames for a new stage setting, and the scenery will be ready for use some time this week. The scene is a palace setting, and is the finest that ever graced a stage in this section of the state.

Clay Shops Now Idle.

The clay shops of the Edwin M. Knowles pottery closed down yesterday for the midsummer loaf. The employees of this department were informed when the loaf was announced that they would be expected to report for duty in two weeks. A large majority of the employees of the plant reside in Chester, and nearly all of them are members of the various local clubs, and declare they will vote against the convention demands.

CHESTER NOTES.

Mrs. Blanche Craft, of Wheeling, was the guest of Chester friends today.

Al McDonald was down at the home farm yesterday. He reports the crops doing well, and the garden truck in excellent shape.

Miss Addie McCutcheon and Miss Mary Boner, both of Wheeling, are calling on Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McCutcheon, of Virginia avenue.

Misses Tena and Edith Harberger, of Wheeling, are guests at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bloom, on First street. They will remain several weeks.

Mrs. George Buxton and her daughters, Misses Lottie and Cora, returned home to Leetonia today after spending a few days with Mrs. Russell and several other friends in Chester.

Misses Mary and Lillian Lewis, of Wheeling, Miss Ethel Clark, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Emma Spear and son, Paul, are the guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Lewis today.

VISITING ELKS
JOLLY FELLOWS

They Arrived from New Castle This Morning Determined to Obliterate the Locals.

The New Castle Elks are here. They came at 10 o'clock this morning and they had not been in the city more than 10 minutes until every one, even on the hilltops, knew of their presence. All stately, fine looking fellows, they are. They were met at the depot by a reception committee of the local lodge and every courtesy was extended to them. But the noise they make—actually they are just like so many school boys home from college on a vacation. This afternoon when they go up against Joe Herbert and the remaining stars of the local team they will surely wish that the train had left New Castle before they reached it.

The parade given this afternoon before the game was an imposing affair and was watched with unusual interest. It was headed by a band and a Fourth of July pageant could not have shown up any better. The gaiety which characterizes the best people on earth was in evidence all along the line of march and every spectator felt so jolly and worked up that they determined then and there to follow the band wagon and march to West End park. If the game is not the best ever witnessed in this city it will not be one fault of the members of the team. They have practiced until every inch of flesh and muscle would make Corbett look like Dave Orr. In fact, they all look like an Andy Roe, Chick Gilbert or a Louis Steinfield. The locals in their new uniforms were so proud while they treaded up and down through the streets this afternoon that the ostrich would have been compelled to fly away back had he dropped among them.

Courage is what they need, though, and new dresses won't hurt them along that line. The New Castle bunch expect to win by cowing the umpire. If they only knew who that gentleman is to be their minds would change a few. He is about as big as you make them and never took a dare in his life.

ELEVATOR ACCIDENT

Score of Passengers Badly Injured in Sudden Fall of Fifty Feet.

TWO OF THE VICTIMS MAY DIE

Visitors to Heinz Pickle Factory Dashed Through Five Floors—Cage Was Overcrowded—Broken Shaft Cause of Casualty.

Pittsburgh, June 30.—With a wild downward plunge of 50 feet an elevator, overcrowded with human freight, fell in the factory of the H. J. Heinz company, in Main street, Allegheny, and 23 persons were maimed. It is thought that at least two of the victims will die and the condition of all the injured is serious. With the exception of the operator all the passengers were visitors inspecting the plant. A broken shaft caused the accident.

Names of the Injured.
John Churney, Troy Hill, Allegheny; both legs fractured below the knees; not expected to recover.
Mrs. Edward Holman, Mt. Hope, N. J.; suffered concussion of the spine; not expected to recover.
Joseph Weber, elevator man in factory, Allegheny; condition dangerous.

O. R. Thompson, clerk in factory; right leg crushed.
Miss Imogene Redman, Paris, Ky.; ankles sprained and spine injured.
Andrew Bolak, Allegheny; ankles sprained.
Mrs. H. A. Morrison, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.
Mrs. A. Lutha, Allegheny, ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.

William Konkana, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.
C. Howak, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of spine.
Mrs. A. Vodraska, Cleveland; cut and bruised by flying glass.
Charles Spurney, Cleveland; ankles sprained and body bruised.
John Lotabar, Cleveland, suffered concussion of the spine.
Mrs. George Sherlock, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

Mrs. William Mitchell, Paris, Ky.; serious compound fracture of leg.
Mrs. Victor Bailey, Hazelwood; left leg fractured.
John Bretsky, No. 1645 Penn avenue; ankles sprained.
Steven Jazco, Cleveland; ankle sprained.
Mrs. Minnie Spring, Glenshaw; ankle sprained.

Mrs. E. W. Thornton, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.
The injuries of the victims, almost without exception, are serious. In cases where the passengers suffered fractured limbs, the terrific concussion caused by the impact of the heavy cage on the hard floor of the basement, caused the bones to protrude through the flesh and in several instances amputation will probably be necessary to save the patients' lives.

Elevator Said to Be Overcrowded.

The freight elevator used by the Heinz company in transporting passengers carries about twice the burden of the ordinary passenger cage. There were no air cushions at the bottom and the big wooden platform fell to the basement like a plummet, scattering the passengers upon the hard floor, where an instant after they fell a rain of broken glass showered upon them, lacerating their faces and hands and adding to the horror of the disaster.

Officers of the company stated that the accident would not have occurred except for the antics of intoxicated visitors who jumped up and down, loosening the machinery and consequently breaking the shaft of the drum which controls the main ropes. The victims deny this and declare that all the passengers were sober and behaved in the most quiet fashion.

Balance Weight Was Caught.

A large party of visitors were being shown through the plant and were about to descend from the fifth floor to the preserving department beneath. The elevator was in charge of Joseph Weber. When 22 passengers had crowded on the platform the machine began its descent. Suddenly it shot downward, the passengers swaying to and fro as they passed the safety gates. With a crash they landed in the basement and sank groaning on the floor.

A 700-pound balance weight shot up through the timbers at the top of the elevator and buried itself in a two-inch plank in the side of the shaft. The wild ride of the weight caused a window to cut and a shower of glass added the terror of the mangled sufferers who crawled from the pit beneath. The hospital ambulances and patrol wagons were kept traveling from the plant to the hospitals for more than an hour after the accident occurred.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confined dyspepsia "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault-finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with some flesh and some sense.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my stomach troubles," writes Geo. B. Baker, 100 N. Fifth Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles (I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but with no relief. Finally I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A majority of the injured are now being cared for at the Allegheny General and West Penn hospitals.

The Cleveland people who were injured are members of the Bohemian Catholic Central union and came here to take part in the blessing of the guns of the Cadets of St. George, of Allegheny, on Sunday.

To Call Meeting of Operators.

Huntington, W. Va., June 30.—One representative from each coal field in the state was here to discuss the advisability of calling a meeting of all the coal operators in the state in this city at an early date. The meeting will be held early in July. The recent advance in freight rates on all railroads in the state is the chief subject to be discussed by the operators at this session.

Receiver for Oil Company.

Lima, O., June 30.—Harry H. Adkins was appointed receiver for the Star Petroleum company. Frank H. Blackman, a Detroit stockholder, made the application for a receiver. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and its property is said to be heavily encumbered.

Baseball Managers to Meet.

New York, June 30.—At a meeting between Harry Pulliam, president of the national league, and P. Powers, president of the national association of minor leagues, it was decided to call a meeting to be held at the Hotel Victoria on July 28 for the long postponed discussion of the national agreement. A letter was sent to Ban Johnson, president of the American league, requesting his presence at the meeting. Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, has asked an investigation in the Bowerman-Clarke trouble. Clarke, who is manager of the Pittsburgh team, was struck by Bowerman in the office of the New York baseball club on Friday.

Drowned Trying to Rescue Wife.

Leeds, Mo., June 30.—Mrs. Nora Winfrey, aged 19 years, committed suicide by jumping from the bridge into the Blue river. Her husband, George Winfrey, aged 21 years, drowned while trying to rescue her. It is said Mrs. Winfrey was despondent because of a quarrel.

Crescote Works Destroyed.

West, Pascagoula, June 30.—Fire totally destroyed the Crescote works, entailing a loss of $200,000. The works are said to be the largest in the south. The fire was caused by a piece of hot iron falling on the creosote. An explosion followed. No one was injured.

The Great Auto Race

Men Who Will Represent America in the International Contest For the Bennett Cup

The automobile blue ribbon race, the contest for the James Gordon Bennett cup, which takes place this year in Ireland and is open to all automobile clubs, will possess unusual interest to Americans by reason of the fact that three of their intrepid countrymen will try conclusions in skill and daring and in the speed and quality of their machines with the crack automobile drivers of the world over 300 miles of Irish road.

The contest for the Bennett cup is for the world's championship, and Alexander Winton, Louis P. Moers of Cleveland and Percy Owen of New York are the Americans against whom the automobile clubs of Germany, France, Great Britain and other nations will pit their most famous chauffeurs, most of whom are veterans of many a famous road battle. Of the Americans Winton alone has had experience at the European racing game, and that only on one occasion. Moers and Owen have hitherto only participated in track contests, far less dangerous forms of racing the swift and powerful road locomotives.

The result of the race will not only determine who is the champion chauffeur of the world, but will also go far toward settling the much discussed question of superiority in automobile building.

Fighting for the coveted trophy of automobiling on the European teams will be such noted chauffeurs as Henry Fournier, winner of the Paris-Madrid race and holder of the American mile record of 9:51.45; Rene de Kuyff, victor in the Paris-Bordeaux contest of 1890 and leader the first day in the Paris-Vienna test of last year; S. F. Edge, who captured this same James Gordon Bennett cup for England last year; Charles Jarrott, achiever of a straightaway mile in 9:46; and Baron de Katon and Herr de Grass, champion drivers of ponderous German speed cars.

Alexander Winton was the first of the American chauffeurs to volunteer to build and drive a machine in the race and so made possible an American team. Accordingly he was chosen by the contest committee as the nucleus of the team. The selection of Moers and Owen as the two other members followed the recent speed tests on Long Island.

Winton is the designer of the racers to be driven by Owen and himself. A small, wiry, nervous man of forty-three is this champion of American racers. Born in Scotland, he came to this country twenty years ago. His mechanical cleverness soon placed him in charge of a marine engine shop in New York city. Later he took up his residence in Cleveland and became prominent as a manufacturer of bicycles.

In 1895 he designed and built a vertical gas motor for automobiles. In 1900 he represented the Automobile Club of America in the Gordon Bennett cup race, which that year was run from Paris to Bordeaux. After 125 miles of racing he ripped a tire off in rounding a corner, but continued for twenty-five miles farther on the run before stopping. At one point in the race Charron, who was second, led him by an hour, but was forced to lay up two hours for repairs. This would have made Winton second had his wheel been intact and permitted his going farther.

Winton is the holder of the world's mile track record of 1:02.4, made at Cleveland Sept. 16, 1902, and of all track records up to ten miles in 1902 that were scored the same day. In a straightaway trial on the Ormond (Fla.) beach in March, 1903, he drove the Winton Bullet a mile in 0:52.45, the fastest mile ever made by an American automobile. The same day he scored 19:26.15 for ten miles, including a complete turn.

Percy Owen is the Adonis of the team. He has blue eyes, blond hair and a well set up figure of medium height. His conversation is witty, and his style is altogether typical of the up to date young man. Owen is a native of Oswego, N. Y., and he is twenty-eight years old. He drifted from the insurance business into automobiling. He is known in club land as a popular member of the New York Athletic club and the Automobile Club of America. Owen is a nervous and skillful and will push his machine as fast as the most daring. Unless some accident occurs he should be well up with the first bunch in the dash over the roads of Ireland.

Owen has been racing automobiles for three years and is the possessor of many trophies won at the Providence, Cleveland and other meets. The proudest feathers in his racing cap, however, are the American mile straightaway record of 1:17.35 for gasoline vehicles from 1,000 to 2,000 pounds and also the kilometer record of 0:47 for the same class. Both were scored on Staten Island May 31, 1902. Most of the track records and victories of the famous Winton "pup" were made under his guiding hand.

Louis P. Moers is the daredevil of the American trio. He is a full blooded Yankee and first saw the light in Massachusetts thirty years ago. He is fearless to recklessness and in his element when aboard a racing automobile. He looks the part, too, with his freckled face and sandy hair and determined visage, a typical Yankee fighter who will never give up so long as his machine is on wheels and has power enough to keep it on the jump. And this same pugnaeous face bears more than one scar, reminders of little mishaps that have befallen him while pushing his automobile along at its utmost speed. Moers, like Winton, was originally a bicycle builder. At one time he was superintendent of a factory.

It takes a superabundance of nerve to be a driver of an automobile racer

Broken limbs, bruised bodies and even death have previously marked the course of these great international contests. A mile a minute pace on a clear, broad, straightaway road is a rate few drivers have the courage to dare. Shift the race, however, to a narrow and by no means smooth Irish road, with sharp turns to be negotiated every mile or two and with the pace most of the way close to a mile a minute; remember that passing a rival racer must be done with one wheel in the ditch and that corners must be rounded at full speed, often with two of the wheels in the air; remember the danger of traction falling and the driver being dashed into a wall or tree by the road side and that at any moment there is a possibility of the racing automobiles becoming bunched and wrecked in an awful tangle of men and machinery, and it will be realized that to be a successful automobile racer one must forget all about self and think of nothing but the joy of victory ahead—if the fates permit.

But besides the James Gordon Bennett cup there are several other international automobile races in which Americans will take part. Most notable of these is the Paris-Madrid race, which has attracted the entries of several Americans who have made records at home and abroad. Among these are Foxhall Keene and William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. Mr. Keene has been preparing for this race and is considered a likely candidate for winner. His old time rival, Henry Fournier, is entered for the race, as he is for the Bennett cup, and it is Mr. Keene's ambition to prove his superiority over the bold Frenchman, who is second to none when nerve and skill are required.

The most important of all the international races, however, is the Bennett cup. Only those drivers who are willing to risk their lives in the demonstration of the superiority of the product of the designers and builders of the countries they represent have any chance of victory. It is considered that the race in Ireland will be largely a contest of drivers, and in that event America seems to have an excellent show, for no more capable and courageous team than Messrs. Winton, Moers and Owen could have been chosen to represent the United States in Ireland.

An Inconvenient Piano.

Lepold de Meyer of Dresden, a brilliant and popular pianist of his day, was once summoned to play before the sultan at Constantinople. Going thither, he borrowed a grand piano from one of the Austrian secretaries of legation and had it set up in a large reception room at the palace. There he awaited the coming of the sultan, but when that intelligent monarch entered the room he started back in alarm and demanded of his attendants what that monster was standing there on three legs.

Explanations followed, but were in vain. The legs had to be taken off and the body of the instrument laid flat on the floor, and Lepold de Meyer, squatting cross-legged on a mat, went through his programme as best he could in that awkward attitude and without pedals. But the commander of the faithful was delighted, and when the last piece was played gave the artist over $5,000 as "back-sheesh."

His Excuse.

"No," said a citizen when asked if he would contribute anything to the relief of the flood sufferers; "I don't think I will."
"Can't afford it, eh?"
"I isn't that, but the last time I gave something for charity one of the papers spelled by name wrong."

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Placing the New Bell—Workmen are now engaged in placing the fine new bell in position in St. John's Lutheran church. It will probably be ready to call the worshippers together next Sunday.

New Sunday School—A Presbyterian Sunday school was organized at the school house north of the city, near the Ross farm in Jethro Hollow, on Sunday, and will meet regularly each Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The officers of the school are A. E. Waggle, superintendent, and D. J. Johnson, secretary and treasurer.

Hurt By a Stone—John, aged 9, a son of Louis Grouhart, Cherry alley, was struck on the head by a stone thrown by another lad and got a severe scalp wound. He was unconscious for a time. The boys were over in West Virginia at the time, stoning apple trees to knock off the fruit.

Fined $1 and Costs—While celebrating a holiday annually observed by his native countrymen, John Wockdyz, a Poleander, was arrested last evening by Chief Wyman. He was holding up a telephone pole on Market street and was bearing down very close to the ground under the weight. He was an inoffensive sort of a fellow and the mayor let him off with the minimum fine, $1 and costs.

Too Smart.
"Once when I was a Mississippi pilot," said Mark Twain, "I got out of work and had to hustle for a new job. I talked to a number of captains, but none of them wanted a pilot. Finally I met a man who said there was a vacancy on his boat that I might fill if I could qualify. He asked me about my habits, my religion, my birth, my schooling, and so on. Then he said: 'Now, for the main thing: Do you know where the snags in the river are?' 'No, captain,' I said, 'I don't.' He swore, 'Wants to be a pilot,' he muttered, 'and don't know where the snags are.' 'I know where they're not,' said I. But my smartness cost me the job."

Good Shoes

A good solid shoe at a reasonable price, is cheaper than a cheap shoe at a cheap price. We are selling Ladies' Oxfords at $1.00 a pair that are strictly solid, and will guarantee them to wear. Put 'em up or plain toe. You can possibly buy oxfords for less money, because there are cheaper ones made. But one pair of ours at $1.00 will be worth more than two pair of the cheaper ones.

Which Is Foolish? Which Is Wise?

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

Who is the wise one?
Who is the foolish one?

We're after your case.
We want to help you.
Give us opportunity.
We'll do it.

If you are at all intelligent you will see our point. It is not what you spend your money for, but how you spend it. Clothes and food are legitimate expenditures of money but if someone offers you a way that you can buy clothes and food and receive back your money would you not avail yourself of it? Why then not take the same plan when it is offered you in that other essential of life, a shelter, a home.

We make the offer and are Waiting to hear from you.

LABOR DAY PLANS GOING FORWARD

Strong Sentiment Shown in Favor of Holding the Usual Parade.

A LARGER COMMITTEE

Will Be Asked of Trades Council and Much Attention Will Be Paid to the Program For the Eventful Day.

Preparations for the labor day celebration are going steadily forward, and at the meeting held last night considerable progress was made. The Potters' Herald office has been secured for the committee's use, and meetings have so far been held only on each Monday night. Hereafter, however, the body will get together oftener.

Few of the sub-committees have been appointed as yet, and it was decided at the meeting last night that it would be impossible to get along without more help. The present committee is a good one and has worked faithfully and well as far as the project has advanced, but there are a great many departments in a celebration of this character, and they are so varied in their operation that it requires men who are familiar with the various features to handle them right.

At the meeting to be held by trades council on Wednesday night the chairman of the committee will ask that the general committee be enlarged. Five more members will be asked and it is probable President Reilly will comply. The addition to the body will enable the chairman of the committee to appoint the heads of the sub-committees at once, and with the bustling that the committee expects to do they will barely finish the task in hand before the date of the celebration, which is September 7.

The matter of advertising was taken up and thoroughly discussed. More attention will be paid to this department on the occasion of the 1923 demonstration than has ever been customary. It was deemed the wiser plan to defer definite action on the matter until the addition was made to the committee.

A large number of communications were received by the committee's secretary, John Reark, all of which declared in favor of a parade on Labor Day. The matter had been referred to the different locals for a decision, and the committee acted wisely in this. It was the idea of the committee to get a definite expression from the unionists of the city as to whether it would be advisable to hold a parade. When a local organization decides in favor of the parade, they will naturally be under obligation to turn out themselves and see to it that their neighbor does likewise. This action on the part of the committee is commendable and will have its effect.

MEANS MUCH TO THIS CITY

LOCAL BANK TO HANDLE C. & P. RAILROAD FUNDS.

The Potters' National Bank Contracts for a Large Business.

That East Liverpool is fast becoming an important financial center, as well as one of the leading industrial localities along the Ohio river, was demonstrated this morning when a deal was closed which places all of the business of the big C. & P. Railroad company in the hands of the Potters' National bank.

Details with reference to the transaction were secured at a late hour this afternoon and involve negotiations which have been in progress for weeks. The deal is one of the most important ever consummated in East Liverpool financial circles.

Treasurer T. H. Knight, of the company, having headquarters in Pittsburgh, has been in the city several times recently, and on each occasion has expressed himself as well pleased with the prospects, and it is thought that he has placed the matter before the company's directors in such a favorable light that the bargain was quickly closed. Yesterday Paymaster W. H. Rhodes came to the city, and it was upon the receipt of his report to his superiors that the instructions were given to close up, which was done this morning.

The successful termination of the negotiations is a stroke of enterprise on the part of the officials of the local institutions that cannot go unnoticed among the foremost financiers in the country, and not a little credit is due Cashier Rollin W. Patterson, who has been untiring in his efforts to bring about the desired end.

The securing of the immense business of the railroad company will mean much to the city in many ways. In addition to the handling of thousands of dollars in a single day, it will make the Potters' National bank one of the leading institutions in this section. The business heretofore has been handled in Pittsburgh.

The territory taken by the deal, and for which the bank will be called upon to handle the currency extends from Bellaire to East Liverpool and from this city on the main line to Cleveland.

The bank officials look upon the matter as a merited recognition of the city as an industrial center, and the favor is appreciated very highly by them.

THE CROWDS AT COOPER'S

Show and Concerts Are Nightly Increasing.

REALITY IN HIS WORK

That Cannot Be Questioned—Valuable Testimonials Heard Last Night.

Cooper's show was better and the crowd bigger last night than ever before, the truth being that Brun's hill is almost too small to accommodate the immense throngs that flock there every night to hear the wonderful Cooper. There is a magic in his name and a reality in his work.

Last night Mrs. Jennie Waters, of Thompson avenue, told of how she had suffered long with kidney trouble. She could not stand on her feet long at a time until she tried Dr. Cooper's New Discovery. One bottle completely cured her and she was there last night to purchase more of it as a household necessity.

Mrs. E. Verden of East Fifth street, suffered intensely with catarrh. She bought a bottle of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery and last night told of how it had greatly benefited her. She wanted more of the medicine.

People are still talking of the restoration of Pete Oath, who was dead for years. Dr. Cooper's Quick Relief made him hear plainer than he had for years. He had tried everything and was never helped until Cooper came.

A fine program has been arranged for tonight in the way of a splendid show and promenade concert. It is all free. Go out and hear the wonderful Cooper.

FINES AND SENTENCES IMPOSED IN COURT
ON SEVERAL OFFENDERS*Wellsville Father and Son Get Long Terms in Prison—Local Liquor Cases Disposed Of.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—When court convened yesterday afternoon four of a special venire of jurors drawn Saturday night reported for duty as follows: M. F. Hendricks, Leontina; M. R. Little, Hanoverton; Henry Williams, Rogers; Emanuel Lower, Columbiana. The following were excused: W. W. Burns, Salem; Charles Wernot, Hanoverton; W. C. Chamberlin, East Palestine; E. W. Michaels, Wellsville; E. W. Davis, Salem.

The court proceeded at once to dispose of the criminal business presented by the work of the recent grand jury.

Mrs. Thomas Davis, of East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to a habitual drunkard. The liquor was supplied to Albert Brown, through the agency of his 10-year-old son and was sold to the boy in compliance with a standing order from the father. There was no indictment for selling to a minor. The court imposed a fine of $15 and costs.

David Davis, Salem, who pleaded not guilty to having furnished to a habitual last week, changed his plea, admitting his guilt and was fined $20 and costs. In his statement to the court Prosecutor Brookes described Davis as a professional go-between.

SUPPLEMENTARY PETITION IS FILEDBy Monroe Patterson Who Seeks to Enjoin C. A. Smith From Building a Railway.

C. A. Smith was notified this morning of the filing of a supplementary petition at Lisbon by Monroe Patterson, which the latter asks the court to consider before rendering a decision in the injunction case filed against Mr. Smith to prohibit him building his street railway line to the East End.

The first petition filed by Mr. Patterson was evidently thought by him not to be of sufficient strength to have effect on the court and another one was added. It states that if a line is allowed to be run up Kossuth street to Pennsylvania avenue his property and family will be in imminent danger at all times, and specifies several other reasons why an injunction should be issued. The action taken by Mr. Paterson does not seem to worry Mr. Smith. Having the sanction of council he is determined to build the road and will not change any of his plans.

Work on the road is being pushed with wonderful rapidity and a fine roadbed and track are being made. Until last evening 40 men were working on the road, but this morning an additional number of 10 men were started and by Saturday evening the 50 laborers will have the track laid for a distance of 1,500 feet, over a quarter of a mile. At noon today the work had reached a point on Pennsylvania avenue past the residence of M. E. Golding. The contractor has orders to continue with the work as fast as possible to get the line ready for operation.

BEN HUR MONEY WAS CARRIED OFF*EAST END BURGLAR ROBBED PORTER HERBERT.

Must Have Been Aware He Had $100
Lodge Money—Lodge Record
Also Taken.

The details of the burglary of an East End home, given exclusively in yesterday's News Review, prove that the crime was perpetrated by a most daring and nervy criminal. That he succeeded so well in his nefarious purpose and got away without leaving even the slightest clue is due to freedom from fear. The scene of the crime, the home of Porter Herbert, on Maple street, is an ideal place for such a deed, and the surroundings are such as to place all the houses of the neighborhood at the mercy of midnight prowlers. The street is unlighted and after nightfall practically deserted.

The money, amounting to about $100, taken from the Herbert home Sunday night, represented the collections Mr. Herbert had made as secretary of Pan-American court, Tribe of Ben Hur. Most of the money had been paid to him late Saturday afternoon and evening and he had no opportunity to place it in a bank.

The money was in bills and in the record book of the lodge. The intruder evidently gained an entrance to the house through one of the parlor windows, as it was found open the next morning. The lid of the box was forced open and the intruder, discovering the bills at different places in the book, carried it away with him. Several rooms down stairs were visited, but the family, all of whom sleep upstairs, heard nothing. Yesterday morning the front door was found open and it was evident that the burglar had made his exit through it.

Not the slightest clue has been found that will be of any use to the officers in establishing the identity or in apprehending the burglar. Evidently the perpetrator was not a novice and took particular care in covering up his tracks.

The loss of the book will be keenly felt by the lodge, as it contains valuable records from the time of its organization.

CONSTABLE BUSY WITH SUBPOENAS

A Large Number of East Liverpool
Lisbon.

Constable Powell was busy today serving subpoenas on witnesses to appear before the court at Lisbon during the next few days. There are a number of East Liverpool cases to come up and a large number of local people have been summoned to appear. Willis Davidson, city auditor, was summoned to appear for both the defense and the plaintiff in the case of Lucinda Martin against the city of East Liverpool. She has sued for $5,000 damages, alleging that the city owes her that amount as the result of changing the grade of Pleasant street during the year 1901. The case will be bitterly fought.

Another tax case has also been filed against M. E. Golding, of Pennsylvania avenue, County Treasurer Thompson having entered suit against him for $1240.97. A subpoena was served upon him this morning.

A number of subpoenas were also served on witnesses in the case of Arthur D. Hill against the Central Accident Insurance company. This case has been in the courts for some time and is being hard fought by both the plaintiff and defendants. Hill wants a certain amount which, he alleges, the company owes him on an accident policy.

About 20 witnesses left for Lisbon this morning to testify in cases of importance. Among the party were all of the policemen except Officers Dawson and McDevitt. They will testify on the cases against several saloon-keepers charged with selling to habitual drunkards and against Mike Cloran, charged with keeping open on Sunday.

ANDERSON NOW HEADS THE LIST

The News Review Contest Is Now
of the Very Liveliest

A GRAND HUSTLE IN ORDER

J. E. Anderson, who for a long time stood in third place among the candidates for News Review prizes, today supplants Thomas Neal, who has been in the leading position since the contest was inaugurated. The vote cast yesterday was a heavy one and it made a material change in the standing of those near the head of the list. It is not at all likely that Mr. Anderson will be able to maintain his leadership without a struggle, and the indications are that from this time on the campaign being waged by the vote-getters will be of the very liveliest character. Let no one forget that Series F coupons will not be good unless received at the News Review office today.

The following candidates have received 100 votes or more:

Miss Lena Blake will entertain a large number of her friends this evening at her home on Minerva street. Miss Jean Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia., who is visiting Miss Blake, will be the guest of honor. The entertainment will be most enjoyable.

AN UMBRELLA MENDER CUT HIS THROAT IN JAIL

Hanoverton, June 30.—(Special)—Robert Krice, aged 45, a Scotchman, well known in most of the towns of Columbiana county as an itinerant umbrella mender, was arrested here yesterday for drunkenness, and about 4:30 p. m. cut his throat with a razor in the town lockup. He died about an hour and a half later, despite the efforts of two physicians to save him. No trace of his relatives could be

CHILD'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Three Year Old Lad's Remains
the Water Five Days.

While at Play at Neville Island—The Remains Found This Morning at
Body.

After being in the Ohio river for five days the body of little Walter Vary Allen, aged 2 years and 9 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Allen, of Neville Island, near Pittsburg, was found at about 6 o'clock this morning near the Ohio shore at Wellsville by G. W. Willis and wife, who live on a shanty boat.

The body, swollen and distorted, was at once removed to the undertaking establishment of R. M. Haugh, where it was made as presentable as possible. Mayor Fogo having heard of the child's drowning, immediately telephoned to Mr. Allen, giving him the description of the body. The father broke into tears and said that the child was undoubtedly his and that he would leave for Wellsville immediately to identify the little corpse and take it home for burial.

When caught by Mr. Willis, who threw a rope around the body and pulled it to shore, the child was dressed in soldier blue trousers with large white buttons on the inside at the waistband, black stockings, the legs of which are ribbed, a short undershirt and white striped percale waist. Enamelled shoes of good make, slightly worn out at the toes, completed the costume. Two gold band rings were found, one on each hand. The child has blonde hair of unusual length, and from every appearance was in life a very pretty boy. Everything about the dress is of good material, and that it belongs to well-to-do parents is beyond question.

The boy was drowned on last Thursday evening. He left his home in a hurry with a neighbor's child of about the same age, named Miller. A little later the Miller child returned home, but said nothing about his companion. Three-quarters of an hour after his return the Miller boy began to cry. When questioned he said he and the Allen boy had been playing on the river bank and Allen had fallen into the water and did not come up again.

A search was started immediately. At the place pointed out by the child the water was about 15 feet deep. It was in what is usually still water between the island and the south shore, but the river was high and a current was running through. The work of dragging the river was commenced and was kept up for two days. Almost every foot of the river bottom between the island and the shore was dragged before the search was abandoned.

Camping Parties.

Quite a number of camping parties are making preparations for outings during the months of July and August. Each party has endeavored to select the most beautiful spot available for the pitching of the camp, and camping life will be enjoyed to its fullest extent. Among the parties already formed are the Junior boys of the Y. M. C. A., the Phoenix club and the Eagle association.

Petty-Farnsworth.

Miss Linnie Petty and John Farnsworth were married on Saturday evening by Squire McLane. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends in the private office of the squire. The bride and groom are held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. Following the ceremony a reception and wedding supper took place at the home of the bride.

FERNWOOD CAMP

Where Many Prominent Young Men
Will Spend the Heated Term.

A number of East Liverpool's prominent residents have arranged to spend the next six weeks in camp at Fernwood, which is located on Beaver creek, a short distance from Graving bridge. They held a meeting last evening and completed every detail for the outing. The camp is one of the most picturesque spots in this section of the country and the campers will no doubt have a great time. They will spend the time in fishing and other sports enjoyed by such people will be taken up.

Among the number that will be regularly at the camp are: Joe Cartwright, Will Phillips, George Davidson, Robert T. Hall, Samuel Larkins, Robert Harker, T. B. Lawrence, Ed Davidson, W. K. Gaston, Harry Hall, W. H. Vodrey, John Brooks, Jack Harris, Thomas Anderson, George Anderson, E. M. Knowles and W. E. Wells. The first delegation will leave tomorrow.

LICENSE REVOKED BY THE BOARD

Gas Companies Must Not Tear Up
Streets Unless They Obey

NOTICE IS SERVED TODAY

As a result of action taken at the meeting of the public service board last evening, the following notice today was served on the gas companies operating in the city:

"Gentlemen—By reason of not having complied with the rules governing the opening of streets, the board of public safety has suspended your license, so far as relates to the opening of streets for gas connections, etc. The suspension will remain until you show evidence of familiarity with the rule regulating the opening of streets, and a disposition to comply therewith. Your attention is directed to a number of places on the streets that need repaving by reason of openings made by your company.

"Respectfully,
"BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE,
"J. W. GIPNER, Secretary."
"Clean and unbroken streets" has been adopted by the board of public service as a most significant motto and one that its members to a man intend to live up to. There has not been a meeting of the body since its organization that some good resolution has not been made concerning the maintenance of streets and alleys, and the session last evening was no exception to the preceding ones. The entire membership assembled on good time and the business was taken up and disposed of with dispatch.

Together with the board three of the city were present, City Auditor Davidson, Engineer Kelly and Supt. Morley, of the water works. Commissioner Dickey was in Pittsburg and Solicitor Davidson was unavoidably detained at Lisbon. The first question taken under consideration by the board was in reference to the numerous violations being committed almost daily by the holders of bonds who are failing to put a street in repair after tearing it up in the specified time, 24 hours.

Considerable attention was given the matter and every phase of it was well aired. It was discovered that the gas companies occupying the streets of the city are not living up to the law in any manner and that they have not even furnished a bond to do work in the streets. The bonds given by plumbers and the hardware concerns and a few others are for $1,000 and Mr. Smith thought it very considerate when he made a motion that the gas companies be required to furnish a like bond. The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

A morning publication, as usual, carried in its report of the bond question, designating the amount to be furnished by the gas companies as $5,000.

Complaints having been registered about the condition of certain streets that have been torn up by different people during the past few days the clerk was notified to instruct the violators that their rights will be revoked immediately if they do not do as the board has directed them. The gas companies will also, as the result of a motion, be compelled to make the board a personal visit in the future and get its permission before they can tear up any streets.

MAYOR HAS DECIDED TO WORK PRISONERS
ON THE CITY'S STREETS*Thinks Many of Those in Jail For Minor Offenses
Can Be Made to Do Useful Labor.

Mayor Weaver made the announcement this morning that in the future when prisoners are destitute of money to pay their fines he will make provisions for them whereby they can work out on the streets the amount assessed. The edict will be received favorably by many, especially by those in charge of the streets, and if the chief executive is successful in carrying out the determination he will have accomplished something that his predecessors were never able to do.

There is seldom a day that a few extra men can not be utilized on the streets in some capacity. Street Commissioner Dickey can find work for a man almost any time and City Engineer Kelly and Sanitary Policeman Burgess have occasion to use a laborer nearly every day. Mr. Burgess receives numerous complaints that he could attend to with more satisfaction had he a man or two to accompany him with a pick and shovel. The mayor has given the question much consideration of late and for the relief of the city officials in charge of the thoroughfares he has concluded to enforce the new plan.

In some cases he does not expect it to work. There will be no ball and chain attachment to the prisoner. He will simply be placed at a job on his honor to remain and complete the work. While a number are likely to run away at the first opportunity, the mayor does not anticipate that all will do so. Honor is a man's highest possession, and as a rule he feels proud to be looked upon as one not devoid of it.

The mayor reached the decision after studying the case of "Zip" Farmer. The latter owes the city $10 and has no money. He was released last evening and the mayor thought how much better off the city would be were there a place provided for such characters to work. In "Zip" probably an exception would be found. If he were to be placed at work for 10 days he would remain on the job. He gained a reputation along that line while incarcerated in the Canton work house. The officials of that institution always placed confidence in him and they were never caused to regret it. They have sent him unattended time and again from the work house and he always returned on time.

There are others of the same type in the city and on them at least it is thought the plan will not be a failure.

GEN. JONES PLOWED FIRST FURROWGrading Work Started On the Youngstown & Southern Railway This Morning.

Actual work was begun on the Youngstown & Southern Electric railroad this morning. It was commenced at Kyle Corners, a mile and a half south of Youngstown, 40 men and 20 teams being employed. The ploughing of the first furrow was done by General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhman, J. R. Long and W. S. Anderson, the first two manipulating the plow and the latter couple driving the horses.

The reason for starting the work so far away from Youngstown is that the company has purchased a perfect roadbed extending from the city to Kyle Corners from another company and it will not be necessary to do more than repair it a little. Those employed on the construction will push the work, and it is expected that the entire line will be built before the time specified in the franchises accepted by the company.

THE ROUTE CHANGED AND WORK RESUMED

New Street Railway Route Changed at Lisbon—City Hall Contract Let.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—An important adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, and as a result of its action work was resumed this morning on the Youngstown & Ohio River Electric Light & Power company's interurban electric line. Excavation for the roadbed was started on Beaver street at the Washington street intersection, which will bring the line into Water street a block farther west than was formerly contemplated and at a point where it will not interfere with either of the steam lines.

Council granted the franchise as asked by the street car company but the ordinance provides that the company shall not penetrate any farther into the city with its line than the point where work started this morning until the remainder of the construction between Lisbon and Salem is completed. After that the company may complete its route through the business part of town, the route as decided upon being east on Washington street from Beaver to Jefferson, north on Jefferson to the Hostetter house on Walnut, west on Walnut to the Commercial house and thence down Beaver to Washington, the point where work commenced this morning.

The council also awarded the contract for the building of the new city hall. Charles H. Baker, of Lisbon, was the successful bidder, his bid being $9,134.85. There were three other bidders as follows: John A. Cobourn, $9,404.45; P. M. Armstrong, $9,499; George Chamberlain, $9,642.45. Work is to be started by July 15 and completed by December 1.

Every contract for the construction of the entire road has been let to Patrick Joyce, John W. Fawcett and Veeder Hensley, Youngstown men. They will, however, sublet a portion of it.

Mr. Ruhman said this morning that the company expected to celebrate the completion of the entire line by July 4, next year.

News and Notes About The Potteries

MINERVA NOTES.

James Marshall has accepted a position as batter-out for Ed Messer. Mr. Marshall was a ball player of some note in East Liverpool.

Samuel Lewis, of East Liverpool, is helping Mr. Medevitt, the warehouse boss, to get the place in shape.

The printing machine is in operation. They are decorating a fine line of dinner ware. This is the first decorating that has been done in this pottery.

Harry Henselman, of East Liverpool, visited here Wednesday. He is on his way to Carrollton, where he will be employed as one of the jiggersmen when that pottery starts.

CHANGE AT COLUMBUS.

George Hasbrouk, of the Hasbrouk-Barger company, of Columbus, O., has purchased the controlling interest of the Columbus Pottery company, of Columbus, O. The foundations are in at the plant and this is all that has been done with it so far. It is the intention of the company, however, to start again with the construction and get the plant completed.

REBUILDING AT ROSEVILLE.

The J. W. McCoy Pottery company, of Roseville, O., which was burned out last month, is rebuilding the burned portion of its works and changing around, making the plant better than before. It is said that they will also erect one or even two additional kilns, which will increase the plant in capacity greatly.

TO START AUGUST 1.

The buildings of the works of the A. H. Meade Pottery company, of Auburn, Wash., have been completed and the kilns are now being erected. The company will start the installation of their machinery this week and expect to have their pottery in operation within the next 30 days at the farthest.

CAPACITY INCREASED.

A new kiln is being built at the works of the Progressive Pottery company, of Roseville, O. The company recently made several changes in the management and new people were taken into the company and they are now financially strong and the plant will be run to its fullest capacity.

POTTERY NOTES.

F. S. Lowry is adding one additional kiln to the capacity of his stoneware plant at Roseville, O. The new kiln takes the place of one torn down some time ago.

It is stated that the present capacity of the works of the Central New York Pottery company, of Chittenango, N. Y., will be greatly increased during the summer months. The company are successors to the Ashwood Pottery company.

The New England Pottery company, of East Boston, Mass., are modernizing their pottery in that city greatly. They will add one kiln to its present capacity and new machinery for the production of its goods on a more economical basis is now being installed.

OF A HIGH CLASS

Is the Vaudeville Show Given This Week at Rock Springs Park Theater.

High-class vaudeville is the order at Rock Springs theater this week, and the performers and their several entertaining acts more than fulfilled the expectations of the management of the house. The first night was characterized by hard work on the part of the artists, and expressions of approval and appreciation from the large audience.

The three Graces open the bill in a turn that is strictly original, and at once establishes the right of each to the credit of being players of unusual ability. The small boy is a winner, and his name will undoubtedly be found among the top noticers long before he discards knickerbockers.

Leslie & Curdy are a clever team and though their jokes are a trifle antiquated, the manner in which they have prepared their topical songs makes an excellent impression.

"The Chinese and the Maid" is an act made up by Seymour & Dennare, and though not entirely new to East Liverpool people, is one of the best vaudeville numbers ever seen in the city. The antics of the Chinese are funny and really meritorious, while the Dutch turn and wooden shoe dance of the lady made a tremendous hit. They received a cordial greeting from the audience, and a persistent encore when they finished.

Senator Frank Bell was the star. He works by himself, and has earned the enviable record of being the "man with the talk." His oratory is unequalled and his delivery perfect. The local acts were greeted with applause in every instance, and the manner in which they

NOT A DRY TOWN

Toronto Votes to Continue Wet, Giving a Majority of 119.

Toronto, June 20.—An election held in this city yesterday to determine whether or not intoxicating liquors should be sold as a beverage resulted in a victory for the "wets" by a majority of 119.

Fell from a Car And Died.

Alliance, June 20.—Monroe Hoiles, of this city, aged 42, fell from a car on the Stark electric line near Maximo and sustained injuries which resulted in his death. He was unmarried.

Shut Down to Forestall Strike.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—The big smelter of the Anaconda Copper company at Anaconda was shut down for an indefinite period, throwing 1,500 men idle. The company announces that the shut down is for the purpose of making repairs, but the men allege that it is done to forestall a probable strike for higher wages on July 1. The mines at Butte, from which the Anaconda smelter drew its ore supply, have also closed, affecting more than 2,000 other men.

Albatross Released from Quarantine.

Port Townsend, Wash., June 20.—The United States fish commission steamer Albatross, on which is a party of scientists headed by President David Starr Jordan, of Stanford university, and which returned from Fort Rupert, Alaska, on her way to the Arctic, owing to the discovery of a case of smallpox, was released from Diamond Point quarantine station and resumed her voyage north. The case has been diagnosed as mild varioloid.

The Deadly Toy Pistol.

Akron, O., June 20.—William Pifer and William Wilson Hazen, 10-year-old lads of this city, have died of lockjaw, victims of the toy pistol. Each was wounded about 10 days ago.

Killed Himself With Morphine.

Elkins, W. Va., June 20.—Mrs. L. W. Wagoner, of Elkins, N. Y., committed suicide by drinking a mixture of alcohol and morphine in her room in the Tremont hotel here.

Ohio Mourns the Death of Three Favorite and Distinguished Sons Whose Funerals Take Place Today—Grief at the State House.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 20.—Secretary-Treasurer G. W. Savage, of the United Mine Workers of America, has returned from Columbiana county, where he settled a strike of the miners at Washingtonville which had been on two weeks, about 300 being out. The trouble was over a refusal of the operators to allow the men to haul powder to the mine from the co-operative store. After a number of spirited conferences the operators waived their objections and the strikers returned to work.

Mr. Savage tried to adjust a small strike at Elkton, but was unsuccessful. The Washingtonville and East Palestine coal field has been the scene of many strikes during the past few years, but in each case a satisfactory settlement was reached.

Ohio mourns the death of three favorite sons whose funerals take place today. They are Hon. Burgess L. McElroy, clerk of the house of representatives, of Mt. Vernon; Hon. Charles A. Goddard, member of the state board of public works, of Franklin Furnace, Scioto county, and Dr. A. B. Richardson, superintendent of the government hospital for the insane at Washington. All passed away at their homes. Mr. McElroy was possessed of a sunny nature and was beloved by all who knew him. An obstruction of the bowels caused his death. Bright's disease carried off Mr. Goddard. His death had been expected.

Dr. Richardson died suddenly. He was a native of Portsmouth, O., and had served as superintendent of the Massillon hospital and later filled a similar position at the Columbus hospital. His remains will leave Washington today for Columbus, where interment will be made.

The state officials met at the governor's office yesterday to take action on the death of Messrs. McElroy and Goddard. Governor Nash appointed committees to draft suitable resolutions on the death of each official, state Treasurer I. B. Cameron being made a member of the committee on the Goddard resolutions.

Investigation Promises to Last All Summer—Mr. Bristow's Fishing Trip May Be Indefinitely Postponed. Strange Find at Milwaukee.

Washington, June 20.—Postmaster General Payne was at the department but under the orders of his physician remained only a short time. Accompanied by Mrs. Payne he will leave here next Friday for the Catskills to be the guests of Roswell Miller, of New York, formerly president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Mr. Payne will remain over the Fourth of July and expects to return to his desk early next week. He had no news to make public regarding the postal investigation. The inspectors are busy and the end is not in sight yet.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow said he could not approximate the date of the completion of the investigation. Mr. Bristow is going to Maine to spend part of his vacation fishing as soon as the investigation is over, but this may not be until late in the summer.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden has returned from Detroit. He was closeted with Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, with whom he discussed his recently published letter to the postmaster general calling for an investigation of the contract held by a manufacturing company of Franklin, Pa.

Mr. Madden explained his letter to the officials. It is understood that he expressed regret at having acted hastily and repudiated any intention of reflecting on officials of the department in connection with published criticisms of the contract. Mr. Madden had nothing to say for publication.

Groff Fasteners Found in Basement.

Milwaukee, June 20.—Evidence bearing upon the postal investigation has come to light in the Milwaukee post-office. Stored away in one corner of the basement is a big pile of Groff fasteners that were sent to Milwaukee for some unknown reason, and without requisition, about 14 years ago. The fasteners, of which there are two and one-quarter tons, will probably never be used unless shipped to Washington. None have been used here since the day they were received. The fasteners came during the early years of the late Postmaster George W. Parth's term of office. There are 1,500 sets and the contract price was $1.25 a set. There is also stored in the basement a lot of salvaged iron mail boxes made in Michigan. They were received about two years ago, without requisition.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—'hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills, little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely to make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

ITS NAME IS ITS FAME LIFE PLANT

THE greatest of all known remedies for the positive cure of all diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BLOOD. It is nature's own remedy and acts in accordance with her laws. Do you suffer with INDIGESTION—are you distressed after eating—does a torrid liver make you feel miserable—out of sorts—at variance with the world? Do the kidneys fail to perform their duty, giving backache and general lassitude? Are you all worn out? LIFE PLANT will relieve quickly and cure permanently—no disappointment—no failure—it has cured thousands of others—it will cure you.

Rev. J. H. Merchant, Pastor M. E. church at Freeport, O., writes under date July 10, 1900: I take pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend Life Plant as an excellent remedy for Liver and Kidney difficulties. Mrs. Merchant desires to bear testimony to the healing virtues of Life Plant, as a sure and certain remedy for Rheumatism.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES

Made at Presbyterian Club Meeting
Held at Stanton Park
Yesterday.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, returned last evening from Steubenville, where he attended the meeting of the Ohio Valley Presbyterian club. The meeting was held yesterday at Stanton park, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning and 22 members of the organization were present. Dr. Irwin, of Steubenville, the president, presided, and Rev. J. M. Potter, of Brilliant, acted as secretary.

Chief interest was centered in the addresses of Dr. Reid and Mr. Huston, of Steubenville, both of whom had been delegates from the Steubenville presbytery to the general conference at Los Angeles. Dr. Reid talked about the work of the conference, a topic that was of great interest to the ministers. Mr. Huston, who is a noted geologist, entertained the assemblage with a descriptive talk on the Grand Canon and Yosemite valley.

Davis Building Under Way.

Contractor James Robinson and a force of men have commenced work on the business building for Attorney J. E. Davis on Mulberry street. This lot is divided by Lake run and the building will stand directly over it. Provision is being made for a substantial wooden culvert to carry the water beneath. Attorney Davis will move his offices to the new building as soon as it is completed.

Base Ball Accident.

James Wilkes, of Chaffinville, a youthful ball tosser, is wearing his left arm in a sling, the result of a diamond accident which befel him yesterday afternoon. James was struck on the shoulder by a thrown ball and the member was thrown out of place. Suffering great pain he was taken to the office of Dr. Ferral, where the necessary medical attention was given him.

Big Ball Game Tomorrow.

The Sodaker and Hopkins base ball teams are to meet tomorrow afternoon on the diamond near the statz line and a battle royal is expected. The former team hopes to win back the laurels it lost when defeated by Jimmy Larkins' Second Street Stars, while the latter hope to win its first game of the season.

Another Italian Ill.

Dr. W. E. Mowen, who has been attending several Italians ill with typhoid fever at their camp near Industry, was called to that place by a telephone message this morning, announcing that another case had developed. His other patients there have about recovered.

A Bitter Legal Fight.

The damage suit of Liveryman Le-moine Wilson against Oscar Miller promises to be the most bitter legal fight known in the East End for years. Numerous witnesses have been summoned and both parties will be represented by able lawyers. The case is now set for Thursday afternoon.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

FRIGHTFUL DEED OF INSANE MAN

Attacked Wife With Butcher Knife, Inflicting Fatal Injuries—Overpowered by Son.

Altoona, June 30.—A frightful tragedy occurred early Sunday morning at the home of Farmer John Claar, two miles from Baker's Summit, Bedford county.

Claar suddenly went stark mad while in bed, imagining that an army was approaching his home. Procuring a big butcher knife, he attacked his aged wife, stabbing her four times in the region of the heart and lungs, inflicting fatal injuries. She was in bed at the time.

Going downstairs after this bloody work, he found an ax and, searching out his son, Justin, who was still in bed, the old man attacked him. The son overpowered his father, after a struggle, and succeeded in taking the weapon away from the old man.

The son then escaped from the house and making his way to the nearest neighbors, roused them and enlisted their services to capture his father before he could harm others. The party returned cautiously to the house and finding no signs of life about entered. Mrs. Claar was found in bed bleeding from her wounds, in a helpless condition, but still living. A search for Claar was made. The old man had gone into the woods back of the home, about a quarter of a mile, and there hanged himself with a bed cord to a walnut tree. He was quite dead when cut down. His body was buried at Salemville.

Mrs. Claar, who is 72 years of age, cannot survive her wounds. Claar had been acting queer for a week past.

BOUGHT DRY GOODS BY SAMPLES

New York Merchant Given Decision by Court of Appeals—Goods Not as Represented.

New York, June 30.—After a long-contested law suit, brought against him by an English manufacturer of woolen goods, James Talcott, a dry goods commission merchant of this city, was given a decision which is of importance to all buyers and sellers of dry goods by samples.

The decision, which is by the court of appeals and which reverses that of the court below, will be considered a precedent in the trial of similar suits. By it Talcott is not compelled to pay $17,028 claimed by the foreign house for goods which he says were not up to sample.

"If a merchant purchased goods by sample and finds that they are not equal in quality to the sample, he need not return them to the seller in order to recover for breach of warranty." This is the substance of the opinion given by Judge Van, of the court of appeals. The adjudication of the point is welcomed by all big dry goods firms.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specifics, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Record Broken by Lou Dillon.

Cleveland, June 30.—Lou Dillon broke all records for a mile to wagon for trotters, going the distance in 2:04 1/4. The race was at a matinee of the Gentlemen's Driving club at Glenville track. The horse was driven by her owner, C. K. G. Billings. The race was made with the encouragement of a runner, who went ahead about five lengths and maintained that position until the three-quarter pole was reached. The mare had been going like a veteran all the distance. At the three-quarter pole the runner was pulled to allow Lou Dillon to come up alongside. The stretch was entered into at great speed. The 1,500 spectators who had been timing the mare at the quarters had become excited, as the watches indicated that all records would be broken, and as the trotter passed the stand arose en masse. The mile was made in 2:04 1/4, the horse finishing strong and seemingly ready to cover the distance a second time.

COMPETITOR OF BEEF TRUST

United States Packing Company to Build a Million Dollar Plant in Kansas City.

Kansas City, June 30.—Representatives of the United States Packing company, organized under the laws of Colorado in October, 1902, to compete with the beef trust, are here to consider the question of establishing a million dollar packing plant here. According to Charles F. Martin, secretary of the company, $1,750,000 has already been subscribed.

James H. Peabody, governor of Colorado, is president of the company, which sprang from agitation started at the convention of the National Live Stock association in Kansas City last January, when John W. Springer, president of the association, stated that if the packing companies merged an independent company would be organized.

John Dickey, general manager of the new concern, said:

"We have the concern on a firm basis. Much of the $1,750,000 is from small investors. Many of the wealthiest stockmen in the west and southwest are in the concern. I have just returned from the east, where we have interested many of the small retailers and also labor unions. One labor union in the east subscribed for $25,000 worth of stock. Thus we have with us the cattlemen, who produce the stock, and the retailers and consumers.

Clerks Trundle Trucks.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 30.—Promises of steady employment at good wages was not sufficient inducement for the railroads to secure any great number of freight handlers. The demand of 25 per cent increase made by the strikers when they went out was refused by the roads. The freight and commercial agents and their clerks, handled trucks all day and contributed to the relief of the blockade.

New Railway Station for Chicago.

Chicago, June 30.—The new railway passenger terminal, La Salle street station, at Van Buren and La Salle streets, this city, to be used by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway, and the Nickel Plate line will be opened July 12. All trains over the lines named arriving at Chicago after midnight, July 11, or departing from here after that time will use the new building.

Briggs Stays the Limit.

Boston, June 30.—Young Corbett, of Colorado, champion featherweight of the world, won the decision over Jimmy Briggs, of this city, in their 10-round bout at the Criterion club. Corbett was unable to put Briggs away, as the Boston boy met him at every turn and by clever blocking and foot work managed to stay the limit.

SUMMER OUTINGS.

Low Rates to Seashore, to the Lakes and to Other Attractive Resorts.

Vacation trips to attractive places for outings, including popular summer resorts may be enjoyed at low fare by purchasing excursion tickets over the Pennsylvania Lines. A list of points which may be visited include the National Capital, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, the Seashore, Niagara Falls, summer havens on the Great Lakes and in North Michigan, in Colorado and California, and cool retreats in the mountains.

Excursion fares to Boston will be in effect June 25, 26 and 27 for the Christian and 28th and 29th for the National Educational Association meeting. The trip may be made via Washington, with stop-overs at the National Capital, at Baltimore, and at New York, returning via Niagara Falls.

The annual seashore excursion over the Pennsylvania Lines will be run August 6. On that date excursion tickets to Atlantic City, Cape May, Annapolis, Avalon, Holy Beach, Ocean City, Sea Isle City and Wildwood, N. J., Ocean City, Maryland, Rehoboth, Delaware, will be sold at very low fares from principal stations on the Pennsylvania Lines.

The annual excursion to Niagara Falls over the Pennsylvania Lines will take place August 27. The fare will be especially low, and the return limit will be sufficient for enjoyable side trips to resorts in Canada.

Tickets to Chautauqua Lake, to Lakeside and Put-in-Bay, to Peaslee, to Mackinac Island, to Traverse City, and the series of cool retreats in North Michigan; to Devil's Lake and the Delta of Wisconsin, and to the attractive resorts of the Northwest and West, may be obtained at reduced rates from the Pennsylvania Lines, every day during the summer.

On July 31st to 31st, inclusive, special low fares to Denver will be in effect for the Christian Endeavor meeting. On July 15th and 16th tickets to Detroit will be sold at low fares for the Epworth League meeting. On July 31st to August 13th fares to San Francisco will be very low on account of the G. A. R. National Encampment, and on September 18th, 19th and 20th a trip to Baltimore may be made at low fare, tickets on sale those dates account the I. O. O. F. meeting.

In fact, opportunities are offered to visit any part of the country, or to take the summer vacation, or to visit the National Educational Association meeting, at low fares, time of travel, and with the benefit of special facilities. Ticket agent, East Liverpool, G. W. Adams.

C. & P. officers have so far failed to locate the Italians who shot Brakeman Frank Stephens at Empire.

The Robertson family at Hammondsville, in which there are two cases of smallpox, consists of 13 members.

Russell Adams was fatally shot at Dillonvale by Harry Theophilus, his roommate, being mistaken for a burglar.

Thomas Caldwell, of Bridgeport, has been arrested for the murder of Victor Jones, who was found dying under the railroad bridge in that town.

One of the Italian laborers employed by Contractor Cochling was run over and killed by a freight train Saturday night about three miles east of Sandeview.

Alexander Dunn, of Wells township, has stopped the C. & P. from building a switch from the main track to the Glenn Run Coal works in the lower end of Jefferson county, by an injunction.

William Pifer, aged 16 years, died at Akron of lockjaw. Ten days ago the boy was celebrating with a toy pistol and injured his hand. The wound appeared to heal, but lockjaw set in several days ago.

Harry W. Blankensop, proprietor of the Wellburg foundry, is dead, aged 72 years. Thirteen weeks ago his foot was badly burned and blood poisoning developed, causing death. He is survived by his wife and daughter.

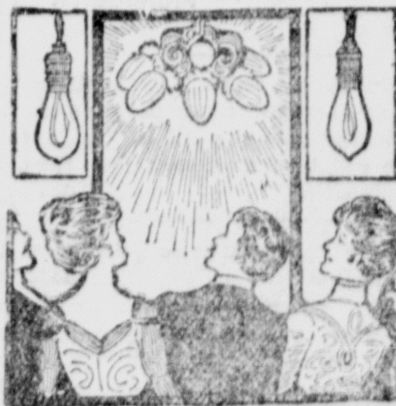

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Haverhill, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at other times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."

The Fourth of July meeting of the Rhode Island branch of the Society of the Cincinnati, composed of the descendants of officers of the Revolutionary army, will consider, among other things, the report of a committee appointed two years ago, to find a suitable time for the words of the national anthem, "America." As almost everybody knows, "America" is sung to the tune "God Save the King," which has been the English national air for almost 200 years. The Rhode Island patriotic society evidently believes America is big and old enough to produce a tune of her own and no longer use a borrowed one. But unless it can select from the 500 or more compositions at its disposal something that will catch the popular ear, its efforts will be wasted. A national anthem altogether new would be far more likely to spring into popular favor.

The toy pistol began its deadly work much earlier than usual this year, and several small boys in different parts of the country have fallen as its victims. The toy pistol is an instrument whose manufacture, sale and use should be sternly prohibited. The law is supposed to keep ordinary revolvers, guns and pistols out of the hands of children. What criminal folly then to place in a boy's hands a weapon which experience has proven to be quite as deadly as other firearms, simply because it is misnamed a toy! Parents might as well give their children real pistols to play with; then, if they shoot themselves, they will leave the world by a quicker and easier route than the lad seized with lockjaw can possibly find.

The suggestion is offered by a citizen that it would be well for some of the police officers to make their nightly rounds in plain clothing. By such a course he believes it would be much easier for them to track suspicious characters and to place their hands on those who attempt holdups and highway robbery. The suggestion is worthy of serious consideration by Chief Wyman and the board of public safety.

The board of public service has taken a sound position in assuming that the city streets belong to the city. It is an outrage not to be tolerated to allow any person or company to tear up the paving and replace it in a slipshod manner. The board has adopted an excellent rule and shows a disposition to enforce it to the letter.

Our cherry picking contemporary picks up a story in the News Review and because it had been "scooped," as happens every day, attempts to pick flaws in it. When its "correction," padded out to half a column, has been closely scrutinized, the reader will discover that the statements tally exactly with those printed in this paper.

It is to be hoped that after the public service board has given its attention to the weightier problems confronting it, it will find time to give the matter of dilapidated, dirt-covered and dangerous sidewalks consideration. Sidewalks answering any and all these descriptions can be found without any extended search.

Ground has at last been broken for the Youngstown & Southern Electric railway at Youngstown. Here is hoping the southern terminus will receive early attention. East Liverpool is prepared to give generous patronage to the new line as soon as cars are running.

OBITUARY

Death of an Infant.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin died this morning at the family home, 206 Thompson avenue. The body will be taken to Hanoverton tomorrow morning for interment.

As to Naturalization.

To the Editor of the News Review: If a child is born of direct English parents in America, to what nationality does he or she belong?

F. L. P.

East Liverpool, June 30.

The child's nationality is that of the parents. If they are merely here on a visit, or as temporary residents, the child is English. However, if the father should remain here and be naturalized the child would not need to take out naturalization papers to become an American citizen. The law says: "The children of persons who have been duly naturalized, being under 21 years of age at the time of the naturalization of the parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof."

HOW BEST TO REACH THOSE WHO PURCHASE

The Evening Newspaper is the Guide of the Shopper Everywhere.

To substantiate the contention that the daily newspaper is a more valuable and effective medium than the magazine, and that of daily newspapers the evening edition is the superior, these quotations from advertisers of experience and judgment are submitted:

"You ask me which I consider the more valuable as an advertising medium—the evening paper or the morning paper. I will say that a great deal depends on whether the advertiser is catering to the popular trade or the class that is generally designated as 'the classes.' If the advertiser's trade is with the wealthier class, then I should say that the morning paper is quite as good as the evening paper. On the other hand, if the advertiser desires to secure the trade of the laborer, the mechanic, the clerk, etc.—who has hardly time to read even the most important news on his way to work in the morning. To say nothing of reading advertisements and who seldom finds time to do any more reading of that nature until he returns home in the evening—I should most emphatically declare the evening paper to be the better advertising medium."

"In the evening the mechanic or clerk has ample time, as a rule, to read his evening paper, and to discuss with his wife the interesting news, attractive offers, or advertisements he may find in its columns, and to come to a definite conclusion as to just where to buy. The experience of a great many years confirms this belief, and in our own business we are now confining ourselves to the use of the evening papers, with most gratifying results. I am prepared to make the unqualified statement that any business house doing business on a strictly cash basis, and catering to the popular trade, should confine its advertising to the evening papers, wherever it can do so."

"The busy housewife has no time to con over the advertisements in the morning paper. If she has, she cannot arrange her household in a moment so that she can go down town to take advantage of the bargains offered. When she reads of bargains in the evening paper, however, she makes preparations to start early next morning; and a large percentage of those early morning shoppers who struggle for the first places at the bargain counter are the readers of the evening paper, and not, as might be supposed, the readers of the morning paper."

"There is no doubt that the evening daily is the daily for the advertiser. It comes into the home after the merchant's work is done, and he can sit down and study it—and his competitor's ads—to his utmost satisfaction. The good wife has time to look over its columns, and the same order of things holds good in the home of the mechanic and laborer. The morning daily is laid to one side by the busy merchant, at his store, and the busier housewife at her home. The laborer or mechanic has no time to read it before he goes to work, and is not allowed to read during working hours. You can always depend upon it that the evening daily has the larger circulation for these very reasons, and is, therefore, the better medium."

a night session of court last evening received their sentences, the first named getting 5 years and the last named 10 years at hard labor in the penitentiary. Frank Easton, the father, stood trial on one charge, the more serious charge being ignored in both cases and was convicted, the jury returning a verdict of guilty after being out about 25 minutes. George Easton, an elder brother of the two girls, pleaded guilty to two indictments. Life imprisonment would have been the penalty had they been convicted of the other offense.

WELLSVILLE

A LONG PARADE

Wellsville Has a Fourth of July Program That Will Please And Delight.

At a largely attended meeting in the council chamber last night the finishing touches were put on the Fourth of July program.

There will be five bands and two drum corps in the street parade, which Mayor Fogo states will be over one mile in length.

Three hundred red, white and blue suits have been issued to that many boys, who will form a division of the parade themselves, J. H. Pense being the captain. The girls' division will be in floats and wagons and national airs will be rendered by them at stated intervals.

Several shots from a monster cannon will be fired from the river bank, commencing at daybreak and continuing until the parade starts.

The various committees have everything in good shape and the celebration will be the biggest event in the history of the old town.

MASKED MEN

STOPPED COOPER

An Exciting Experience on the Lisbon Road Near Wellsville.

Harry Cooper, superintendent of an extensive brick and tile works at Coleman, near Lisbon, had a hair-raising experience two miles from here on the Lisbon road Sunday night. He was driving alone in a buggy and when a particularly dark and lonesome spot was reached along the wooded road two men sprang from the shadows and approached the vehicle. They were masked, and peering closely into the face of Mr. Cooper remarked that he "was not the man" they were looking for.

Mr. Cooper was very thankful that he was not the man wanted and was glad to be permitted to proceed without further molestation.

GAS COMPANY CHARTER
WILL BE REVOKED

An Ordinance to Be Passed By Wellsville Council at a Meeting Tonight.

The city council will meet tonight to pass the ordinance, prepared by City Solicitor Charles Boyd, for the immediate revocation of the franchise of the Tri-State Gas company. The feeling is still bitter here and the measure will be passed without a dissenting voice.

The city bills for June and the salary list will be certified up to City Auditor McGregor in order that he make payment before the Fourth.

CARRIER RESIGNS

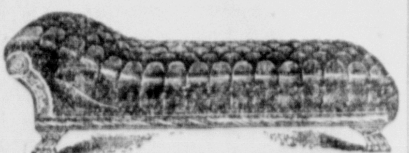

Edward Bunting Weary of Driving 27 Miles a Day on Rural Route.

Edward Bunting, carrier of free rural delivery route No. 1 and the only one from the Wellsville postoffice, has resigned and he is anxiously awaiting acceptance.

The route covered every day is about 27 miles, and Carrier Bunting finds the work a little too arduous for the compensation received. The roads are rough and hilly and the route to be traversed is entirely too lengthy. It is thought that the government will have difficulty in securing a successor.

to Mr. Bunting, and the chances are good for a discontinuance of the service.

Apropos of this it might be in place to state that Wellsville is anxiously awaiting the advent of free delivery. The receipts of the postoffice entitle the city to that service and an inspector is expected here this week to investigate and report on the matter.

Fighters Were Fined.

Mayor Fogo held a session of court last night and imposed heavy fines on Stephen Timmons and Clyde Cress for fighting at Third and Broadway Sunday afternoon. Ed Henshaw and Charles Weaver fought Saturday night in the West End and they too were fined. Charles Regar and Lee K. drew a similar prize for the same of tense. Sam Brown parted with $5 for being drunk and $7 additional for fighting and resisting Chief Houser.

Is There an American Face?

The English face, the Jewish face, the Irish face, the Italian face, the Chinese face, the Japanese face, the French face, the Indian face, even the negro face—all these have something about them which calls up a definite picture in one's mind. But the American face has no strong characteristic to differentiate it from other faces of superior races, remarks London Health.

It is international, for here and there one may find the traces which suggest a relation to this, that or the other face.

It may be a line or a ligament bequeathed by an early English ancestor, or something suggestive of Teutonic origin, or a sharp suggestion of the Frenchman's face or the Irishman's or the Italian's or the Scotchman's. But when one must deal with the American abstractly one can scarcely call up the American face.

Uncle Sam, with his striped trousers, his sharply cut coat, his plug hat, his whiskers and his bland, good natured countenance, is a happy conception, yet he may never hope to portray the matchless and indescribable cosmopolitanism of the American face.

Both to Blame.

an insurance firm, was present and submitted a proposition to carry the insurance required to be taken out by the board at a very reasonable figure. He showed whereby the board would save money by accepting the proposition, and the members looked upon it with favor. They, however, decided to defer action until the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, two members of the board having business of importance to attend to on next Friday evening.

Burford Bros. submitted a communication asking that some provision be made that will result in their being able to reach a certain piece of property owned by them in the West End. They stated that the West End pottery covers a part of the public street leading to it and from all sides they are barred from access to it by some interference on the part of people who, they allege, have no right to block the way.

The matter was referred to council, which body will be required to find why the public streets are occupied. Samuel and John Cartwright were present and asked that they be given some consideration in regard to the water service in the vicinity of their pottery. They stated that the insurance companies had threatened to raise the rates on them if they don't provide better facilities, and as they only have a four-inch pipe now they want at least a six-inch main. They agreed to furnish the money for laying it if the board will allow them to eliminate their water rent until the bill is paid. They want the new pipe to be laid from Market street to Jackson street on Second street. The request was referred to Supt. Morley.

SOUTH SIDE

CAME VERY NEAR LOSING HIS LIFE

A HOOKSTOWN MAN BADLY HURT ON THE STREET.

Thrown From a Wagon to the Street Car Track and Picked Up Unconscious.

John Ben Swaney, who resides on a farm near Hookstown, was the victim of a peculiar accident last evening, and one that came near costing him his life. Swaney had been to East Liverpool, and after spending some time in Chester, started for his home about 4 o'clock.

The team driven by Swaney was a quiet one and not very fast. It was hitched to a road wagon of the ordinary make, and with what the bed contained constituted a fairly good load. He went out Virginia avenue to Third street, and turning into that thoroughfare proceeded to Carolina.

In making the turn into the latter street it was necessary to cross the double tracks of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway.

A large force of men are at work at that particular corner, making preparations to pave the street. The space on either side of the tracks had been excavated to the depth of at least a foot, and it is extremely difficult for the passage of vehicles. In some manner Swaney got the wagon mixed up in the tracks and a disastrous accident occurred. The front wheels of the vehicle in passing over the rails caused the rear end of the wagon to pitch forward, and he alighted on his head and shoulder far out over the second track. His head barely missed the steel rail, and he lay where he had fallen until assistance arrived.

A street car in charge of Motorman William Watson and Conductor Seth Rauch was approaching from the east and the men witnessed the accident. They stopped the car at the street corner, and lifting the apparently lifeless form of Swaney in their arms placed it on the car and he was removed to the office of Dr. George E. Lewis. The latter gentleman was out and Swaney, still unconscious, was taken to East Liverpool. A physician succeeded in reviving the injured man and his wounds were dressed. His head was badly cut and bruised, and his shoulder sustained a bad sprain.

When his wounds had been sewed up and bandages adjusted on the injured arm and shoulder he was taken back to Chester where his team had been cared for by residents of the vicinity, and accompanied by Joseph Fleming he was taken to his home near Hookstown. The injuries sustained by Swaney made him deathly sick, and though no word could be obtained from him this morning, the physicians say he will be ill for several days, and that his wounds will keep him indoors for many weeks.

PRESBYTERIAN DAY

At Rock Springs Park and Fully 1,500 Visitors Attend the Picnic.

This is "Presbyterian day" at Rock Springs park, and there are in the neighborhood of 1,500 members of that denomination in attendance at the picnic being held there today. The excursion arrived from Wheeling early this morning, and the large crowd is enjoying the day in a most satisfactory manner.

The arrangements for the outing had been placed in the hands of an executive committee in which every church in the Wheeling district was represented, and the details were perfect. The churches were designated by different colored ribbons as follows: First church, blue; Second church, green; Third church, stars and stripes; Vance Memorial, red; Moundville, red, white and blue; Elm Grove, yellow; Island Sunday school, pink; Park View, white; Beech Glen, purple.

Two baseball games were played during the day. The first game took place at 10:20 and was between the Sunday school of the Vance Memorial and the Third church. The game was won by the latter team by a score of 9 to 3. The second game started at 2 o'clock and the First church and the Second church Sunday school scholars took part.

Few of the picnickers visited East Liverpool during the day, and it could be seen that the crowds were being thoroughly entertained at the park. The excursion trains leave the Chester station at 4:35.

Which the Town Authorities Have at Last Barricaded to Make Safe.

The Chester authorities have taken the useless precaution to barricade the two great holes in the street at First street and Virginia avenue, and it is presumed they will be watched closely for a few days at least. The cavity into which Mrs. Amanda Hunter fell yesterday is a very dangerous spot, and should never have been left open as long as it was.

The wonder is that some serious accident had not happened long ago, for the holes were left without a particle of protection. Now that something has happened it very much resembles "locking the door after the horse has been stolen." Several months ago a horse fell into one of the cavities, and had a miraculous escape from death. It is probable Mrs. Hunter will ask damages, and the best informed legal authorities agree that she can recover. Residents of the vicinity are at a loss to know why steps have not been taken to build the sewer and fix the streets so they will be passable.

Theatre Improvements.

The work of constructing the double doors at the entrance of the summer theatre was completed today, and the improvement will be a very great convenience to the ticket taker. The building is now nearly ready for the painters, and will be further beautified by painting in an artistic manner. Stage Manager Joe Bradley is completing the frames for a new stage setting, and the scenery will be ready for use some time this week. The scene is a palace setting, and is the finest that ever graced a stage in this section of the state.

Clay Shops Now Idle.

The clay shops of the Edwin M. Knowles pottery closed down yesterday for the midsummer loaf. The employees of this department were informed when the loaf was announced that they would be expected to report for duty in two weeks. A large majority of the employees of the plant reside in Chester, and nearly all of them are members of the various locals, and declare they will vote against the convention demands.

CHESTER NOTES.

Mrs. Blanche Craft, of Wheeling, was the guest of Chester friends today.

Al McDonald was down at the home farm yesterday. He reports the crops doing well, and the garden truck in excellent shape.

Miss Addie McCutcheon and Miss Mary Boner, both of Wheeling, are calling on Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McCutcheon, of Virginia avenue.

Misses Tena and Edith Harberger, of Wheeling, are guests at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bloom, on First street. They will remain several weeks.

Mrs. George Buxton and her daughters, Misses Lottie and Cora, returned home to Leetonia today after spending a few days with Mrs. Russell and several other friends in Chester.

Misses Mary and Lillian Lewis, of Wheeling, Miss Ethel Clark, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Emma Spear and son, Paul, are the guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Lewis today.

Visiting Elks Jolly Fellows

They Arrived from New Castle This Morning Determined to Obliterate the Locals.

The New Castle Elks are here. They came at 10 o'clock this morning and they had not been in the city more than 10 minutes until every one, even on the hilltops, knew of their presence. All stately, fine looking fellows, they are. They were met at the depot by a reception committee of the local lodge and every courtesy was extended to them. But the noise they make—actually they are just like so many school boys home from college on a vacation. This afternoon when they go up against Joe Herbert and the remaining stars of the local team they will surely wish that the train had left New Castle before they reached it.

The parade given this afternoon before the game was an imposing affair and was watched with unusual interest. It was headed by a band and a Fourth of July pageant could not have shown up any better. The gaiety which characterizes the best people on earth was in evidence all along the line of march and every spectator felt so jolly and worked up that they determined then and there to follow the band wagon and march to West End park. If the game is not the best ever witnessed in this city it will not be one fault of the members of the team. They have practiced until every limb and muscle would make Corbett look like Dave Orr. In fact, they all look like an Andy Roe, Chick Gilbert or a Louis Steinfield. The locals in their new uniforms were so proud while they treaded up and down through the streets this afternoon that the ostrich would have been compelled to fly away back had he dropped among them.

Courage is what they need, though, and new dresses won't hurt them along that line. The New Castle bunch expect to win by cowing the umpire. If they only knew who that gentleman is to be their minds would change a few. He is about as big as you make them and never took a dare in his life.

LEADERS BATTLED

FOR FIRST PLACE

Crocker City Takes Second as the Result of a One-Sided Game With Athletics.

The two leading teams in the local league met for the first time at West End park yesterday afternoon and as a result the Athletics took first place in the race. The poor showing of the Crocker City team was a surprise to all, the Athletics having easy sailing from the very start. Davidson and Bridge, the Crocker City twirlers, were hit hard. The batting of Tyson and McAvoy was the feature. The score:

WHY WE ARE AGENTS

Here Are Some of the Convincing Facts That Caused us to Take the Agency for the Fulton Compounds, the First Things Known that Cure Chronic Kidney Diseases.

First, let it be distinctly understood that every one of the cases below was diagnosed by one or more physicians as chronic and incurable; second, note the certainty of the results as shown by the recovery also of the friends they told who were similarly afflicted with supposed incurable kidney diseases.

N. W. Spaulding, President Spaulding Saw Co., San Francisco, had a recovery in his own family and told several others who recovered.

Adolph Weske, capitalist, San Francisco, recovered himself and told two friends who recovered.

Dr. Carl D. Ziehl, pioneer druggist, 520 Pacific street, San Francisco, recovered himself and gave it to more than a dozen patients who recovered.

Charles Engleke, editor of the German paper, San Francisco, recovered himself and told it to a number who recovered, one of them being Charles F. Wacker, the Sixth street merchant.

R. M. Wood, editor Wine and Spirit Review, recovered himself and told it to several who recovered, among them being an old-school physician.

Edward Short of the San Francisco Call recovered, also three of his friends, viz: William Martin, Captain Hawkins of the Honolulu route and William Hawkins of the U. S. Quarter-master's Department of San Francisco.

John A. Phelps of the Hotel Republic, San Francisco, and two of his friends, etc. etc.

"The kidneys are the sewers that strain the poisons out of the system. We can stand the interference of a short while, but when the interference becomes chronic (permanent), as first explained by Bright, it is only a question of how long before death will ensue. It is the called Bright's Disease and incurable. All kidney troubles should begin at first with the only known thing that will cure it if it has reached the serious stage. Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure Him.

Weak, nervous, fretful, puny children require a treatment such as only Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure affords. When neglected these symptoms lead to epileptic fits or spasms. Every mother should strengthen her own and babies' nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure, a true specific in all nervous disorders. Read the following:

"When my little boy was 18 months old he had cramps in his feet and hands. They would be drawn out of shape for two or three days. At first I tried to help him but in about two weeks nothing did any good the doctor gave him. We called another doctor but his medicine did no good so we changed to another who called it spinal disease. By this time the child's body was drawn out of shape; his backbone was curved to one side and his hands and feet out of shape. His sufferings were terrible, and he was having from two to six fits a day. I was taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure for nervous trouble and saw it was recommended for fits, so I thought I would see if it would help him. All three doctors had given him up. One-half bottle stopped the fits and his limbs straightened, and another bottle cured him. He is now strong, healthy boy going to school. I have waited to see if it would be returned, before writing you, but it never has. I cannot praise Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure enough, as I know it saved my boy's life." Mrs. URAH NELSON, Lansing, Iowa.

gave the Rochester team on the latter's grounds a hard battle, losing by a score of 4 to 3. A team that can come that close to winning from Rochester on Rochester grounds must, as a rule, be a pretty strong aggregation. The lineup of the local team will be possibly stronger during the four games than at any time during the season. All of the players are in excellent trim and will not be lacking.

BIGAMY IS CHARGED

Lieutenant McCue Deserts Bride of Two Weeks and Whereabouts Unknown.

ANOTHER WOMAN IN THE CASE

Ida Westcott, of Cincinnati, Claims to Be His Wife—Were Married at Fort Thomas—Mrs. McCue Will Be Sent Back to San Francisco.

Chicago, June 30.—Lieutenant William K. McCue, of the United States army, is confronted with a charge of bigamy. Several days ago he arrived at a Chicago hotel with a bride of two weeks. The bride was Miss Viola Simon, of San Francisco, who was nearly prostrated when she heard that another woman claimed to be the lieutenant's wife.

McCue had left the hotel, and the bride, believing that she had been deserted, made arrangements to return to her parents in San Francisco.

A few minutes before midnight McCue returned, stating that he had spent the day at Fort Sheridan. The bride in the meantime had left the hotel and up to a late hour McCue had not been able to find her. He positively denied the charge of bigamy.

About the time the lieutenant was bidding his bride goodbye and telling her that he would soon return, a woman in Cincinnati, who says she is his wife, informed the chief of police there that he had contracted a bigamous marriage. She said her wedding took place while McCue was an enlisted soldier stationed at Fort Thomas.

The exposure was brought on when Lieutenant McCue asked his new father-in-law to send cards announcing the wedding to the woman in Cincinnati, who now claims to be his wife. She has been living there under the name of Ida Westcott, and had corresponded regularly with McCue until 1900.

McCue and his bride arrived here nine days ago. Mrs. McCue said that he told her they were going to Fort Porter, New York, where his regiment had been assigned to duty.

Mrs. McCue said: "When my husband left he said he was going to get his pay and transportation at army headquarters. I waited until noon and then went to see General Bates. My husband had not been there and then I feared the worst."

The deserted bride's father is Sigmund L. Simon, who has been cashier and bookkeeper in the sheriff's office in San Francisco for 25 years. Mr. Simon communicated with Chief of Police O'Neill through the San Francisco chief of police and arrangements are being made to send Mrs. McCue back to San Francisco.

After his return to the hotel Lieutenant McCue was told the exact nature of the charges against him. He made the following statement:

"I never was married to Ida Westcott, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. My courtship with Mrs. McCue was not a hasty one. I met her in San Francisco before I went to the Philippines. I have a 10-days' extension of leave from Washington, which does not expire until July 1.

Cincinnati, June 30.—Mrs. Ida W. McCue, wife of Lieutenant W. K. McCue, first infantry, laid before the chief of police the fact that she had received cards announcing the marriage of her husband, June 12, to a Miss Simon, of San Francisco. She says she cannot account for this action except on the theory that he has become insane through illness. She and McCue were married here while McCue was an enlisted man stationed at Fort Thomas. Mrs. McCue and her father, Leonard Westcott, requested Chief of Police Milliken to communicate with the war department at

Labor Unions Benefit Men

AMERICAN labor unions have a tendency to raise the mental standard of the men. THEY TRAIN A MAN'S INTELLIGENCE. THE MAN WHO IS MOST FIT GETS AHEAD. I believe in the survival of the fittest. What is in a man will come out if he has a chance.

THE BRAINIEST MECHANICS, THE MEN WHO THINK AND HAVE A CHANCE TO SHOW THE RESULTS OF THEIR THINKING, ARE THE MEN WHO MAKE THE BEST CAPITALISTS.

I believe every mechanic should have a chance to train himself to be a capitalist. By this I mean that he should have the opportunity to train his mind so that he could, so far as his mental equipment is concerned, be in a position to guide and direct as well as execute the orders of others. I tell you THERE IS NOTHING SO GRAND IN THE WORLD AS AN INTELLIGENT MECHANIC. He is of use in the world.

I believe in labor unions. I do not believe in trusts as they are today understood. Labor unions have the same right to organize that capital has. The interests of the one are in a parallel degree the interests of the other.

In the United States today we have some splendid labor unions, managed in a way to challenge admiration, and we have some of the worst. But the tendency has been forward.

The day will come when American labor unions will have reached such a point of excellence in organization, under competent management, with logical minds at the head, that capital will have to recognize them. Arbitration will then be the rule to settle differences. Strikes will be known only in history.

But the battle for labor is not yet won. IT WILL NOT BE UNTIL ALL OF THE UNIONS HAVE RID THEMSELVES OF THE MINORITY OF RANTERS WHO NOW RULE SOME OF THEM. These men are good talkers; they are eloquent on the platform, yet if you sift all they say you will not find a single practical idea. Yet in some of the labor unions in this country today these men, even now in the minority, rule the others.

LABOR UNIONS, TO SUCCEED, MUST BE LOGICAL.

I did so and used a bottle and have used several bottles since. It has given me great relief, and I would not be without a bottle at hand, as I think it a very valuable preparation for the stomach, and have no objections to your using my name as an endorsement of this, which I regard a great remedy for stomach trouble. I had tried many doctors and about every remedy that was prescribed by friends, and must say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done me more good than all I have ever tried."

ELEVATOR ACCIDENT

Score of Passengers Badly Injured in Sudden Fall of Fifty Feet.

TWO OF THE VICTIMS MAY DIE

Visitors to Heinz Pickle Factory Dashed Through Five Floors—Cage Was Overcrowded—Broken Shaft Cause of Casualty.

Pittsburg, June 30.—With a wild downward plunge of 50 feet an elevator, overcrowded with human freight, fell in the factory of the H. J. Heinz company, in Main street, Allegheny, and 23 persons were maimed. It is thought that at least two of the victims will die and the condition of all the injured is serious. With the exception of the operator all the passengers were visitors inspecting the plant. A broken shaft caused the accident.

Names of the Injured.
John Churney, Troy Hill, Allegheny; both legs fractured below the knees; not expected to recover.
Mrs. Edward Holman, Mt. Hope, N. J.; suffered concussion of the spine; not expected to recover.
Joseph Weber, elevator man in factory, Allegheny; condition dangerous.

O. R. Thompson, clerk in factory; right leg crushed.

Miss Imogene Rodman, Paris, Ky.; ankles sprained and spine injured.
Andrew Bolak, Allegheny; ankles sprained.

Mrs. H. A. Morrison, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

Mrs. A. Lytha, Allegheny, ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.

William Konkana, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.

C. Howak, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of spine.

Mrs. A. Vodraska, Cleveland; cut and bruised by flying glass.

Charles Spurney, Cleveland; ankles sprained and body bruised.

John Lotabar, Cleveland, suffered concussion of the spine.

Mrs. George Sherlock, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

Mrs. William Mitchell, Paris, Ky.; serious compound fracture of leg.

Mrs. Victor Bailey, Hazelwood; left leg fractured.

John Brotsky, No. 1645 Penn avenue; ankles sprained.

Steven Jasco, Cleveland; ankle sprained.

Mrs. Minnie Spring, Glenshaw; ankle sprained.

Mrs. E. W. Thornton, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

The injuries of the victims, almost without exception, are serious. In cases where the passengers suffered fractured limbs, the terrific concussion caused by the impact of the heavy cage on the hard floor of the basement, caused the bones to protrude through the flesh and in several instances amputation will probably be necessary to save the patients' lives.

Elevator Said to Be Overcrowded.

The freight elevator used by the Heinz company in transporting passengers carries about twice the burden of the ordinary passenger cage. There were no air cushions at the bottom and the big wooden platform fell to the basement like a plummet, scattering the passengers upon the hard floor, where an instant after they fell a rain of broken glass showered upon them, lacerating their faces and hands and adding to the horror of the disaster.

Officers of the company stated that the accident would not have occurred except for the antics of intoxicated visitors who jumped up and down, loosening the machinery and consequently breaking the shaft of the drum which controls the main ropes. The victims deny this and declare that all the passengers were sober and behaved in the most quiet fashion.

Balance Weight Was Caught.

A large party of visitors were being shown through the plant and were about to descend from the fifth floor to the preserving department beneath. The elevator was in charge of Joseph Weber. When 22 passengers had crowded on the platform the machine began its descent. Suddenly it shot downward, the passengers swaying to and fro as they passed the safety gates. With a crash they landed in the basement and sank groaning on the floor.

A 700-pound balance weight shot up through the timbers at the top of the elevator and buried itself in a two-inch plank in the side of the shaft. The weight of the weight caused a window to collapse and a shower of glass added the terror of the mangled sufferers who crawled from the pit beneath.

The hospital ambulances and patrol wagons were kept traveling from the plant to the hospitals for more than an hour after the accident occurred.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault-finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my dyspepsia," writes Geo. Dörner, Esq., of Putnam Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and was cured. After using four bottles I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. I had tried almost every other remedy that was recommended for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally, I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A majority of the injured are now being cared for at the Allegheny General and West Penn hospitals.

The Cleveland people who were injured are members of the Bohemian Catholic Central union and came here to take part in the blessing of the guns of the Cadets of St. George, of Allegheny, on Sunday.

To Call Meeting of Operators.

Huntington, W. Va., June 30.—One representative from each coal field in the state was here to discuss the advisability of calling a meeting of all the coal operators in the state in this city at an early date. The meeting will be held early in July. The recent advance in freight rates on all railroads in the state is the chief subject to be discussed by the operators at this session.

Receiver for Oil Company.

Lima, O., June 30.—Harry H. Adkins was appointed receiver for the Star Petroleum company. Frank H. Blackman, a Detroit stockholder, made the application for a receiver. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and its property is said to be heavily encumbered.

Baseball Managers to Meet.

New York, June 30.—At a meeting between Harry Pulliam, president of the national league, and P. Powers, president of the national association of minor leagues, it was decided to call a meeting to be held at the Hotel Victoria on July 28 for the long postponed discussion of the national agreement. A letter was sent to Ban Johnson, president of the American league, requesting his presence at the meeting. Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, has asked an investigation in the Bowerman-Clarke trouble. Clarke, who is manager of the Pittsburgh team, was struck by Bowerman in the office of the New York baseball club on Friday.

Crescote Works Destroyed.
West Pascagoula, June 30.—Fire totally destroyed the Crescote works, entailing a loss of $200,000. The works are said to be the largest in the south. The fire was caused by a piece of hot iron falling on the crescote. An explosion followed. No one was injured.

The Great Auto Race

Men Who Will Represent America in the International Contest For the Bennett Cup

THE Automobile blue ribbon race, the contest for the James Gordon Bennett cup, which takes place this year in Ireland and is open to all automobile clubs, will possess unusual interest to Americans by reason of the fact that three of their intrepid countrymen will try conclusions in skill and daring and in the speed and quality of their machines with the crack automobile drivers of the world over 300 miles of Irish road.

The contest for the Bennett cup is for the world's championship, and Alexander Winton, Louis P. Moers of Cleveland and Percy Owen of New York are the Americans against whom the automobile clubs of Germany, France, Great Britain and other nations will pit their most famous chauffeurs, most of whom are veterans of many a famous road battle. Of the Americans Winton alone has had experience at the European racing game, and that only on one occasion. Moers and Owens have hitherto only participated in track contests, far less dangerous forms of racing the swift and powerful road locomotives.

The result of the race will not only determine who is the champion chauffeur of the world, but will also go far toward settling the much discussed question of superiority in automobile building.

Fighting for the coveted trophy of automobilism on the European teams will be such noted chauffeurs as Henry Fournier, winner of the Paris-Madrid race and holder of the American mile record of 0:51 4-5; Rene de Kuyff, victor in the Paris-Bordeaux contest of 1899 and leader the first day in the Paris-Vienna test of last year; S. F. Edge, who captured this same James Gordon Bennett cup for England last year. Charles Jarrott, achiever of a straightaway mile in 0:40, and Baron de Kates and Herr de Grass, champion drivers of ponderous German speed cars.

Alexander Winton was the first of the American chauffeurs to volunteer to build and drive a machine in the race and so made possible an American team. Accordingly he was chosen by the contest committee as the nucleus of the team. The selection of Moers and Owen as the two other members followed the recent speed tests on Long Island.

Winton is the designer of the racers to be driven by Owen and himself. A small, wiry, nervous man of forty-three is this champion of American racers. Born in Scotland, he came to this country twenty years ago. His mechanical cleverness soon placed him in charge of a marine engine shop in New York city. Later he took up his residence in Cleveland and became prominent as a manufacturer of bicycles. In 1895 he designed and built a vertical gas motor for automobiles. In 1900 he represented the Automobile Club of America in the Gordon Bennett cup race, which that year was run from Paris to Bordeaux. After 125 miles of racing he ripped a tire off in rounding a corner, but continued for twenty-five miles farther on the run before stopping. At one point in the race Charron, who was second, led him by an hour, but was forced to lay up two hours for repairs. This would have made Winton second had his wheel been intact and permitted his going farther.

Winton is the holder of the world's mile track record of 1:02 1-2, made at Cleveland Sept. 16, 1902, and of all track records up to ten miles in 10:50 that were scored the same day. In a straightaway trial on the Ormond (Fla.) beach in March, 1903, he drove the Winton Bullet a mile in 0:52 1-2, the fastest mile ever made by an American automobile. The same day he scored 10:29 1-2 for ten miles, including a complete turn.

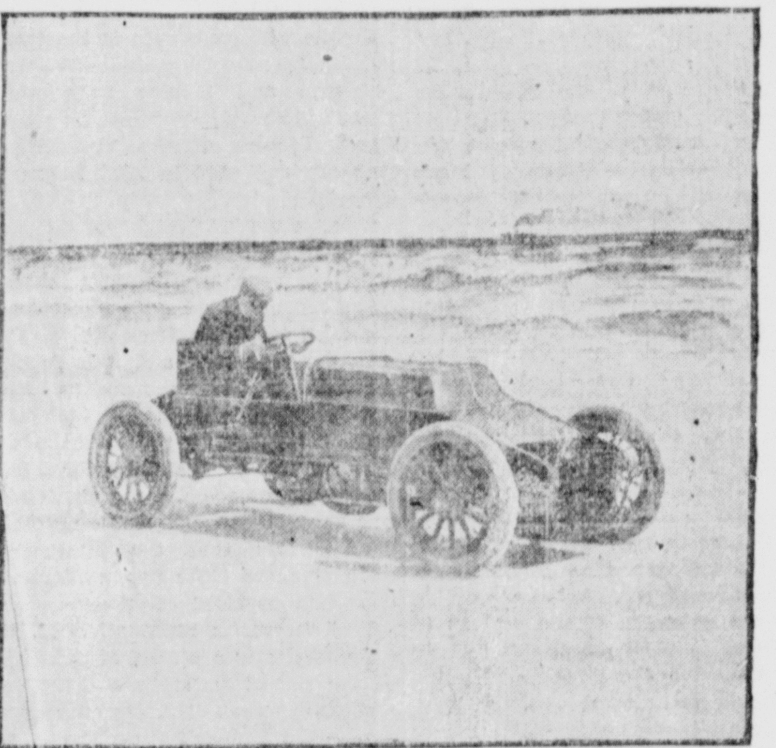

Percy Owen is the Adonis of the team. He has blue eyes, blond hair and a well set figure of medium height. His conversation is witty, and his style is altogether typical of the up to date young man. Owen is a native of Oswego, N. Y., and he is twenty eight years old. He drifted from the insurance business into automobilism. He is known in club land as a popular member of the New York Athletic club and the Automobile Club of America. Owen is nervy and skillful and will push his machine as fast as the most daring. Unless some accident occurs he should be well up with the first bunch in the dash over the roads of Ireland.

Owen has been racing automobiles for three years and is the possessor of many trophies won at the Providence, Cleveland and other meets. The proudest feathers in his racing cap, however, are the American mile straightaway record of 1:17 3-5 for gasoline vehicles from 1,000 to 2,000 pounds and also the kilometer record of 0:47 for the same class. Both were scored on Staten Island May 31, 1902. Most of the track records and victories of the famous Winton "bug" were made under his guiding hand.

Louis P. Moers is the daredevil of the American trio. He is a full blooded Yankee and first saw the light in Massachusetts thirty years ago. He is fearless to recklessness and is in his element when aboard a racing automobile. He looks the part, too, with his freckled face and sandy hair and determined visage, a typical Yankee fighter who will never give up so long as his machine is on wheels and has power enough to keep it on the jump. And this same pugnaz face bears more than one scar, reminders of little mishaps that have befallen him while pushing his automobile along at its utmost speed. Moers, like Winton, was originally a bicycle builder. At one time he was superintendent of a factory.

It takes a superabundance of nerve to be a driver of an automobile racer.

ALEXANDER WINTON SPEEDING HIS RACER AT PALM BEACH.

Broken limbs, bruised bodies and even death have previously marked the course of these great international contests. A mile a minute pace on a clear, broad, straightaway road is a rate few drivers have the courage to dare. Shift the race, however, to a narrow and by no means smooth Irish road, with sharp turns to be negotiated every mile or two and with the pace most of the way close to a mile a minute; remember that passing a rival racer must be done with one wheel in the ditch and that corners must be rounded at full speed, often with two of the wheels in the air; remember the danger of traction falling and the driver being dashed into a wall or tree by the road side and that at any moment there is a possibility of the racing automobiles becoming bunched and wrecked in an awful tangle of men and machinery, and it will be realized that to be a successful automobile racer one must forget all about self and think of nothing but the joy of victory ahead—if the fates permit.

But besides the James Gordon Bennett cup there are several other international automobile races in which Americans will take part. Most notable of these is the Paris-Madrid race, which has attracted the entries of several Americans who have made records at home and abroad. Among these are Foxhall Keene and William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. Mr. Keene has been preparing for this race and is considered a likely candidate for winner. His old time rival, Henry Fournier, is entered for the race, as he is for the Bennett cup, and it is Mr. Keene's ambition to prove his superiority over the bold Frenchman, who is second to none when nerve and skill are required.

The most important of all the international races, however, is the Bennett cup. Only those drivers who are willing to risk their lives in the demonstration of the superiority of the product of the designers and builders of the countries they represent have any chance of victory. It is considered that the race in Ireland will be largely a contest of drivers, and in that event America seems to have an excellent show, for no more capable and courageous team than Messrs. Winton, Moers and Owen could have been chosen to represent the United States in Ireland.

An Inconvenient Piano.
Leopold de Meyer of Dresden, a brilliant and popular pianist of his day, was once summoned to play before the sultan at Constantinople. Going thither, he borrowed a grand piano from one of the Austrian secretaries of legation and had it set up in a large reception room at the palace. There he awaited the coming of the sultan, but when that intelligent monarch entered the room he started back in alarm and demanded of his attendants what that monster was standing there on three legs.

Explanations followed, but were in vain. The legs had to be taken off and the body of the instrument laid flat on the floor, and Leopold de Meyer, squatting cross legged on a mat, went through his programme as best he could in that awkward attitude and without pedals. But the commander of the faithful was delighted, and when the last piece was played gave the artist over $5,000 as "backsheesh."

His Excuse.
"No," said a citizen when asked if he would contribute anything to the relief of the flood sufferers; "I don't think I will."
"Can't afford it, eh?"
"It isn't that, but the last time I gave something for charity one of the papers spelled by name wrong."

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Placing the New Bell—Workmen are now engaged in placing the fine new bell in position in St. John's Lutheran church. It will probably be ready to call the worshippers together next Sunday.

New Sunday School—A Presbyterian Sunday school was organized at the school house north of the city, near the Ross farm in Jethro Hollow, on Sunday, and will meet regularly each Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The officers of the school are A. E. Waggle, superintendent, and D. J. Johnson, secretary and treasurer.

Hurt By a Stone—John, aged 9, a son of Louis Grant, Cherry alley, was struck on the head by a stone thrown by another lad and got a severe scalp wound. He was unconscious for a time. The boys were over in West Virginia at the time, stoning apple trees to knock off the fruit.

Fined $1 and Costs—While celebrating a holiday annually observed by his native countrymen, John Wockdyz, a Pole, was arrested last evening by Chief Wyman. He was holding up a telephone pole on Market street and was bearing down very close to the ground under the weight. He was an inoffensive sort of a fellow, and the mayor let him off with the minimum fine, $1 and costs.

Too Smart.
"Once when I was a Mississippi pilot," said Mark Twain, "I got out of work and had to hustle for a new job. I talked to a number of captains, but none of them wanted a pilot. Finally I met a man who said there was a vacancy on his boat that I might fill if I could qualify. He asked me about my habits, my religion, my birth, my schooling, and so on. Then he said: 'Now, for the main thing: Do you know where the snags in the river are?' 'No, captain,' I said, 'I don't.' He swore, 'Wants to be a pilot,' he muttered, 'and don't know where the snags are,' 'I know where they're not,' said I. But my smartness cost me the job."

Good Shoes

A good solid shoe at a reasonable price, is cheaper than a cheap shoe at a cheap price. We are selling Ladies' Oxfords at $1.00 a pair that are strictly solid, and will guarantee them to wear. Put, tip or plain toe. You can possibly buy oxfords for less money, because there are cheaper ones made. But one pair of ours at $1.00 will be worth more than two pair of the cheaper ones.

Which Is Foolish?
Which Is Wise?

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

Who is the wise one?
Who is the foolish one?

We're after your case.
We want to help you.
Give us opportunity.
We'll do it.

If you are at all intelligent you will see our point. It is not what you spend your money for, but how you spend it. Clothes and food are legitimate expenditures of money but if someone offers you a way that you can buy clothes and food and receive back your money would you not avail yourself of it? Why then not take the same plan when it is offered you in that other essential of life, a shelter, a home.

We make the offer and are waiting to hear from you.

LABOR DAY PLANS
GOING FORWARD

Strong Sentiment Shown in Favor of Holding the Usual Parade.

Will Be Asked of Trades Council and Much Attention Will Be Paid to the Program for the Eventful Day.

Preparations for the labor day celebration are going steadily forward, and at the meeting held last night considerable progress was made. The Potters' Herald office has been secured for the committee's use, and meetings have so far been held only on each Monday night. Hereafter, however, the body will get together oftener.

Few of the sub-committees have been appointed as yet, and it was decided at the meeting last night that it would be impossible to get along without more help. The present committee is a good one and has worked faithfully and well as far as the project has advanced, but there are a great many departments in a celebration of this character, and they are so varied in their operation that it requires men who are familiar with the various features to handle them right.

At the meeting to be held by trades council on Wednesday night the chairman of the committee will ask that the general committee be enlarged. Five more members will be asked and it is probable President Bentley will comply. The addition to the body will enable the chairman of the committee to appoint the heads of the sub-committees at once, and with the hustling that the committee expects to do they will barely finish the task in hand before the date of the celebration, which is September 7.

The matter of advertising was taken up and thoroughly discussed. More attention will be paid to this department on the occasion of the 1903 demonstration than has ever been customary. It was deemed the wiser plan to defer definite action on the matter until the addition was made to the committee.

A large number of communications were received by the committee's secretary, John Reark, all of which declared in favor of a parade on Labor Day. The matter had been referred to the different locals for a decision, and the committee acted wisely in this. It was the idea of the committee to get a definite expression from the unionists of the city as to whether it would be advisable to hold a parade. When a local organization decides in favor of the parade, they will naturally be under obligation to turn out themselves and see to it that their neighbor does likewise. This action on the part of the committee is commendable and will have its effect.

MEANS MUCH TO THIS CITY

LOCAL BANK TO HANDLE C. & P. RAILROAD FUNDS.

The Potters' National Bank Contracts for a Large Business.

That East Liverpool is fast becoming an important financial center, as well as one of the leading industrial localities along the Ohio river, was demonstrated this morning when a deal was closed which places all of the business of the big C. & P. Railroad company in the hands of the Potters' National bank.

Details with reference to the transaction were secured at a late hour this afternoon and involve negotiations which have been in progress for weeks. The deal is one of the most important ever consummated in East Liverpool financial circles.

Treasurer T. H. Knight, of the company, having headquarters in Pittsburgh, has been in the city several times recently, and on each occasion has expressed himself as well pleased with the prospects, and it is thought that he has placed the matter before the company's directors in such a favorable light that the bargain was quickly closed. Yesterday Paymaster W. H. Rhodes came to the city, and it was upon the receipt of his report to his superiors that the instructions were given to close up, which was done this morning.

The successful termination of the negotiations is a stroke of enterprise on the part of the officials of the local institutions that cannot go unnoticed among the foremost financiers in the country, and not a little credit is due Cashier Rollin W. Patterson, who has been untiring in his efforts to bring about the desired end.

The securing of the immense business of the railroad company will mean much to the city in many ways. In addition to the handling of thousands of dollars in a single day, it will make the Potters' National bank one of the leading institutions in this section. The business heretofore has been handled in Pittsburgh.

The territory taken by the deal, and for which the bank will be called upon to handle the currency extends from Bellaire to East Liverpool and from this city on the main line to Cleveland.

The bank officials look upon the matter as a merited recognition of the city as an industrial center, and the favor is appreciated very highly by them.

THE CROWDS AT COOPER'S

Show and Concerts Are Nightly Increasing.

REALITY IN HIS WORK

That Cannot Be Questioned—Valuable Testimonials Heard Last Night.

Cooper's show was better and the crowd bigger last night than ever before, the truth being that Brum's hill is almost too small to accommodate the immense throngs that flock there every night to hear the wonderful Cooper. There is a magic in his name and a reality in his work.

Last night Mrs. Jennie Waters, of Thompson avenue, told of how she had suffered long with kidney trouble. She could not stand on her feet long at a time until she tried Dr. Cooper's New Discovery. One bottle completely cured her and she was there last night to purchase more of it as a household necessity.

Mrs. E. Verden of East Fifth street, suffered intensely with catarrh. She bought a bottle of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery and last night told of how it had greatly benefited her. She wanted more of the medicine.

People are still talking of the restoration of Pete Oath, who was dead for years. Dr. Cooper's Quick Relief made him hear plainer than he had for years. He had tried everything and was never helped until Cooper came.

A fine program has been arranged for tonight in the way of a splendid show and promenade concert. It is all free. Go out and hear the wonderful Cooper.

FINES AND SENTENCES IMPOSED IN COURT ON SEVERAL OFFENDERS

Wellsville Father and Son Get Long Terms in Prison—Local Liquor Cases Dis- posed Of.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—When court convened yesterday afternoon four of a special venire of jurors drawn Saturday night reported for duty as follows: M. F. Hendricks, Leetonia; M. R. Little, Hanoverton; Henry Williamson, Rogers; Emanuel Lower, Columbiana. The following were excused: W. W. Burns, Salem; Charles Wernot, Hanoverton; W. C. Chamberlin, East Palestine; E. W. Michaels, Wellsville; E. W. Davis, Salem.

The court proceeded at once to dispose of the criminal business presented by the work of the recent grand jury.

Mrs. Thomas Davis, of East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to a habitual drunkard. The liquor was supplied to Albert Brown, through the agency of his 10-year-old son and was sold to the boy in compliance with a standing order from the father. There was no indictment for selling to a minor. The court imposed a fine of $15 and costs.

David Davis, Salem, who pleaded not guilty to having furnished to a habitual last week, changed his plea, admitting his guilt and was fined $20 and costs. In his statement to the court Prosecutor Brookes described Davis as a professional go-between.

SUPPLEMENTARY PETITION IS FILED By Monroe Patterson Who Seeks to Enjoin C. A. Smith From Building a Railway.

C. A. Smith was notified this morning of the filing of a supplementary petition at Lisbon by Monroe Patterson, which the latter asks the court to consider before rendering a decision in the injunction case filed against Mr. Smith to prohibit him building his street railway line to the East End.

The first petition filed by Mr. Patterson was evidently thought by him not to be of sufficient strength to have effect on the court and another one was added. It states that if a line is allowed to be run up Kossuth street to Pennsylvania avenue his property and family will be in imminent danger at all times, and specifies several other reasons why an injunction should be issued. The action taken by Mr. Pat-

BEN HUR MONEY WAS CARRIED OFF

Must Have Been Aware He Had $100 Lodge Money—Lodge Record Also Taken.

The details of the burglary of an East End home, given exclusively in yesterday's News Review, prove that the crime was perpetrated by a most daring and nervy criminal. That he succeeded so well in his nefarious purpose and got away without leaving even the slightest clue is due to freedom from fear. The scene of the crime, the home of Porter Herbert, on Maple street, is an ideal place for such a deed, and the surroundings are such as to place all the houses of the neighborhood at the mercy of midnight prowlers. The street is unlighted and after nightfall practically deserted.

The money, amounting to about $100, taken from the Herbert home Sunday night, represented the collections Mr. Herbert had made as secretary of Pan-American court, Tribe of Ben Hur. Most of the money had been paid to him late Saturday afternoon and evening and he had no opportunity to place it in a bank.

The money was in bills and in the record book of the lodge. The intruder evidently gained an entrance to the house through one of the parlor windows, as it was found open the next morning. The lid of the box was forced open and the intruder, discovered the bills at different places in the book, carried it away with him. Several rooms down stairs were visited, but the family, all of whom sleep upstairs, heard nothing. Yesterday morning the front door was found open and it was evident that the burglar had made his exit through it.

Not the slightest clue has been found, that will be of any use to the officers in establishing the identity or in apprehending the burglar. Evidently the perpetrator was not a novice and took particular care in covering up his tracks.

The loss of the book will be keenly felt by the lodge, as it contains valuable records from the time of its organization.

CONSTABLE BUSY WITH SUBPOENAS

A Large Number of East Liverpool People Called to Court at Lisbon.

Constable Powell was busy today serving subpoenas on witnesses to appear before the court at Lisbon during the next few days. There are a number of East Liverpool cases to come up and a large number of local people have been summoned to appear. Willis Davidson, city auditor, was summoned to appear for both the defense and the plaintiff in the case of Lucinda Martin against the city of East Liverpool. She has sued for $5,000 damages, alleging that the city owes her that amount as the result of changing the grade of Pleasant street during the year 1901. The case will be bitterly fought.

Another tax case has also been filed against M. E. Golding, of Pennsylvania avenue, County Treasurer Thompson having entered suit against him for $1240.97. A subpoena was served upon him this morning.

A number of subpoenas were also served on witnesses in the case of Arthur D. Hill against the Central Accident Insurance company. This case has been in the courts for some time and is being hard fought by both the plaintiff and defendants. Hill wants a certain amount which he alleges, the company owes him on an accident policy.

About 20 witnesses left for Lisbon this morning to testify in cases of importance. Among the party were all of the policemen except Officers Dawson and McDevitt. They will testify on the cases against several saloon-keepers charged with selling to habitual drunkards and against Mike Cloran, charged with keeping open on Sunday.

John Johannes, of East Liverpool, pleaded guilty to two indictments for having sold liquor on election day and was fined $25 and costs in each case, together with a 1 day jail sentence for each indictment, the jail sentence to be suspended during good behavior. Johannes is custodian of the Turner hall and is said to have supplied liquor to election officials in the polling place.

William Bowles, Rogers, who pleaded guilty last week to having embezzled a watch belonging to J. E. Mackall, was sentenced to 20 days in jail.

Edward Duncan, who had previously stolen a valuable horse from the stable of A. Larsen in Washington township, was sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory. He is 30 years old.

Robert Nace, Lisbon, changed his plea, admitting that he was guilty of stealing some tools valued at about $6. This was his second offense of this character and he was given 30 days to the Canton workhouse.

Frank and George Easton, Wellsville, indicted for crimes against their sisters and daughters respectively, at

ANDERSON NOW HEADS THE LIST

A GRAND HUSTLE IN ORDER

J. E. Anderson, who for a long time stood in third place among the candidates for News Review prizes, today supplants Thomas Neal, who has been in the leading position since the contest was inaugurated. The vote cast yesterday was a heavy one and it made a material change in the standing of those near the head of the list. It is not at all likely that Mr. Anderson will be able to maintain his leadership without a struggle, and the contest is that from this time on the campaign being waged by the vote-getters will be of the very liveliest character.

Let no one forget that Series F coupons will not be good unless received at the News Review office today.

AN UMBRELLA MENDER CUT HIS THROAT IN JAIL

Hanoverton, June 30.—(Special)—Robert Brice, aged 45, a Scotchman, well known in most of the towns of Columbiana county as an itinerant umbrella mender, was arrested here yesterday for drunkenness, and about 4:30 p. m. cut his throat with a razor in the town lockup. He died about an hour and a half later, despite the efforts of two physicians to save him. No trace of his relatives could be found and his body was buried today in the potter's field.

Brice came here yesterday from Kensington and it is said that he told people there before starting that it would be his last day on earth. He got drunk soon after his arrival and was locked up. Marshal Schloss visited him in his cell and talked with him half an hour before he committed suicide. Brice had been in this country since 1877.

CHILD'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Three Year Old Lad's Remains Recovered After Being in the Water Five Days.

While at Play at Neville Island—The Remains Found This Morning at Wellsville—Father Identifies the Body.

After being in the Ohio river for five days the body of little Walter Vary Allen, aged 2 years and 9 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Allen, of Neville Island, near Pittsburgh, was found at about 6 o'clock this morning near the Ohio shore at Wellsville by G. W. Willis and wife, who live on a shanty boat.

The body, swollen and distorted, was at once removed to the undertaking establishment of R. M. Hauch, where it was made as presentable as possible. Mayor Fogo having heard of the child's drowning, immediately telephoned to Mr. Allen, giving him the description of the body. The father broke into tears and said that the child was undoubtedly his and that he would leave for Wellsville immediately to identify the little corpse and take it home for burial.

When caught by Mr. Willis, who threw a rope around the body and pulled it to shore, the child was dressed in soldier blue trousers with large white buttons on the inside at the waistband, black stockings, the legs of which are ribbed, a short undershirt and white striped percale waist. Enameled shoes of good make, slightly worn out at the toes, completed the costume. Two gold band rings were found, one on each hand. The child has blonde hair of unusual length, and from every appearance it was in life a very pretty boy. Every thing about the dress is of good material, and that it belongs to well-to-do parents is beyond question.

The boy was drowned on last Thursday evening. He left his home in company with a neighbor's child of about the same age, named Miller. A little later the Miller child returned home, but said nothing about his companion. Three-quarters of an hour after his return the Miller boy began to cry.

When questioned he said he and the Allen boy had been playing on the river bank and Allen had fallen into the water and did not come up again.

A search was started immediately. At the place pointed out by the child the water was about 15 feet deep. It was in what is usually still water between the island and the south shore, but the river was high and a current was running through. The work of dragging the river was commenced and was kept up for two days. Almost every foot of the river bottom between the island and the shore was dragged before the search was abandoned.

CAMPING PARTIES.

Quite a number of camping parties are making preparations for outings during the months of July and August. Each party has endeavored to select the most beautiful spot available for the pitching of the camp, and camping life will be enjoyed to its fullest extent. Among the parties already formed are the Junior boys of the Y. M. C. A., the Phoenix club and the Eagle association.

Petty-Farnsworth.

Miss Linnie Petty and John Farnsworth were married on Saturday evening by Squire McLane. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of relatives and friends in the private office of the 'squire. The bride and groom are held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. Following the ceremony a reception and wedding supper took place at the home of the bride.

THE ROUTE CHANGED AND WORK RESUMED

New Street Railway Route Changed at Lisbon—City Hall Contract Let.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—An important adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, and as a result of its action work was resumed this morning on the Youngstown & Ohio River Electric Light & Power company's interurban electric line. Excavation for the roadbed was started on Beaver street at the Washington street intersection, which will bring the line into Water street a block farther west than was formerly contemplated and at a point where it will not interfere with either of the steam lines.

Council granted the franchise as asked by the street car company but the ordinance provides that the company shall not penetrate any farther into the city with its line than the point where work started this morning until the remainder of the construction between Lisbon and Salem is completed. After that the company may complete its route through the business part of town, the route as decided upon being east on Washington street from Beaver to Jefferson, north on Jefferson to the Hostetter house on Walnut, west on Walnut to the Commercial house and thence down Beaver to Washington, the point where work commenced this morning.

The council also awarded the contract for the building of the new city hall. Charles H. Baker, of Lisbon, was the successful bidder, his bid being $9,134.85. There were three other bidders as follows: John A. Coburn, $9,404.45; P. M. Armstrong, $9,499; George Chamberlain, $9,642.45. Work is to be started by July 15 and completed by December 1.

Gas Companies Must Not Tear Up
Streets Unless They Obey
the Rules.

As a result of action taken at the meeting of the public service board last evening, the following notice today was served on the gas companies operating in the city:

"Gentlemen—By reason of not having complied with the rules governing the opening of streets, the board of public safety has suspended your license, so far as relates to the opening of streets for gas connections, etc. The suspension will remain until you show evidence of familiarity with the rule regulating the opening of streets, and a disposition to comply therewith. Your attention is directed to a number of places on the streets that need repaving by reason of openings made by your company.

"Respectfully,
"BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE,
"J. W. GIPNER, Secretary."

"Clean and unbroken streets" has been adopted by the board of public service as a most significant motto and one that its members to a man intend to live up to. There has not been a meeting of the body since its organization that some good resolution has not been made concerning the maintenance of streets and alleys, and the session last evening was no exception to the preceding ones. The entire membership assembled on good time and the business was taken up and disposed of with dispatch.

Together with the board three of the city were present, City Auditor Davidson, Engineer Kelly and Supt. Morley, of the water works. Commissioner Dickey was in Pittsburgh and Solicitor Davidson was unavoidably detained at Lisbon. The first question taken under consideration by the board was in reference to the numerous violations being committed almost daily by the holders of bonds who are failing to put a street in repair after tearing it up in the specified time, 24 hours.

Considerable attention was given the matter and every phase of it was well aired. It was discovered that the gas companies occupying the streets of the city are not living up to the law in any manner and that they have not even furnished a bond to do work in the streets. The bonds given by plumbers and the hardware concerns and a few others are for $1,000 and Mr. Smith thought it very considerate when he made a motion that the gas companies be required to furnish a like bond. The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

A morning publication, as usual, erred in its report of the bond question, designating the amount to be furnished by the gas companies as $5,000. Complaints having been registered about the condition of certain streets that have been torn up by different people during the past few days the clerk was notified to instruct the violators that their rights will be revoked immediately if they do not do as the board has directed them. The gas companies will also, as the result of a motion, be compelled to make the board a personal visit in the future and get its permission before they can tear up any streets.

FERNWOOD CAMP

Where Many Prominent Young Men Will Spend the Heated Term.

A number of East Liverpool's prominent residents have arranged to spend the next six weeks in camp at Fernwood, which is located on Beaver creek, a short distance from Grim's bridge. They held a meeting last evening and completed every detail for the outing. The camp is one of the most picturesque spots in this section of the country and the campers will no doubt have a great time. They will spend the time in fishing and other sports enjoyed by such people will be taken up.

Among the number that will be regularly at the camp are: Joe Cartwright, Will Phillips, George Davidson, Robert T. Hall, Samuel Larkins, Robert Barker, T. B. Lawrence, Ed Davidson, W. K. Gaston, Harry Hall, W. H. Vodrey, John Brooks, Jack Harris, Thomas Anderson, George Anderson, E. M. Knowles and W. E. Wells. The first delegation will leave tomorrow.

MAYOR HAS DECIDED TO WORK PRISONERS ON THE CITY'S STREETS

Thinks Many of Those in Jail For Minor Offenses Can Be Made to Do Useful Labor.

Mayor Weaver made the announcement this morning that in the future when prisoners are destitute of money to pay their fines he will make provisions for them whereby they can work out on the streets the amount assessed. The edict will be received favorably by many, especially by those in charge of the streets, and if the chief executive is successful in carrying out the determination he will have accomplished something that his predecessors were never able to do.

There is seldom a day that a few extra men can not be utilized on the streets in some capacity. Street Commissioner Dickey can find work for a man almost any time and City Engineer Kelly and Sanitary Policeman Burgess have occasion to use a laborer nearly every day. Mr. Burgess receives numerous complaints that he could attend to with more satisfaction had he a man or two to accompany him with a pick and shovel. The mayor has given the question much consideration of late and for the relief of the city officials in charge of the thoroughfares he has concluded to enforce the new plan.

In some cases he does not expect it to work. There will be no ball and chain attachment to the prisoner. He will simply be placed at a job on his honor to remain and complete the work. While a number are likely to run away at the first opportunity, the mayor does not anticipate that all will do so. Honor is a man's highest possession, and as a rule he feels proud to be looked upon as one not devoid of it.

The mayor reached the decision after studying the case of "Zip" Farmer. The latter owes the city $10 and has no money. He was released last evening and the mayor thought how much better off the city would be were there a place provided for such characters to work. In "Zip" probably an exception would be found. If he were to be placed at work for 10 days he would remain on the job. He gained a reputation along that line while incarcerated in the Canton work house. The officials of that institution always placed confidence in him and they were never caused to regret it. They have sent him unattended time and again from the work house and he always returned on time.

There are others of the same type in the city and on them at least it is thought the plan will not be a failure.

GEN. JONES PLOWED FIRST FURROW

Grading Work Started On the Youngstown & Southern Railway This Morning.

Actual work was begun on the Youngstown & Southern Electric railroad this morning. It was commenced at Kyle Coler's place, a half mile south of Youngstown, 40 men and 20 teams being employed. The ploughing of the first furrow was done by General Asa W. Jones, John H. Ruhlman, J. R. Long and W. S. Anderson, the latter two manipulating the plow and the latter couple driving the horses.

The reason for starting the work so far away from Youngstown is that the company has purchased a perfect roadbed extending from the city to Kyle Corners from another company and it will not be necessary to do more than repair it a little. Those employed on the construction will push the work and it is expected that the entire line will be built before the time specified in the franchises accepted by the company.

An official of the company in conversation with the News Review by long distance telephone this morning stated that work will be started on the East Liverpool end of the line just as soon as the engineers have finished some preliminaries. It is expected that they will be through in three weeks. They are in Lisbon today and will work towards this city.

Every contract for the construction of the entire road has been let to Patrick Joyce, John W. Fawcett and Veeder Heasley, Youngstown men. They will, however, sublet a portion of it.

Mr. Ruhlman said this morning that the company expected to celebrate the completion of the entire line by July 4, next year.

THE ROUTE CHANGED AND WORK RESUMED

New Street Railway Route Changed at Lisbon—City Hall Contract Let.

Lisbon, June 30.—(Special)—An important adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, and as a result of its action work was resumed this morning on the Youngstown & Ohio River Electric Light & Power company's interurban electric line. News and Notes About The Potteries

MINERVA NOTES.

James Marshall has accepted a position as batter-out for Ed Messer. Mr. Marshall was a ball player of some note in East Liverpool.

Samuel Lewis, of East Liverpool, is helping Mr. Melevitt, the warehouse boss, to get the place in shape.

The printing machine is in operation. They are decorating a fine line of dinner ware. This is the first decorating that has been done in this pottery.

Harry Henselman, of East Liverpool, visited here Wednesday. He is on his way to Carrollton, where he will be employed as one of the jigmen when that pottery starts.

CHANCE AT COLUMBUS.

George Hasbrook, of the Hasbrook-Barker company, of Columbus, O., has purchased the controlling interest of the Columbus Pottery company, of Columbus, O. The foundations are in at the plant and this is all that has been done with it so far. It is the intention of the company, however, to start again with the construction and get the plant completed.

REBUILDING AT ROSEVILLE.

The J. W. McCoy Pottery company, of Roseville, O., which was burned out last month, is rebuilding the burned portion of its works and changing around, making the plant better than before. It is said that they will also erect one or even two additional kilns, which will increase the plant in capacity greatly.

TO START AUGUST 1.

The buildings of the works of the A. H. Meade Pottery company, of Auburn, Wash., have been completed and the kilns are now being erected. The company will start the installation of their machinery this week and expect to have their pottery in operation within the next 30 days at the farthest.

CAPACITY INCREASED.

A new kiln is being built at the works of the Progressive Pottery company, of Roseville, O. The company recently made several changes in the management and new people were taken into the company and they are now financially strong and the plant will be run to its fullest capacity.

POTTERY NOTES.

F. S. Lowry is adding one additional kiln to the capacity of his stoneware plant at Roseville, O. The new kiln takes the place of one torn down some time ago.

It is stated that the present capacity of the works of the Central New York Pottery company, of Chittenango, N. Y., will be greatly increased during the summer months. The company are successors to the Ashwood Pottery company.

The New England Pottery company, of East Boston, Mass., are modernizing their pottery in that city greatly. They will add one kiln to its present capacity and new machinery for the production of its goods on a more economical basis is now being installed.

OF A HIGH CLASS

Is the Vaudeville Show Given This Week at Rock Springs Park Theater.

High-class vaudeville is the order at Rock Springs theater this week, and the performers and their several entertaining acts more than fulfilled the expectations of the management of the house. The first night was characterized by hard work on the part of the artists, and expressions of approval and appreciation from the large audience.

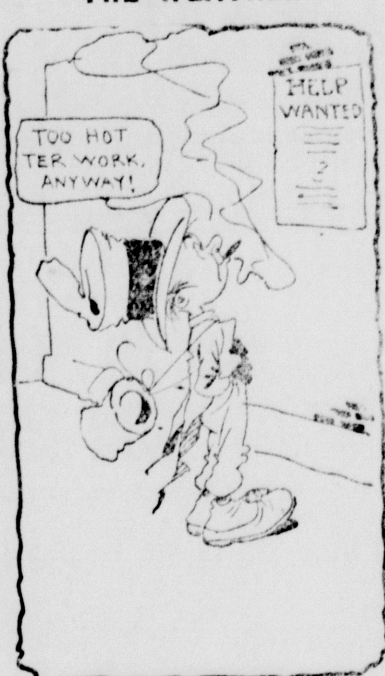

The three Graces open the bill in a turn that is strictly original, and at once establishes the right of each to the credit of being players of unusual ability. The small boy is a winner, and his name will undoubtedly be found among the top notchers long before he discards knickerbockers.

Leslie & Curdy are a clever team and though their jokes are a trifle antiquated, the manner in which they have prepared their topical songs makes an excellent impression.

"The Chinese and the Maid" is an act made up by Seymour & Denmare, and though not entirely new to East Liverpool people, is one of the best vaudeville numbers ever seen in the city. The antics of the Chinese are funny and really meritorious, while the Dutch turn and wooden shoe dance by the lady made a tremendous hit. They received a cordial greeting from the audience, and a persistent encore when they finished.

Senator Frank Bell was the star. He works by himself, and has earned the enviable record of being the "man with the talk." His oratory is unequalled and his delivery perfect. The local dits were greeted with applause in every instance, and the manner in which they fitted in could not be appreciated by the most critical. Senator Bell will be a favorite this week.

The contortionists, Zeda and Dilla, have an act that cannot be topped. The team carries all its own scenery and light effects. The turn is original throughout and contains many wonderful features.

NOT A DRY TOWN

Toronto Votes to Continue Wet, Giving a Majority of 119.

Toronto, June 29.—An election held in this city yesterday to determine whether or not intoxicating liquors should be sold as a beverage resulted in a victory for the "wets" by a majority of 119.

Fell from a Car And Died.

Alliance, June 29.—Monroe Hoiles, of this city, aged 43, fell from a car on the Stark electric line near Maximo and sustained injuries which resulted in his death. He was unmarried.

Shut Down to Forestry Strike.

Butte, Mont., June 29.—The big smelter of the Anaconda Copper company at Anaconda was shut down for an indefinite period, throwing 1,500 men idle. The company announces that the shut down is for the purpose of making repairs, but the men allege that it is done to forestall a probable strike for higher wages on July 1. The mines at Butte, from which the Anaconda smelter drew its ore supply, have also closed, affecting more than 2,000 other men.

Albatross Released from Quarantine.

Port Townsend, Wash., June 29.—The United States fish commission steamer Albatross, on which is a party of scientists headed by President David Starr Jordan, of Stanford university, and which returned from Fort Rupert, Alaska, on her way to the Arctic, owing to the discovery of a case of smallpox, was released from Diamond Point quarantine station and resumed her voyage north. The case has been diagnosed as mild varioloid.

The Deadly Toy Pistol.

Akron, O., June 29.—William Pifer and William Wilson Hazen, 19-year-old lads of this city, have died of lock jaw, victims of the toy pistol. Each was wounded about 10 days ago.

Killed Himself With Morphine.

Elkins, W. Va., June 29.—Mrs. L. W. Warner, of Elmhurst, N. Y., committed suicide by drinking a mixture of alcohol and morphine in her room in the Tremont hotel here.

Ohio Mourns the Death of Three Favorite and Distinguished Sons Whose Funerals Take Place Today—Grief at the State House.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, June 29.—Secretary-Treasurer G. W. Savage, of the United Mine Workers of America, has returned from Columbiana county, where he settled a strike of the miners at Washingtonville which had been on two weeks, about 200 being out. The trouble was over a refusal of the operators to allow the men to haul powder to the mine from the co-operativestore. After a number of spirited conferences the operators waived their objections and the strikers returned to work.

Mr. Savage tried to adjust a small strike at Elkhart, but was unsuccessful. The Washingtonville and East Palestine coal field has been the scene of many strikes during the past few years, but in each case a satisfactory settlement was reached.

Ohio mourns the death of three favorite sons whose funerals take place today. They are Hon. Burgess L. McElroy, clerk of the house of representatives, of Mt. Vernon; Hon. Charles A. Goddard, member of the state board of public works, of Franklin Furnace, Scioto county; and Dr. A. B. Richardson, superintendent of the government hospital for the insane at Washington. All passed away at their homes. Mr. McElroy was possessed of a sunny nature and was beloved by all who knew him. An obstruction of the bowels caused his death. Bright's disease carried off Mr. Goddard. His death had been expected.

Dr. Richardson died suddenly. He was a native of Portsmouth, O., and had served as superintendent of the Massillon hospital and later filled a similar position at the Columbus hospital. His remains will leave Washington today for Columbus, where interment will be made.

The state officials met at the governor's office yesterday to take action on the death of Messrs. McElroy and Goddard. Governor Nash appointed committees to draft suitable resolutions on the death of each official, state Treasurer L. B. Cameron being made a member of the committee on the Goddard resolutions.

VACATION FOR PAYNE

Leaves Friday With Mrs. Payne for Short Stay in the Catskills.

POSTAL INSPECTORS STILL BUSY

Investigation Premises to Last All Summer—Mr. Bristow's Fishing Trip May Be Indefinitely Postponed. Strange Find at Milwaukee.

Washington, June 29.—Postmaster General Payne was at the department but under the orders of his physician remained only a short time. Accompanied by Mrs. Payne he will leave here next Friday for the Catskills to be the guests of Roswell Miller, of New York, formerly president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Mr. Payne will remain over the fourth of July and expects to return to his desk early next week. He had no news to make public regarding the postal investigation. The inspectors are busy and the end is not in sight yet.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow said he could not approximate the date of the completion of the investigation. Mr. Bristow is going to Maine to spend part of his vacation fishing as soon as the investigation is over, but this may not be until late in the summer.

Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden has returned from Detroit. He was cloaked with Postmaster General Payne and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, with whom he discussed his recently published letter to the postmaster general calling for an investigation of the contract held by a manufacturing company of Franklin, Pa.

Mr. Madden explained his letter to the officials. It is understood that he expressed regret at having acted hastily and repudiated any intention of reflecting on officials of the department in connection with published criticisms of the contract. Mr. Madden had nothing to say for publication.

Groff Fasteners Found in Basement.

Milwaukee, June 29.—Evidence bearing upon the postal investigation has come to light in the Milwaukee post office. Stored away in one corner of the basement is a big pile of Groff fasteners that were sent to Milwaukee for some unknown reason, and without requisition, about 14 years ago. The fasteners, of which there are two and one-quarter tons, will probably never be used unless shipped to Washington. None have been used here since the day they were received. The fasteners came during the early years of the late Postmaster George W. Porth's term of office. There are 1,500 sets and the contract price was $1.25 a set. There is also stored in the basement a lot of galvanized iron mail boxes made in Michigan. They were received about two years ago, without requisition.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES

Made at Presbyterian Club Meeting
Yesterday.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, returned last evening from Steubenville, where he attended the meeting of the Ohio Valley Presbyterian club. The meeting was held yesterday at Stanton park, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning and 22 members of the organization were present. Dr. Irwin, of Steubenville, the president, presided, and Rev. J. M. Potter, of Brilliant, acted as secretary.

Chief interest was centered in the addresses of Dr. Reid and Mr. Huston, of Steubenville, both of whom had been delegates from the Steubenville presbytery to the general conference at Los Angeles. Dr. Reid talked about the work of the conference, a topic that was of great interest to the ministers. Mr. Huston, who is a noted geologist, entertained the assembly with a descriptive talk on the Grand Canon and Yosemite valley.

Davis Building Under Way.

Contractor James Robinson and a force of men have commenced work on the business building for Attorney J. E. Davis on Mulberry street. This lot is divided by Lake run and the building will stand directly over it. Provision is being made for a substantial wooden culvert to carry the water beneath. Attorney Davis will move his offices to the new building as soon as it is completed.

Base Ball Accident.

James Wilkes, of Chaffinville, a youthful ball tosser, is wearing his left arm in a sling, the result of a diamond accident which befell him yesterday afternoon. James was struck on the shoulder by a thrown ball and the member was thrown out of place. Suffering great pain he was taken to the office of Dr. Ferral, where the necessary medical attention was given him.

Big Ball Game Tomorrow.

The Sodaker and Hopkins base ball teams are to meet tomorrow afternoon on the diamond near the stat line and a battle royal is expected. The former team hopes to win back the laurels it lost when defeated by Jimmy Larkins' Second Street Stars, while the latter hope to win its first game of the season.

Another Italian Ill.

Dr. W. E. Mowen, who has been attending several Italians ill with typhoid fever at their camp near Industry, was called to that place by a telephone message this morning, announcing that another case had developed. Other patients there have about recovered.

A Bitter Legal Fight.

The damage suit of Livermore Le-moine Wilson against Oscar Miller promises to be the most bitter legal fight known in the East End for years. Numerous witnesses have been summoned and both parties will be represented by able lawyers. The case is now set for Thursday afternoon.

That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 206 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

FRIGHTFUL DEED OF INSANE MAN

Attacked Wife With Butcher Knife, Inflicting Fatal Injuries—Overpowered by Son.

Altoona, June 30.—A frightful tragedy occurred early Sunday morning at the home of Farmer John Claar, two miles from Baker's Summit, Bedford county.

Claar suddenly went stark mad while in bed, imagining that an army was approaching his home. Procuring a big butcher knife, he attacked his aged wife, stabbing her four times in the region of the heart and lungs, inflicting fatal injuries. She was in bed at the time.

Going downstairs after this bloody work, he found an ax and, searching out his son, Justin, who was still in bed, the old man attacked him. The son overpowered his father, after a struggle, and succeeded in taking the weapon away from the old man.

The son then escaped from the house and making his way to the nearest neighbors, roused them and enlisted their services to capture his father before he could harm others. The party returned cautiously to the house and finding no signs of life entered. Mrs. Claar was found in bed bleeding from her wounds, in a helpless condition, but still living. A search for Claar was made. The old man had gone into the woods back of the home, about a quarter of a mile, and there hanged himself with a bed cord to a walnut tree. His body was dead when cut down. His body was buried at Salemville.

Mrs. Claar, who is 72 years of age, cannot survive her wounds. Claar had been acting queer for a week past.

BOUGHT DRY GOODS BY SAMPLES

New York Merchant Given Decision by Court of Appeals—Goods Not as Represented.

New York, June 30.—After a long-contested law suit, brought against him by an English manufacturer of woolen goods, James Talcott, a dry goods commission merchant of this city, was given a decision which is of importance to all buyers and sellers of dry goods by samples.

The decision, which is by the court of appeals and which reverses that of the court below, will be considered a precedent in the trial of similar suits. By it Talcott is not compelled to pay $17,028 claimed by the foreign house for goods which he says were not up to sample.

"If a merchant purchased goods by sample and finds that they are not equal in quality to the sample, he need not return them to the seller in order to recover for breach of warranty." This is the substance of the opinion given by Judge Van, of the court of appeals. The adjudication of the point is welcomed by all big dry goods firms.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasms of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Record Broken by Lou Dillon.

Cleveland, June 30.—Lou Dillon broke all records for a mile to wagon for trotters, going the distance in 2:04 3/4. The race was at a matinee of the Gentlemen's Driving club at Glenville track. The horse was driven by her owner, C. K. G. Billings. The race was made with the encouragement of a runner, who went ahead about five lengths and maintained that position until the three-quarter pole was reached. The mare had been going like a veteran all the distance. At the three-quarter pole the runner was pulled to allow Lou Dillon to come up alongside. The stretch was entered into at great speed. The 1,500 spectators who had been timing the mare at the quarters had become excited, as the watches indicated that all records would be broken, and as the trotter passed the stand arose an immense cheer. The mile was made in 2:04 3/4, the horse finishing strong and seemingly ready to cover the distance a second time.

COMPETITOR OF BEEF TRUST

United States Packing Company to Build a Million Dollar Plant in Kansas City.

Kansas City, June 30.—Representatives of the United States Packing company, organized under the laws of Colorado in October, 1902, to compete with the beef trust, are here to consider the question of establishing a million dollar packing plant here. According to Charles P. Martin, secretary of the company, $1,750,000 has already been subscribed.

James H. Peabody, governor of Colorado, is president of the company, which sprang from agitation started at the convention of the National Live Stock association in Kansas City last January, when John W. Springer, president of the association, stated that if the packing companies merged an independent company would be organized.

John Dickey, general manager of the new concern, said:

"We have the concern on a firm basis. Much of the $1,750,000 is from small investors. Many of the wealthiest stockmen in the west and southwest are in the concern. I have just returned from the east, where we have interested many of the small retailers and also labor unions. One labor union in the east subscribed for $25,000 worth of stock. Thus we have with us the cattlemen, who produce the stock, and the retailers and consumers."

Clerks Trundle Trucks.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 30.—Promises of steady employment at good wages was not sufficient inducement for the railways to secure any great number of freight handlers. The demand of 25 per cent increase made by the strikers when they went out was refused by the roads. The freight and commercial agents and their clerks handled trucks all day and contributed to the relief of the blockade.

New Railway Station for Chicago.

Chicago, June 30.—The new railway passenger terminal, La Salle street station, at Van Buren and La Salle streets, this city, to be used by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway, and the Nickel Plate line will be opened July 12. All trains over the lines named arriving at Chicago after midnight, July 11, or departing from here after that time will use the new building.

Briggs Stays the Limit.

Boston, June 30.—Young Corbett, of Colorado, champion featherweight of the world, won the decision over Jimmy Briggs, of this city, in their 10-round bout at the Criterion club. Corbett was unable to put Briggs away, as the Boston boy met him at every turn and by clever blocking and foot work managed to stay the limit.

SUMMER OUTINGS.

Low Rates to Seashore, to the Lakes and to Other Attractive Resorts.

Vacation trips to attractive places for outings, including popular summer resorts, may be enjoyed at low fare by purchasing excursion tickets over the Pennsylvania Lines. A list of points which may be visited include the National Capital, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, the Seashore, Niagara Falls, summer havens on the Great Lakes and in North Michigan, in Colorado and in California, and cool retreats in the mountains.

Excursion fares to Boston will be in effect June 25, 26 and 27 for the Christian Scientist meeting, and July 1st to August 6th for the National Educational Association meeting. The trip may be made via Washington, with stopovers at the National Capital, at Baltimore, and at New York, returning via Niagara Falls.

The annual seashore excursion over the Pennsylvania Lines will be run August 6th to that date excursion tickets to Atlantic City, Cape May, Annapolis, Avalon, Holly Beach, Ocean City, Sea Isle City and Wildwood, N. J., Ocean City, Maryland, Rehoboth, Delaware, will be sold at very low fares from principal stations on the Pennsylvania Lines.

The annual excursion to Niagara Falls over the Pennsylvania Lines will take place August 27. The fare will be especially low, and the return limit will be sufficient for enjoyable side trips to resorts in Canada.

Tickets to Chautauque Lake, to Lakeside and Put-in-Bay, to Peasey, to Mackinac Island, to Traverse City, and the shores of cool retreats in North Michigan, to Pelee's Lake and the Dells of Wisconsin, and to the attractive resorts of the Northwest and West, may be obtained at special ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Lines, every day during the summer.

On July 6th to 8th, inclusive, special low fares to Denver will be in effect for the Christian Endeavor meeting. On July 15th and 16th, tickets to Detroit will be sold at low fares for the Epworth League meeting. On July 21st to August 13th, fares to San Francisco will be very low on account of the G. A. R. National Encampment, and on September 18th, 19th and 20th a trip to Baltimore may be made at low fare, tickets on sale those dates, account the I. O. O. F. meeting.

In fact, opportunities are offered at all times to visit the most interesting places in all parts of the country, and to enjoy the summer season at low rates. Street corner loading is no longer tolerated by Steubenville police.

C. & P. officers have so far failed to locate the Italians who shot Brakeman Frank Stephens at Empire.

The Robertson family at Hammondsville, in which there are two cases of smallpox, consists of 13 members.

Russell Adams was fatally shot at Dillonvale by Harry Theophilus, his roommate, being mistaken for a burglar.

Thomas Caldwell, of Bridgeport, has been arrested for the murder of Victor Dean, who was found dying under the railroad bridge in that town.

One of the Italian laborers employed by Contractor Cushing was run over and killed by a freight train Saturday night about three miles east of Sandusville.

Alexander Dunn, of Wells township, has stopped the C. & P. from building a switch from the main track to the Glenn Run Coal works in the lower end of Jefferson county, by an injunction.

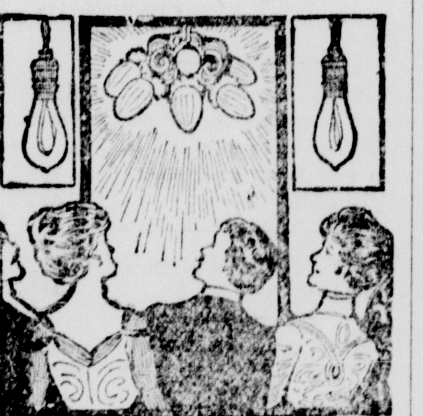

William Pifer, aged 10 years, died at Akron of lockjaw. Ten days ago the boy was celebrating with a toy pistol and injured his hand. The wound appeared to heal, but lockjaw set in several days ago.

Harry W. Blankensop, proprietor of the Wellsburg foundry, is dead, aged 32 years. Thirteen weeks ago his foot was badly burned and blood poisoning developed, causing death. He is survived by his wife and daughter.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Hamard, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

The Fourth of July meeting of the Rhode Island branch of the Society of the Cincinnati, composed of the descendants of officers of the Revolutionary army, will consider, among other things, the report of a committee appointed two years ago, to find a suitable tune for the words of the national anthem, "America." As almost everybody knows, "America" is sung to the tune "God Save the King," which has been the English national air for almost 200 years. The Rhode Island patriotic society evidently believes America is big and old enough to produce a tune of her own and no longer use a borrowed one. But unless it can select from the 500 or more compositions at its disposal something that will catch the popular ear, its efforts will be wasted. A national anthem altogether new would be far more likely to spring into popular favor.

The toy pistol began its deadly work much earlier than usual this year, and several small boys in different parts of the country have fallen as its victims. The toy pistol is an instrument whose manufacture, sale and use should be sternly prohibited. The law is supposed to keep ordinary revolvers, guns and pistols out of the hands of children. What criminal folly then to place in a boy's hands a weapon which experience has proven to be quite as deadly as other firearms, simply because it is mislabeled a toy! Parents might as well give their children real pistols to play with; then, if they shoot themselves, they will leave the world by a quicker and easier route than the lad seized with lockjaw can possibly find.

The suggestion is offered by a citizen that it would be well for some of the police officers to make their nightly rounds in plain clothing. By such a course he believes it would be much easier for them to track suspicious characters and to place their hands on those who attempt holdups and highway robbery. The suggestion is worthy of serious consideration of Chief Wyman and the board of public safety.

The board of public service has taken a sound position in assuming that the city streets belong to the city. It is an outrage not to be tolerated to allow any person or company to tear up the paving and replace it in a slipshod manner. The board has adopted an excellent rule and shows a disposition to enforce it to the letter.

Our cherry picking contemporary picks up a story in the News Review and because it had been "scooped," as happens every day, attempts to pick flaws in it. When its "correction," padded out to half a column, has been closely scrutinized, the reader will discover that the statements tally exactly with those printed in this paper.

It is to be hoped that after the public service board has given its attention to the weightier problems confronting it, it will find time to give the matter of dilapidated, dirt-covered and dangerous sidewalks consideration. Sidewalks answering any and all these descriptions can be found without any extended search.

Mr. Jackson, the American minister at Belgrade, has not been withdrawn. He still remains at his post, but as he has received no instructions from our state department, he has not

Death of an Infant.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin died this morning at the family home, 206 Thompson avenue. The body will be taken to Hanoverport tomorrow morning for interment.

As to Naturalization.

To the Editor of the News Review: If a child is born of direct English parents in America, to what nationality does he or she belong?

F. L. P.

East Liverpool, June 30.

The child's nationality is that of the parents. If they are merely here on a visit, or as temporary residents, the child is English. However, if the father should remain here and be naturalized the child would not need to take out naturalization papers to become an American citizen. The law says: "The children of persons who have been duly naturalized, being under 21 years of age at the time of the naturalization of the parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof."

HOW BEST TO REACH THOSE WHO PURCHASE

The Evening Newspaper is the Guide of the Shopper Everywhere.

To substantiate the contention that the daily newspaper is a more valuable and effective medium than the magazine, and that of daily newspapers the evening edition is the superior, these quotations from advertisers of experience and judgment are submitted:

"You ask me which I consider the more valuable as an advertising medium—the evening paper or the morning paper. I will say that a great deal depends on whether the advertiser is catering to the popular trade or what is generally designated as 'the classes.' If the advertiser's trade is with the wealthier class, then I should say that the morning paper is quite as good as the evening paper. On the other hand, if the advertiser desires to secure the trade of the laborer, the mechanic, the clerk, etc.—who has hardly time to read even the most important news on his way to work in the morning, to say nothing of reading advertisements and who seldom finds time to do any more reading of that nature until he returns home in the evening—I should most emphatically declare the evening paper to be the better advertising medium."

"In the evening the mechanic or clerk has ample time, as a rule, to read his evening paper, and to discuss with his wife the interesting news, attractive offers, or advertisements he may find in its columns, and to come to a definite conclusion as to just where to buy. The experience of a great many years confirms this belief, and in our own business we are now confining ourselves to the use of the evening papers, with most gratifying results. I am prepared to make the unqualified statement that any business house doing business on a strictly cash basis, and catering to the popular trade, should confine its advertising to the evening papers, wherever it can do so."

"The busy housewife has no time to con over the advertisements in the morning paper. If she has, she cannot arrange her household in a moment so that she can go down town to take advantage of the bargains offered. When she reads of bargains in the evening paper, however, she makes preparations to start early next morning; and a large percentage of those early morning shoppers who struggle for the first places at the bargain counter are the readers of the evening paper, and not, as might be supposed, the readers of the morning paper."

"There is no doubt that the evening daily is the daily for the advertiser. It comes into the home after the merchant's work is done, and he can sit down and study it—and his competitor's ads—to his utmost satisfaction. The good wife has time to look over its columns, and the same order of things holds good in the home of the mechanic and laborer. The morning daily is laid to one side by the busy merchant, at his store, and the busier housewife at her home. The laborer or mechanic has no time to read it before he goes to work, and is not allowed to read during working hours. You can always depend upon it that the evening daily has the larger circulation for these very reasons, and is, therefore, the better medium."

a night session of court last evening received their sentences, the first named getting 5 years and the last named 10 years at hard labor in the penitentiary. Frank Easton, the father, stood trial on one charge, the more serious charge being ignored in both cases and was convicted, the jury returning a verdict of guilty after being out about 25 minutes. George Easton, an elder brother of the two girls, pleaded guilty to two indictments. Life imprisonment would have been the penalty had they been convicted of the other offense.

WELLSVILLE

A LONG PARADE

Wellsville Has a Fourth of July Program That Will Please And Delight.

At a largely attended meeting in the council chamber last night the finishing touches were put on the Fourth of July program.

There will be five bands and two drum corps in the street parade, which Mayor Fogo states will be over one mile in length.

Three hundred red, white and blue suits have been loaned to that many boys, who will form a division of the parade themselves. J. H. Pease being the captain. The girls' division will be in floats and wagons and national airs will be rendered by them at stated intervals.

Several shots from a monster cannon will be fired from the river bank, commencing at daybreak and continuing until the parade starts.

The various committees have everything in good shape and the celebration will be the biggest event in the history of the old town.

MASKED MEN
STOPPED COOPER

An Exciting Experience on the Lisbon Road Near Wellsville.

Harry Cooper, superintendent of an extensive brick and tile works at Coleman, near Lisbon, had a hair-raising experience two miles from here on the Lisbon road Sunday night. He was driving alone in a buggy and when a particularly dark and lonesome spot was reached along the wooded road two men sprang from the shadows and approached the vehicle. They were masked, and peering closely into the face of Mr. Cooper remarked that he "was not the man" they were looking for.

Mr. Cooper was very thankful that he was not the man wanted and was glad to be permitted to proceed without further molestation.

GAS COMPANY CHARTER
WILL BE REVOKED

An Ordinance to Be Passed By Wellsville Council at a Meeting Tonight.

The city council will meet tonight to pass the ordinance, prepared by City Solicitor Charles Boyd, for the immediate revocation of the franchise of the Tri-State Gas company. The feeling is still bitter here and the measure will be passed without a dissenting voice.

The city bills for June and the salary list will be certified up to City Auditor McGregor in order that he make payment before the Fourth.

CARRIER RESIGNS

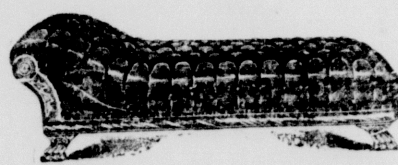

Edward Bunting Weary of Driving 27 Miles a Day on Rural Route.

Edward Bunting, carrier of free rural delivery route No. 1 and the only one from the Wellsville postoffice, has resigned and he is anxiously awaiting acceptance.

The route covered every day is about 27 miles, and Carrier Bunting finds the work a little too arduous for the compensation received. The roads are rough and hilly and the route to be traversed is entirely too lengthy. It is thought that the government will have difficulty in securing a successor.

to Mr. Bunting, and the chances are good for a discontinuance of the service.

Apropos of this it might be in place to state that Wellsville is anxiously awaiting the advent of free delivery. The receipts of the postoffice entitle the city to that service and an inspector is expected here this week to investigate and report on the matter.

Fighters Were Fined.

Mayor Fogo held a session of court last night and imposed heavy fines on Stephen Timmons and Clyde Cress for fighting at Third and Broadway Sunday afternoon. Ed Hainshaw and Charles Weaver fought Saturday night in the West End and they too were fined. Charles Regar and Leo Ki drew a similar prize for the same offense. Sam Brown parted with $5 for being drunk and $7 additional for fighting and resisting Chief Houser.

Is There an American Face?

The English face, the Jewish face, the Irish face, the Italian face, the Chinese face, the Japanese face, the French face, the Indian face, even the negro face—all these have something about them which calls up a definite picture in one's mind. But the American face has no strong characteristic to differentiate it from other faces of superior races, remarks London Health. It is international, for here and there one may find the traces which suggest a relation to this, that or the other face. It may be a line or a ligament, suggested by an early English ancestry, or something suggestive of Teutonic origin, or a sharp suggestion of the Frenchman's face or the Irishman's, or the Italian's or the Scotchman's. But when one must deal with the American abstractly one can scarcely call up the American face.

Uncle Sam, with his striped trousers, his sharply cut coat, his plumed hat, his whiskers and his bland, good natured countenance, is a happy conception, yet he may never hope to portray the matchless and indescribable cosmopolitanism of the American face.

Both to Blame.

an insurance firm, was present and submitted a proposition to carry the license required to be taken out by the board at a very reasonable figure. He showed whereby the board would save money by accepting the proposition, and the members looked upon it with favor. They, however, decided to defer action until the next meeting which will be held on Monday evening, two members of the board having business of importance to attend to on next Friday evening.

Burford Bros. submitted a communication asking that some provision be made that will result in their being able to reach a certain piece of property owned by them in the West End. They stated that the West End property covers a part of the public street leading to it and from all sides they are barred from access to it by some interference on the part of people who, they allege, have no right to block the way.

The matter was referred to council, which body will be required to find why the public streets are occupied. Samuel and John Cartwright were present and asked that they be given some consideration in regard to the water service in the vicinity of their pottery. They stated that the insurance companies had threatened to raise the rates on them if they don't provide better facilities, and as they only have a four-inch pipe now they want at least a six-inch main. They agreed to furnish the money for laying it if the board will allow them to eliminate their water rent until the bill is paid. They want the new pipe to be laid from Market street to Jackson street on Second street. The request was referred to Supt. Morley.

SOUTH SIDE

LOSING HIS LIFE

A HOOKSTOWN MAN BADLY HURT ON THE STREET.

Thrown From a Wagon to the Street Car Track and Picked Up Unconscious.

John Ben Swaney, who resides on a farm near Hookstown, was the victim of a peculiar accident last evening, and one that came near costing him his life. Swaney had been to East Liverpool, and after spending some time in Chester, started for his home about 4 o'clock.

The team driven by Swaney was a quiet one and not very fast. It was hitched to a road wagon of the ordinary make, and with what the local people considered a fairly good load. He went out Virginia avenue to Third street, and turning into that thoroughfare proceeded to Carolina, in making the turn into the latter street it was necessary to cross the double tracks of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs railway.

A large force of men are at work at that particular corner, making preparations to pave the street. The space on either side of the tracks had been excavated to the depth of at least a foot, and it is extremely difficult for the passage of vehicles. In some manner Swaney got the wagon mixed up in the tracks and a disastrous accident occurred. The front wheels of the vehicle in passing over the rails caused the rear end of the wagon to pitch sideways. The rapidity with which the wagon turned, caused Swaney to pitch forward, and he alighted on his head and shoulder far out over the second track. His head barely missed the steel rail, and he lay where he had fallen until assistance arrived.

A street car in charge of Motorman William Watson and Conductor Seth Ranch was approaching from the east and the men witnessed the accident. They stopped the car at the street corner, and lifting the apparently lifeless form of Swaney in their arms placed it on the car and he was removed to the office of Dr. George E. Lewis. The latter gentleman was out, and Swaney, still unconscious, was taken to East Liverpool. A physician succeeded in reviving the injured man and his wounds were dressed. His head was badly cut and bruised, and his shoulder sustained a bad sprain.

When his wounds had been sewed up and bandages adjusted on the injured arm and shoulder he was taken back to Chester where his team had been cared for by residents of the vicinity, and accompanied by Joseph Fleming he was taken to his home near Hookstown. The injuries sustained by Swaney made him deathly sick, and though no word could be obtained from him this morning, the physicians say he will be ill for several days, and

Choice Residence Property

PRESBYTERIAN DAY

At Rock Springs Park and Fully 1,500 Visitors Attend the Picnic.

This is "Presbyterian day" at Rock Springs park, and there are in the neighborhood of 1,500 members of that denomination in attendance at the picnic being held there today. The excursion arrived from Wheeling early this morning, and the large crowd is enjoying the day in a most satisfactory manner.

The arrangements for the outing had been placed in the hands of an executive committee in which every church in the Wheeling district was represented, and the details were perfect. The churches were designated by different colored ribbons as follows: First church, blue; Second church, green; Third church, stars and stripes; Vance Memorial, red; Moundsville, red, white and blue; Elm Grove, yellow; Island Sunday school, pink; Park View, white; Beech Glen, purple.

Two baseball games were played during the day. The first game took place at 10:20 and was between the Sunday school of the Vance Memorial and the Third church. The game was won by the latter team by a score of 9 to 3. The second game started at 2 o'clock and the First church and the Second church Sunday school scholars took part.

Few of the picnickers visited East Liverpool during the day, and it could be seen that the crowds were being thoroughly entertained at the park. The excursion trains leave the Chester station at 6:35.

GREAT HOLES IN STREET

Which the Town Authorities Have at Last Barricaded to Make Safe.

The Chester authorities have taken the useless precaution to barricade the two great holes in the street at First street and Virginia avenue, and it is presumed they will be watched closely for a few days at least. The cavity into which Mrs. Amanda Hunter fell yesterday is a very dangerous spot, and should never have been left open as long as it was.

The wonder is that some serious accident had not happened long ago, for the holes were left without a particle of protection. Now that something has happened it is very much resembles "looking the door after the horse has been stolen." Several months ago a horse fell into one of the cavities, and had a miraculous escape from death. It is probable Mrs. Hunter will ask damages, and the best informed legal authorities agree that she can recover. Residents of the vicinity are at a loss to know why steps have not been taken to build the sewer and fix the streets so they will be passable.

Theatre Improvements.

The work of constructing the double doors at the entrance of the summer theatre was completed today, and the improvement will be a very great convenience to the ticket taker. The building is now nearly ready for the painters, and will be further beautified by painting in an artistic manner. Stage Manager Joe Bradley is completing the frames for a new stage setting, and the scenery will be ready for use some time this week. The scene is a palace setting, and is the finest that ever graced a stage in this section of the state.

Clay Shops Now Idle.

The clay shops of the Edwin M. Knowles pottery closed down yesterday for the midsummer loaf. The employees of this department were informed when the loaf was announced that they would be expected to report for duty in two weeks. A large majority of the employees of the plant reside in Chester, and nearly all of them are members of the various lodges, and declare they will vote against the convention demands.

CHESTER NOTES.

Mrs. Blanche Craft, of Wheeling, was the guest of Chester friends today.

Al McDonald was down at the home farm yesterday. He reports the crops doing well, and the garden truck in excellent shape.

Miss Addie McCutcheon and Miss Mary Boner, both of Wheeling, are calling on Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McCutcheon, of Virginia avenue.

Misses Tena and Edith Harberger, of Wheeling, are guests at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bloom, on First street. They will remain several weeks.

Mrs. George Buxton and her daughters, Misses Lottie and Cora, returned home to Leetonia today after spending a few days with Mrs. Russell and several other friends in Chester.

Misses Mary and Lillian Lewis, of Wheeling, Miss Ethel Clark, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Emma Spear and son, Paul, are the guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Lewis today.

VISITING ELKS
JOLLY FELLOWS

They Arrived from New Castle This Morning Determined to Obliterate the Locals.

The New Castle Elks are here. They came at 10 o'clock this morning and they had not been in the city more than 10 minutes until every one, even on the hilltops, knew of their presence. All stately, fine looking fellows, they are. They were met at the depot by a reception committee of the local lodge and every courtesy was extended to them. But the noise they make—actually they are just like so many school boys home from college on a vacation. This afternoon when they go up against Joe Herbert and the remaining stars of the local team they will surely wish that the train had left New Castle before they reached it.

The parade given this afternoon before the game was an imposing affair and was watched with unusual interest. It was headed by a band and a fourth of July pageant could not have shown up any better. The gaiety which characterizes the best people on earth was in evidence all along the line of march and every spectator felt so jolly and worked up that they determined then and there to follow the band wagon and march to West End park. If the game is not the best ever witnessed in this city it will not be one facet of the members of the teams. They have practiced until every inch and muscle would make Corbett look like Dave Orr. In fact, they all look like an Andy Roe, Chick Gilbert or a Louis Steinfield. The locals in their new uniforms were so proud while they treaded up and down through the streets this afternoon that the ostrich would have been compelled to fly away back had he dropped among them.

Courage is what they need, though, and new dresses won't hurt them along that line. The New Castle bunch expect to win by cowing the umpire. If they only knew who that gentleman is to be their minds would change a few. He is about as big as you make them and never took a dare in his life.

LEADERS BATTLED FOR FIRST PLACE

Crooklyn City Takes Second as the Result of a One-Sided Game With Athletics.

The two leading teams in the local league met for the first time at West End park yesterday afternoon and as a result the Athletics took first place in the race. The poor showing of the Crooklyn City team was a surprise to all, the Athletics having easy sailing from the very start. Davidson and Bridge, the Crooklyn City twirlers, were hit hard. The batting of Tyson and McAvoy was the feature. The score:

WHY WE ARE AGENTS

Here Are Some of the Convincing Facts That Caused us to Take the Agency for the Fulton Compound, the First Things Known that Cure Chronic Kidney Diseases.

First, let it be distinctly understood that every one of the cases below had been diagnosed by one or more physicians as chronic and incurable; second, note the certainty of the results as shown by the recovery also of the friends they told who were similarly afflicted with supposed incurable kidney diseases.
N. W. Spaulding, President Spaulding Saw Co., San Francisco, had a recovery in his own family and told several others who recovered.
Adolph Weske, capitalist, San Francisco, recovered himself and told two friends who recovered.
Er. Carl D. Ziele, pioneer druggist, 522 Pacific street, San Francisco, recovered himself and gave it to more than a dozen patients who recovered.
Charles Engelke, editor of the German paper, San Francisco, recovered himself and told it to a number who recovered, one of them being Charles F. Wacker, the Sixth street merchant.
E. M. Wood, editor Wine and Spirit Review, recovered himself and told it to several who recovered, among them being an old school physician.
Edward Short of the San Francisco Call recovered, also three of his friends, viz: William Martin, Captain Hubbard of the Honolulu route and William Watkins of the U. S. Quarter-master's Department of San Francisco.
John A. Phelps of the Hotel Repeller, San Francisco, and two of his friends, etc.
The kidneys are the sewers that strain the poisons out of the system. We can stand the strain for a short while, but when the interference becomes chronic (permanent), as first explained by Bright, it is only a question of how long before death will ensue. It is then called Bright's Disease and is incurable. All kidney troubles develop into this form about the 8th to 10th month. The above cases were incurable by all other known means. People having kidney disease should begin at first with the only known thing that will cure it if it has reached the serious stage. Suffered Terribly—Doctors Failed.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Cured Him.

Weak, nervous, fretful, puny children require a treatment such as only Dr. Miles' Nervine affords. When neglected these symptoms lead to epileptic fits or spasms. Every mother should strengthen her own and baby's nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine, a true specific in all nervous disorders. Read the following:
"When my little boy was 18 months old he had cramps in his feet and hands. They would be drawn out of shape for two or three days. At first I thought it was a cold, but in about two weeks nothing did any good the doctor gave him. We called another doctor but his medicine did no good so we changed to another who called it spinal disease. By this time the child's body was drawn out of shape; his backbone was curved to one side and his hands and feet out of shape. His sufferings were terrible, and he was having from two to six fits a day. I was taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for nervous trouble and saw it was recommended for fits, so I thought I would see if it would help him. All three doctors had given him up. One-half bottle stopped the fits and his limbs straightened, and another bottle cured him. He is now a strong, healthy boy going to school. I have waited to see if the old trouble returned, before writing you, but it never has. I cannot praise Dr. Miles' Nervine enough, as I know it saved my boy's life."—MRS. URIAH NELSON, Lansing, Iowa.

gave the Rochester team on the latter's grounds a hard battle, losing by a score of 4 to 3. A team that can come that close to winning from Rochester on Rochester grounds must, as a rule, be a pretty strong aggregation. The lineup of the local team will be possibly stronger during the four games than at any time during the season. All of the players are in excellent trim and will not be lacking.

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering. BIGAMY IS CHARGED

Lieutenant McCue Deserts Bride of Two Weeks and Whereabouts Unknown.

Ida Westcott, of Cincinnati, Claims to Be His Wife—Were Married at Fort Thomas—Mrs. McCue Will Be Sent Back to San Francisco.

Chicago, June 30.—Lieutenant William K. McCue, of the United States army, is confronted with a charge of bigamy. Several days ago he arrived at a Chicago hotel with a bride of two weeks. The bride was Miss Viola Simon, of San Francisco, who was nearly prostrated when she heard that another woman claimed to be the lieutenant's wife.

McCue had left the hotel, and the bride, believing that she had been deserted, made arrangements to return to her parents in San Francisco.

A few minutes before midnight McCue returned, stating that he had spent the day at Fort Sheridan. The bride in the meantime had left the hotel and up to a late hour McCue had not been able to find her. He positively denied the charge of bigamy.

About the time the lieutenant was bidding his bride goodbye and telling her that he would soon return, a woman in Cincinnati, who says she is his wife, informed the chief of police that he had contracted a bigamous marriage. She said her wedding took place while McCue was an enlisted soldier stationed at Fort Thomas.

The exposure was brought on when Lieutenant McCue asked his new father-in-law to send cards announcing the wedding to the woman in Cincinnati, who now claims to be his wife. She has been living there under the name of Ida Westcott, and had corresponded regularly with McCue until 1900.

McCue and his bride arrived here nine days ago. Mrs. McCue said that he told her they were going to Fort Porter, New York, where his regiment had been assigned to duty.

Mrs. McCue said: "When my husband left he said he was going to get his pay and transportation at army headquarters. I waited until noon and then went to see General Bates. My husband had not been there and then I feared the worst."

The deserted bride's father is Sigmund L. Simon, who has been cashier and bookkeeper in the sheriff's office in San Francisco for 25 years. Mr. Simon communicated with Chief of Police O'Neill through the San Francisco chief of police and arrangements are being made to send Mrs. McCue back to San Francisco.

After his return to the hotel Lieutenant McCue was told the exact nature of the charges against him. He made the following statement:

"I never was married to Ida Westcott, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. My courtship with Mrs. McCue was not a hasty one. I met her in San Francisco before I went to the Philippines. I have a 10-days' extension of leave from Washington, which does not expire until July 1.

Cincinnati, June 30.—Mrs. Ida W. McCue, wife of Lieutenant W. K. McCue, First infantry, laid before the chief of police the fact that she had received cards announcing the marriage of her husband, June 12, to a Miss Simon, of San Francisco. She says she cannot account for this action except on the theory that he has become insane through illness. She and McCue were married here while McCue was an enlisted man stationed at Fort Thomas. Mrs. McCue and her father, Leonard Westcott, requested Chief of Police Milliken to communicate with the war department at

Labor Unions Benefit Men

By C. T. YERKES, International Street Railway Magnate

AMERICAN labor unions have a tendency to raise the mental standard of the men. THEY TRAIN A MAN'S INTELLIGENCE. THE MAN WHO IS MOST FIT GETS AHEAD. I believe in the survival of the fittest. What is in a man will come out if he has a chance.

THE BRAINIEST MECHANICS, THE MEN WHO THINK AND HAVE A CHANCE TO SHOW THE RESULTS OF THEIR THINKING, ARE THE MEN WHO MAKE THE BEST CAPITALISTS.

I believe every mechanic should have a chance to train himself to be a capitalist. By this I mean that he should have the opportunity to train his mind so that he could, so far as his mental equipment is concerned, be in a position to guide and direct as well as execute the orders of others. I tell you THERE IS NOTHING SO GRAND IN THE WORLD AS AN INTELLIGENT MECHANIC. He is of use in the world.

I believe in labor unions. I do not believe in trusts as they are today understood. Labor unions have the same right to organize that capital has. The interests of the one are in a parallel degree the interests of the other.

In the United States today we have some splendid labor unions, managed in a way to challenge admiration, and we have some of the worst. But the tendency has been forward.

The day will come when American labor unions will have reached such a point of excellence in organization, under competent management, with logical minds at the head, that capital will have to recognize them. Arbitration will then be the rule to settle differences. Strikes will be known only in history.

But the battle for labor is not yet won. IT WILL NOT BE UNTIL ALL OF THE UNIONS HAVE RID THEMSELVES OF THE MINORITY OF RANTERS WHO NOW RULE SOME OF THEM. These men are good talkers; they are eloquent on the platform, yet if you sift all they say you will not find a single practical idea. Yet in some of the labor unions in this country today these men, even now in the minority, rule the others.

LABOR UNIONS, TO SUCCEED, MUST BE LOGICAL.

I did so and used a bottle and have used several bottles since. I have given my great relief, and I would not be without a bottle at hand, as I think it a very valuable preparation for the stomach, and have no objection to your using my name as an endorsement of this, what I regard a great remedy for stomach trouble. I had tried many doctors and about every remedy that was prescribed by friends, and must say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done me more good than all I have ever tried."

ELEVATOR ACCIDENT

Score of Passengers Badly Injured in Sudden Fall of Fifty Feet.

TWO OF THE VICTIMS MAY DIE

Visitors to Heinz Pickle Factory Dashed Through Five Floors—Cage Was Overcrowded—Broken Shaft Cause of Casualty.

Pittsburg, June 30.—With a wild downward plunge of 50 feet an elevator, overcrowded with human freight, fell in the factory of the H. J. Heinz company, in Main street, Allegheny, and 23 persons were maimed. It is thought that at least two of the victims will die and the condition of all the injured is serious. With the exception of the operator all the passengers were visitors inspecting the plant. A broken shaft caused the accident.

Names of the Injured.
John Churney, Troy Hill, Allegheny; both legs fractured below the knees; not expected to recover.
Mrs. Edward Holman, Mt. Hope, N. J.; suffered concussion of the spine; not expected to recover.
Joseph Weber, elevator man in factory, Allegheny; condition dangerous.

O. R. Thompson, clerk in factory; right leg crushed.
Miss Imogene Rodman, Paris, Ky.; ankles sprained and spine injured.
Andrew Bolak, Allegheny; ankles sprained.
Mrs. H. A. Morrison, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

Mrs. A. Lutha, Allegheny, ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.
William Konkana, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of the spine.

C. Howak, Cleveland; ankle sprained and suffered concussion of spine.
Mrs. A. Votraska, Cleveland; cut and bruised by flying glass.

Charles Spurney, Cleveland; ankles sprained and body bruised.
John Lotabar, Cleveland, suffered concussion of the spine.

Mrs. George Sherlock, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.

Mrs. William Mitchell, Paris, Ky.; serious compound fracture of leg.

Mrs. Victor Bailey, Hazelwood; left leg fractured.
John Brotsky, No. 1645 Penn avenue; ankles sprained.

Steven Jasso, Cleveland; ankle sprained.
Mrs. Minnie Spring, Glenshaw; ankle sprained.

Mrs. E. W. Thornton, Hazelwood; compound fracture of left leg.
The injuries of the victims, almost without exception, are serious. In cases where the passengers suffered fractured limbs, the terrible concussion caused by the impact of the heavy cage on the hard floor of the basement, caused the bones to protrude through the flesh and in several instances amputation will probably be necessary to save the patients' lives.

Elevator Said to Be Overcrowded.
The freight elevator used by the Heinz company in transporting passengers carries about twice the burden of the ordinary passenger cage. There were no air cushions at the bottom and the big wooden platform fell to the basement like a plummet, scattering the passengers upon the hard floor, where at a instant after they fell a rain of broken glass showered upon them, lacerating their faces and hands and adding to the horror of the disaster.

Officers of the company stated that the accident would not have occurred except for the antics of intoxicated visitors who jumped up and down, loosening the machinery and consequently breaking the shaft of the drum which controls the main ropes. The victims deny this and declare that all the passengers were sober and behaved in the most quiet fashion.

Balance Weight Was Caught.
A large party of visitors were being shown through the plant and were about to descend from the fifth floor to the preserving department beneath. The elevator was in charge of Joseph Weber. When 22 passengers had crowded on the platform the machine began its descent. Suddenly it shot downward, the passengers swaying to and fro as they passed the safety gates. With a crash they landed in the basement and sank groaning on the floor.

A 700-pound balance weight shot up through the timbers at the top of the elevator and buried itself in a two-inch plank in the side of the shaft. The wild noise of the weight caused a window to explode and a shower of glass added the terror of the mangled sufferers who crawled from the pit beneath.

The hospital ambulances and patrol wagons were kept traveling from the plant to the hospitals for more than an hour after the accident occurred.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." This man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 215 Third Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles (considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. I had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A majority of the injured are now being cared for at the Allegheny General and West Penn hospitals.

To Call Meeting of Operators.
Huntington, W. Va., June 30.—One representative from each coal field in the state was here to discuss the advisability of calling a meeting of all the coal operators in the state in this city at an early date. The meeting will be held early in July. The recent advance in freight rates on all railroads in the state is the chief subject to be discussed by the operators at this session.

Receiver for Oil Company.
Lima, O., June 30.—Harry H. Adams was appointed receiver for the Star Petroleum company. Frank H. Blackman, a Detroit stockholder, made the application for a receiver. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and its property is said to be heavily encumbered.

Baseball Managers to Meet.
New York, June 30.—At a meeting between Harry Pulliam, president of the national league, and P. Powers, president of the national association of minor leagues, it was decided to call a meeting to be held at the Hotel Victoria on July 23 for the long postponed discussion of the national agreement. A letter was sent to Ban Johnson, president of the American league, requesting his presence at the meeting. Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, has asked an investigation in the Bowerman-Clarke trouble. Clarke, who is manager of the Pittsburgh team, was struck by Bowerman in the office of the New York baseball club on Friday.

Drowned Trying to Rescue Wife.
Leeds, Mo., June 30.—Mrs. Nora Winfrey, aged 19 years, committed suicide by jumping from the bridge into the Blue river. Her husband, George Winfrey, aged 21 years, drowned while trying to rescue her. It is said Mrs. Winfrey was despondent because of a quarrel.

Creosote Works Destroyed.
West Pascagoula, June 30.—Fire totally destroyed the creosote works, entailing a loss of $200,000. The works are said to be the largest in the south. The fire was caused by a piece of hot iron falling on the creosote. An explosion followed. No one was injured.

The Great Auto Race

Men Who Will Represent America in the International Contest For the Bennett Cup

Eight years old. He drifted from the insurance business into automobilizing. He is known in club land as a popular member of the New York Athletic club and the Automobile Club of America.

Owen is a nervous and skillful and will pass his machine as fast as the most daring. Unless some accident occurs he should be well up with the first bunch in the dash over the roads of Ireland.

Owen has been racing automobiles for three years and is the possessor of many trophies won at the Providence, Cleveland and other meets. The proudest feathers in his racing cap, however, are the American mile straightaway record of 1:17.35 for gasoline vehicles from 1,000 to 2,000 pounds and also the kilometer record of 0:47 for the same class. Both were scored on Staten Island May 31, 1922.

Most of the track records and victories of the famous Winton "pup" were made under his guiding hand.

Louis P. Moers is the daredevil of the American trio. He is a full blooded Yankee and first saw the light in Massachusetts thirty years ago. He is fearless to recklessness and is in his element when aboard a racing automobile.

He looks the part, too, with his freckled face and sandy hair and determined visage, a typical Yankee fighter who will never give up so long as his machine is on wheels and has power enough to keep it on the jump.

And this same pugna face bears more than one scar, reminders of little mishaps that have befallen him while pushing his automobile along at its utmost speed. Moers, like Winton, was originally a bicycle builder. At one time he was superintendent of a factory.

It takes a superabundance of nerve to be a driver of an automobile racer.

Fighting for the coveted trophy of automobilizing on the European teams will be such noted chauffeurs as Henry Fournier, winner of the Paris-Madrid race and holder of the American mile record of 0:51.45; Rene de Kuyff, victor in the Paris-Bordeaux contest of 1920 and leader the first day in the Paris-Vienna test of last year; S. F. Edge, who captured this same James Gordon Bennett cup for England last year; Charles Jarrott, achiever of a straightaway mile in 0:46; and Baron de Katon and Herr de Grass, champion drivers of ponderous German speed cars.

Alexander Winton was the first of the American chauffeurs to volunteer to build and drive a machine in the race and so made possible an American team. Accordingly he was chosen by the contest committee as the nucleus of the team. The selection of Moers and Owen as the two other members followed the recent speed tests on Long Island.

Winton is the designer of the racers to be driven by Owen and himself. A small, wiry, nervous man of forty-three is this champion of American racers. Born in Scotland, he came to this country twenty years ago. His mechanical cleverness soon placed him in charge of a marine engine shop in New York city. Later he took up his residence in Cleveland and became prominent as a manufacturer of bicycles.

In 1895 he designed and built a vertical gas motor for automobiles.

In 1900 he represented the Automobile Club of America in the Gordon Bennett cup race, which that year was run from Paris to Bordeaux. After 125 miles of racing he ripped a tire off in rounding a corner, but continued for twenty-five miles farther on the run before stopping. At one point in the race Charron, who was second, led him by an hour, but was forced to lay up two hours for repairs. This would have made Winton second had his wheel been intact and permitted his going farther.

Winton is the holder of the world's mile track record of 1:02.4, made at Cleveland Sept. 15, 1902, and of all track records up to ten miles in 10:50 that were scored the same day. In a straightaway trial on the Ormond (Fla.) beach in March, 1903, he drove the Winton Bullet a mile in 0:52.15—the fastest mile ever made by an American automobile. The same day he scored 10:26.15 for ten miles, including a complete turn.

Percy Owen is the Avon of the team. He has blue eyes, blond hair and a well set up figure of medium height. His conversation is witty, and his style is altogether typical of the up to date young man. Owen is a native of Oswego, N. Y., and he is twenty Broken limbs, bruised bodies and even death have previously marked the course of these great international contests. A mile a minute pace on a clear, broad, straightaway road is a rate few drivers have the courage to dare. Shift the race, however, to a narrow and by no means smooth Irish road, with sharp turns to be negotiated every mile or two and with the pace most of the way close to a mile a minute; remember that passing a rival racer must be done with one wheel in the ditch and that corners must be rounded at full speed, often with two of the wheels in the air; remember the danger of traction failing and the driver being dashed into a wall or tree by the road side and that at any moment there is a possibility of the racing automobiles becoming lurching and wrecked in an awful tangle of men and machinery, and it will be realized that to be a successful automobile racer one must forget all about self and think of nothing but the joy of victory ahead—if the fates permit.

But besides the James Gordon Bennett cup there are several other international automobile races in which Americans will take part. Most notable of these is the Paris-Madrid race, which has attracted the entries of several Americans who have made records at home and abroad. Among these are Foxhall Keene and William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. Mr. Keene has been preparing for this race and is considered a likely candidate for winner. His old time rival, Henry Fournier, is entered for the race, as he is for the Bennett cup, and it is Mr. Keene's ambition to prove his superiority over the bold Frenchman, who is second to none when nerve and skill are required.

The most important of all the international races, however, is the Bennett cup. Only those drivers who are willing to risk their lives in the demonstration of the superiority of the product of the designers and builders of the countries they represent have any chance of victory. It is considered that the race in Ireland will be largely a contest of drivers, and in that event America seems to have an excellent show, for no more capable and courageous team than Messrs. Winton, Moers and Owen could have been chosen to represent the United States in Ireland.

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Placing the New Bell—Workmen are now engaged in placing the fine new bell in position in St. John's Lutheran church. It will probably be ready to call the worshippers together next Sunday.

New Sunday School—A Presbyterian Sunday school was organized at the school house north of the city, near the Ross farm in Jethro Hollow, on Sunday, and will meet regularly each Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The officers of the school are A. E. Waggle, superintendent, and D. J. Johnson, secretary and treasurer.

Hurt By a Stone—John, aged 9, a son of Louis Graubart, Cherry alley, was struck on the head by a stone thrown by another lad and got a severe scalp wound. He was unconscious for a time. The boys were over in West Virginia at the time, stoning apple trees to knock off the fruit.

Fined $1 and Costs—While celebrating a holiday annually observed by his native countrymen, John Wockdzyz, a Pole, was arrested last evening by Chief Wyman. He was holding up a telephone pole on Market street and was hearing down very close to the ground under the weight. He was an inoffensive sort of a fellow and the mayor let him off with the minimum fine, $1 and costs.

Too Smart.
"Once when I was a Mississippi pilot," said Mark Twain, "I got out of work and had to hustle for a new job. I talked to a number of captains, but none of them wanted a pilot. Finally I met a man who said there was a vacancy on his boat that I might fill if I could qualify. He asked me about my habits, my religion, my birth, my schooling, and so on. Then he said: 'Now, for the main thing: Do you know where the snags in the river are?' 'No, captain,' I said, 'I don't.' He swore, 'Wants to be a pilot,' he muttered, 'and don't know where the snags are.' 'I know where they're not,' said I. 'But my smartness cost me the job.'"

Good Shoes

A good solid shoe at a reasonable price, is cheaper than a cheap shoe at a cheap price. We are selling Ladies' Oxfords at $1.00 a pair that are strictly solid, and will guarantee them to wear. Pat. tip or plain toe. You can possibly buy oxfords for less money, because there are cheaper ones made. But one pair of ours at $1.00 will be worth more than two pair of the cheaper ones.

Which Is Foolish? Which Is Wise?

You are paying $15.00 a month rent; your neighbor is paying $15.00 a month on his property. In ten years you will have 120 rent receipts representing $1800.00 of your hard earned money. Your neighbor will have a deed free and clear from all encumbrances for his home worth perhaps $2500.00. You paid $1800.00 out and have nothing. He paid $1800.00 out and owns his home which meanwhile has grown in value. He has $2500.00 to his credit in property; you have nothing. You earned $3.00 per day. He earned $3.00 per day. You had a wife and family. He had a wife and family. You had sickness of yourself and family. He had sickness of himself and family. You had no work part of the time. He had no work part of the time. You had to meet your $15.00 rent monthly. He had to meet his $15.00 payment monthly. Had you failed to have paid your rent you would have been ejected. Had he failed to make his payments he would have taken advantage of the Grace in his Contract.

Who is the wise one?
Who is the foolish one?
We're after your case.
We want to help you.
Give us opportunity.
We'll do it.

If you are at all intelligent you will see our point. It is not what you spend your money for, but how you spend it. Clothes and food are legitimate expenditures of money but if someone offers you a way that you can buy clothes and food and receive back your money would you not avail yourself of it? Why then not take the same plan when it is offered you in that other essential of life, a shelter, a home.

We make the offer and are waiting to hear from you.

Strong Sentiment Shown in Favor of Holding the Usual Parade.

Will Be Asked of Trades Council and Much Attention Will Be Paid to the Program for the Eventful Day.

Preparations for the labor day celebration are going steadily forward, and at the meeting held last night considerable progress was made. The Potters' National Bank has been secured for the committee's use, and meetings have so far been held only on each Monday night. Hereafter, however, the body will get together oftener.

Few of the sub-committees have been appointed as yet, and it was decided at the meeting last night that it would be impossible to get along without more help. The present committee is a good one and has worked faithfully and well as far as the project has advanced, but there are a great many departments in a celebration of this character, and they are so varied in their operation that it requires men who are familiar with the various features to handle them right.

At the meeting to be held by trades council on Wednesday night the chairman of the committee will ask that the general committee be enlarged. Five more members will be asked and it is probable President Beatty will comply. The addition to the body will enable the chairman of the committee to appoint the heads of the sub-committees at once, and with the hustling that the committee expects to do they will barely finish the task in hand before the date of the celebration, which is September 7.

The matter of advertising was taken up and thoroughly discussed. More attention will be paid to this department on the occasion of the 1933 demonstration than has ever been customary. It was deemed the wiser plan to defer definite action on the matter until the addition was made to the committee.

A large number of communications were received by the committee's secretary, John Reark, all of which declared in favor of a parade on Labor Day. The matter had been referred to the different locals for a decision, and the committee acted wisely in this. It was the idea of the committee to get a definite expression from the unionists of the city as to whether it would be advisable to hold a parade. When a local organization decides in favor of the parade, they will naturally be under obligation to turn out themselves and see to it that their neighbor does likewise. This action on the part of the committee is commendable and will have its effect.

MEANS MUCH TO THIS CITY

LOCAL BANK TO HANDLE C. & P. RAILROAD FUNDS.

The Potters' National Bank Contracts for a Large Business.

That East Liverpool is fast becoming an important financial center, as well as one of the leading industrial localities along the Ohio river, was demonstrated this morning when a deal was closed which places all of the business of the big C. & P. Railroad company in the hands of the Potters' National bank.

Details with reference to the transaction were secured at a late hour this afternoon and involve negotiations which have been in progress for weeks. The deal is one of the most important ever consummated in East Liverpool financial circles.

Treasurer T. H. Knight, of the company, having headquarters in Pittsburgh, has been in the city several times recently, and on each occasion has expressed himself as well pleased with the prospects, and it is thought that he has placed the matter before the company's directors in such a favorable light that the bargain was quickly closed. Yesterday Paymaster W. H. Rhodes came to the city, and it was upon the receipt of his report to his superiors that the instructions were given to close up, which was done this morning.

The successful termination of the negotiations is a stroke of enterprise on the part of the officials of the local institutions that cannot go unnoticed among the foremost financiers in the country, and not a little credit is due Cashier Rollin W. Patterson, who has been untiring in his efforts to bring about the desired end.

The securing of the immense business of the railroad company will mean much to the city in many ways. In addition to the handling of thousands of dollars in a single day, it will make the Potters' National bank one of the leading institutions in this section. The business heretofore has been handled in Pittsburgh.

The territory taken by the deal, and for which the bank will be called upon to handle the currency extends from Bellaire to East Liverpool and from this city on the main line to Cleveland.

The bank officials look upon the matter as a merited recognition of the city as an industrial center, and the favor is appreciated very highly by them.

STATE OFFICIAL IS ASSASSINATED

The Comptroller of Texas Is Killed in His Office in the Capitol.

Austin, Tex., June 30.—(Special).—R. M. Love, comptroller of the state, was assassinated in his office in the capitol building here today.

The deed was committed by W. G. Hill, a discharged employee. Love died from his injuries and Hill is under arrest.

NEW ELECTION IN SERBIA

Skuptschina Dissolved, Edict Meeting With Popular Approval.

Belgrade, Serbia, June 30.—(Special).—The skuptschina has been dissolved and an election ordered. The edict meets with the approval of the masses. The election will be held in September.

The police stopped them in the Diamond this afternoon—Uncle Josh Brass Band blowing so loud about Joseph Bros. big bargains in straw hats. 153-h

THE CROWDS AT COOPER'S

REALITY IN HIS WORK

That Cannot Be Questioned—Valuable Testimonials Heard Last Night.

Cooper's show was better and the crowd bigger last night than ever before, the truth being that Brun's bill is almost too small to accommodate the immense throngs that flock there every night to hear the wonderful Cooper. There is a magic in his name and a reality in his work.

Last night Mrs. Jennie Waters, of Thompson avenue, told of how she had suffered long with kidney trouble. She could not stand on her feet, long at a time until she tried Dr. Cooper's New Discovery. One bottle completely cured her and she was there last night to purchase more of it as a household necessity.

Mrs. E. Verden of East Fifth street, suffered intensely with catarrh. She bought a bottle of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery and last night told of how it had greatly benefited her. She wanted more of the medicine. 153-j
